Introduction of George P. Kansas (about 1 Minute)

Good morning/afternoon/evening everyone. It's my pleasure to introduce our (keynote/ next) speaker today, George P. Kansas.

By show of hands:

> How many of you would like to learn a new vocabulary of vitality and healing, so that you can live your life with more confidence, passion and enthusiasm?
> How many of you would like to play a little and be supported in taking ownership of your own thoughts, your health, and your life?
>
> How many are ready to learn some of the secrets to making the most of your life, no matter what the universe hands you so that you can live without fear ...
> no matter what?

If you raised your hand to any of these, then you've come to the right place!

George has been called by the national media "the Indiana Jones of performance coaching" because of his trademarked approach called Emotional- Archaeology!

For over 20 years, George has been leading his clients - people like us - in the digging and sweeping necessary to uncover the associations that prevent us from balancing the stuff we have to do, the stuff we want to do, and he stuff we were born to do!

He's spoken to audiences from the Adirondacks to the Bahamas and from the Alps to the Outback. His clients have included professional and amateur athletes, entrepreneurs, performing artists and companies including Delta Airlines, Red Roof Inns, MapInfo, the Utah Association of Realtors, U.S. Oncology, Ricoh & Verizon.

He's written several books including Jumper Cables for the Healing Soul, Quitting is NOT on the Menu and a fun series of pocket meditation books for the Zen Monk in all of us (all available at the website bearing his name)...

Please join me in welcoming, George P. Kansas
