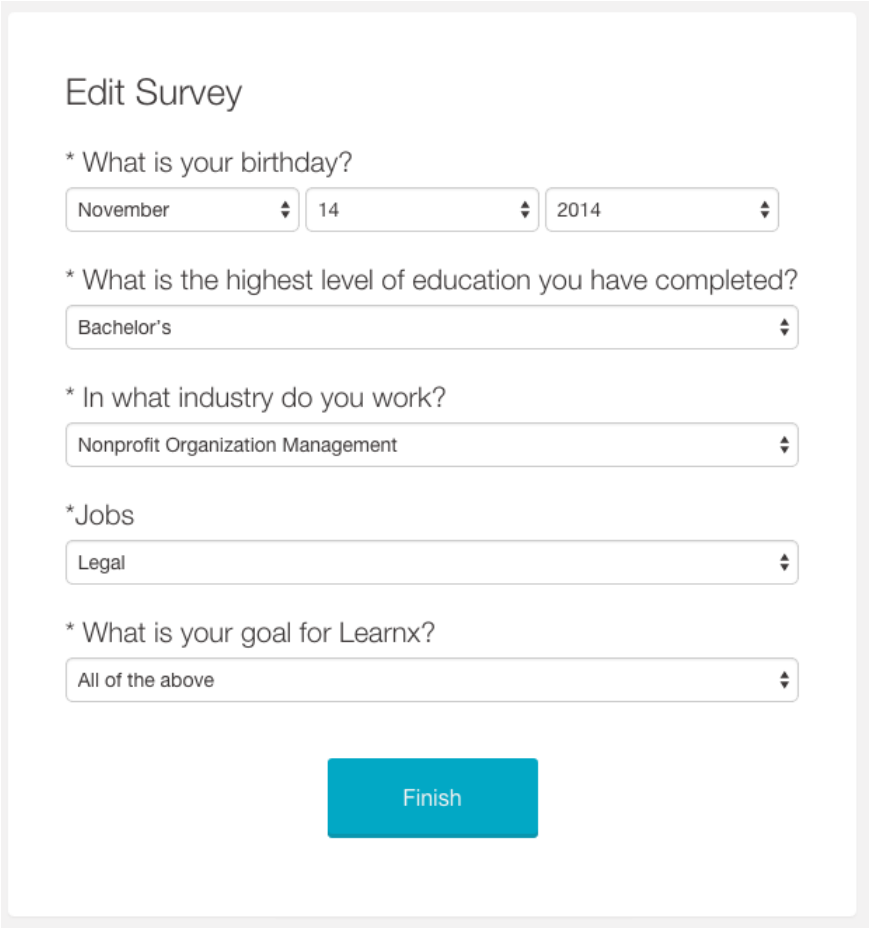
Memorandum

To: Nick Ducoff, Vice President at nuEX;
Jon Fish, Project Manager at nuEX;
From: Marquis Cabrera, Project Consultant at nuEX
Date: November 17, 2014
Subject: MVP Test

This memorandum is a critique of Learnx's sign-up, module learning, and next steps process.

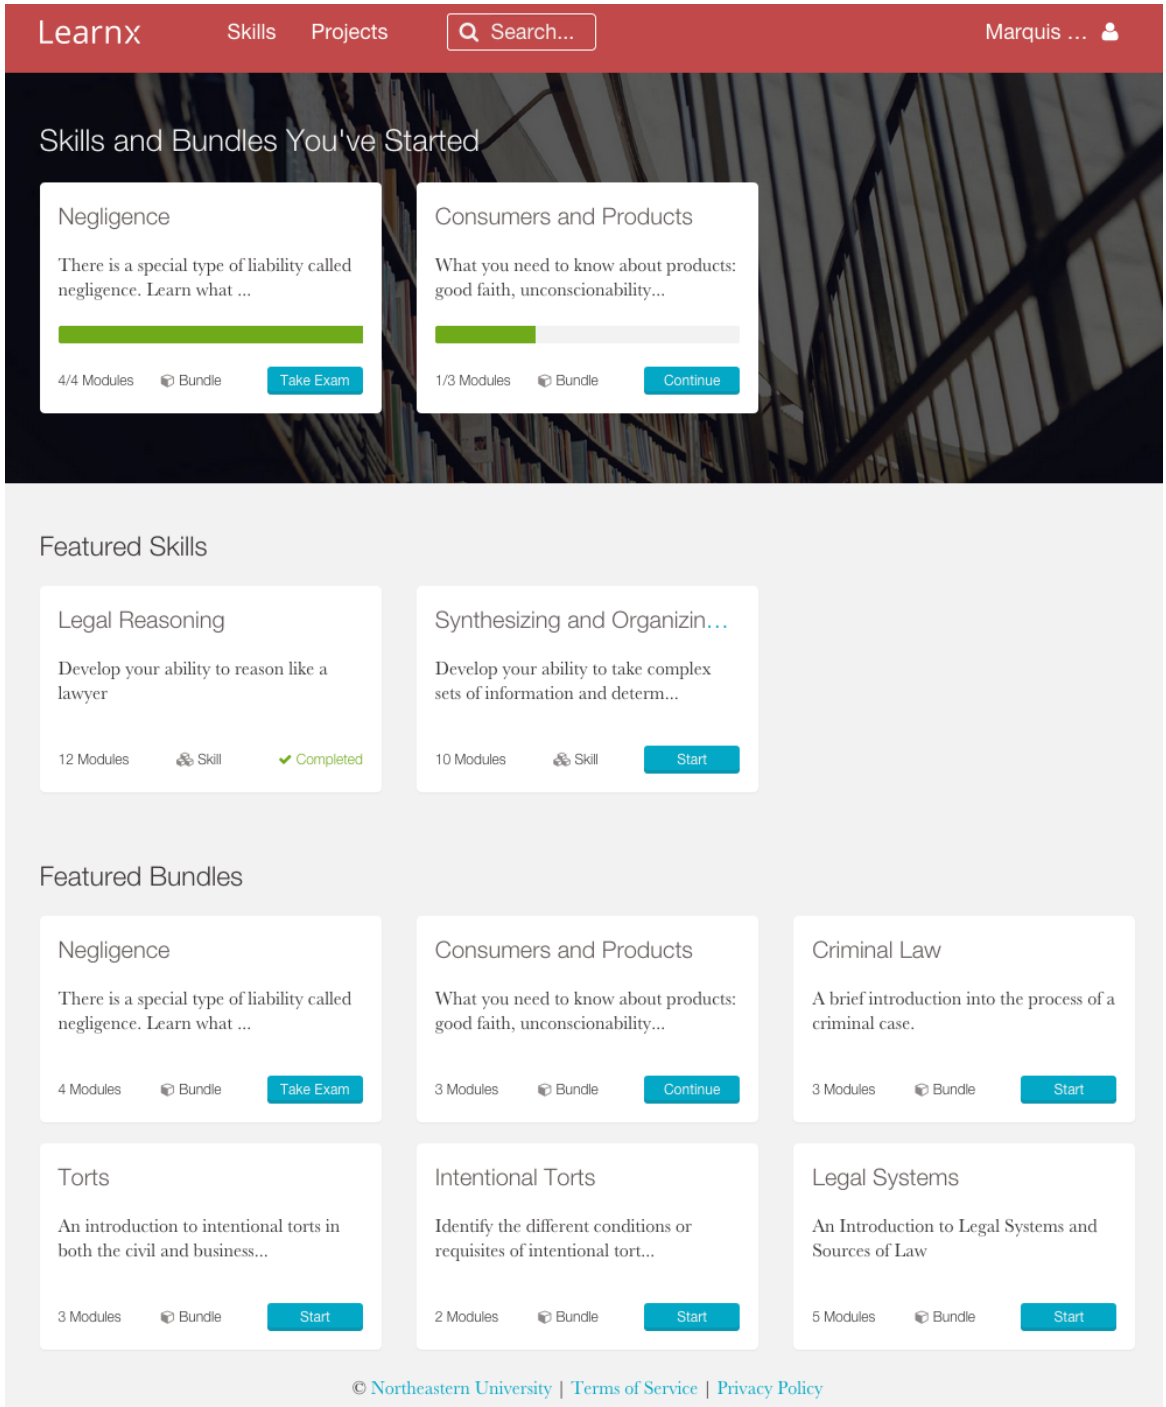
Sign Up



Thoughts:

- Sign-up was easy.
- Survey was easy to complete because information required was easy to to input.
- Backend still needs to be developed for individual profile purposes.

Modules & Bundles



Thoughts:

- Accessing the bundles was easy; click, start, learn, click.
- Pictures for modules replaced functionality. Worked for MVP.
- Headings made navigating easy.
- Some text was unreadable, specifically on the damages slide.

After finishing up the modules

Legal Reasoning

You scored 93% on the final exam.

27 of 29 questions were answered correctly.

Because you scored over 90%, you unlocked Project:

In What States Can Northeastern University Offer Credit for Distance Learning?

Congrats! You completed the Bundle:

Legal Reasoning

You completed all 12 Modules.

Bonus! You achieved the Skill:

Legal Reasoning

Share your Legal Reasoning skill on LinkedIn

Highlight your new skill. Copy the following text to your résumé:
- Competency in Legal Reasoning

Done

Marquis Cabrera

I achieved a new skill on Learnx: Legal Reasoning! Check it out at http://www.learnx.co

Gain real world skills on your own time

learnx.co · Gain real world skills on your own time Learn Synthesizing and Organizing Facts and Decisions Learn Critical Thinking and Analysis Learn Understand Legal Regulations Learn Extract Useful and Pertinent Information from Research...

Like · Comment · Share · 5h ago

Thoughts:

- Getting 93% allowed me to unlock the project(s) section.
- The 'In What States Can Northeastern University Credit for Distance Learning' is unavailable until the project employer approves.