

Trade Simulation Reflection Essay

Write a one-page, 250-word response to today's free trade simulation. Compare and contrast your country's resources and strategies to those of other countries in the simulation. How did your country achieve success? What trading strategies did your country employ? Why were you successful? What limited, or constrained, your country's success? How realistic do you think this simulation was, compared to real trade between independent nations?

Trade Simulation Reflection Essay

Write a one-page, 250-word response to today's free trade simulation. Compare and contrast your country's resources and strategies to those of other countries in the simulation. How did your country achieve success? What trading strategies did your country employ? Why were you successful? What limited, or constrained, your country's success? How realistic do you think this simulation was, compared to real trade between independent nations?

Trade Simulation Reflection Essay

Write a one-page, 250-word response to today's free trade simulation. Compare and contrast your country's resources and strategies to those of other countries in the simulation. How did your country achieve success? What trading strategies did your country employ? Why were you successful? What limited, or constrained, your country's success? How realistic do you think this simulation was, compared to real trade between independent nations?

Trade Simulation Reflection Essay

Write a one-page, 250-word response to today's free trade simulation. Compare and contrast your country's resources and strategies to those of other countries in the simulation. How did your country achieve success? What trading strategies did your country employ? Why were you successful? What limited, or constrained, your country's success? How realistic do you think this simulation was, compared to real trade between independent nations?