JOISEPH's Rosatant is not a classic rosé wine, just as Richard's great-aunt Rosa (formerly known as 'Rosatant') was not an aunt like any other. She tended her four rows of vines meticulously and lovingly. If a vine failed, she planted other climbing plants: pumpkins, courgettes, cucumbers. But sometimes she also planted peonies or currants. In between the vines there was garlic, onions and herbs. Paradise-like beauty!

About JOISEPH: Founded in 2015 | organic | natural wines | JOISEPH is a word play of Jois (origin of the grapes) and Joseph (a traditional name for someone who does wines like in former times: No cultured yeast, no enzymes, no additives …) | all wines unfined and unfiltered | 10 hectares of vineyards on 20 plots | thereof 3 hectares of meadows and orchards | 3 sparkling wines, 10 wines (5 whites, 1 rosé, 4 reds), Verjus and white grape juice with herbs | 15 export countries, over 90 % export
