

Allyson Kelly started dancing at the age of 5, competing all over the US winning numerous titles and high scores. She then received her ballet training on scholarship at the Kirov Academy of Ballet in Washington, DC and the Debbie Allen Dance Academy in Los Angeles, CA. While working with Debbie Allen, Allyson starred in many of Ms. Allen's productions at the Kennedy Center including Dancing in the Wings and Dreams. Allyson went on to tour the world with Complexions Contemporary Ballet under the direction of Dwight Rhoden and Desmond Richardson. For the past twelve years she has been a Radio City Rockette in NYC at Radio City Music Hall. Throughout her career Allyson has performed with PITBULL, Christina Aguilera, on the Today Show, Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, Christmas in Rockefeller Center, the VMAs, and the TONY awards to name a few. She has appeared in Radio City, Smirnoff, NFL, and Capitol One commercials, and was an original cast member in the New York Spring Spectacular at Radio City Music Hall. In addition to dancing, she has modeled for Curtain Call costumes and Movmnt magazine. Allyson also teaches master classes all over the United States and just got certified as a CorePower yoga instructor.