Originally produced in the line in November 1907 and then published in the journal Confidence, October 1908, p. 11, 15-16. Later published in Redemption Tidings, February 14, 1947, p. 4 DEAR MR. & MRS. BODDY, After 7 full days of Glorious Presence of Divine Glory resting upon me, I send you this testimony of The Glory of God. For 3 months I was made of full Pentecost. I had a clear testimony of the baptism of the Holy Ghost 14 years ago last July,[1894] and this brought about the great revelation of God in special gifts to the sick and the constant life and aspiration to bring others to Jesus. But from time to time, reading the Acts of the Apostles, I have always seen that the signs did not follow, because I am inclined to believe that they should be after the true Pentecost, according to Mark xvi. The desire grew more and more in my inner soul, giving me a holy cry of breath after this clear manifestation. I visited meetings in London, Sunderland and other places, but I always knew they were not looking for Pentecost. There seemed to be many letters, but very little spirit that would give a hungry and needy Baptism of Fire, such as burn distinctions and officiousness and the appearance of pride and evidence of social standing. Bowland Street Mission To this day I live in the Acts of the Apostles. I speak with new languages, the Holy Fire of God's Presence fills me until my pen moves to the glory of God, and my whole being is filled with the Presence of the Holy Spirit. I am almost led to believe that 20 years is not too long to wait for the Holy anointing of God the Holy Spirit. On Friday, October 25, 1907, we had a special meeting in the Mission Room, Bowland Street, Bradford, and after waiting about 2 hours, The Presence of God came miraculously and gave me a movement as early as the beginning. I understood the brilliance and holy presence perfectly. Others also felt it. On Saturday, me and a friend went to Sunderland to wait for Pentecost at All Saints' Day, in Mr Boddy's church. We heard a lot about this blessed work and were encouraged, but upon arrival in Sunderland found the enemy very busy discouraging believers; this did not bother me, because I went with an open mind and prayed to be clearly convinced that there was something there that would not reveal the Glory of God, which I would immediately purify and protest against it, but God was there with me. But I have found full Presence and Power to restore believers and heal the sick. In my experience, this is not the case in some The reason is that they do not believe in the full Gospel to a great extent, and it is nothing new for me to find great leaders against languages, and I believe that even in these times they cannot enter because of their dissuasity. I praise God for Pentecost. On a Sunday morning, October 26th, [Wigglesworth made a wrong - it was Ed's 27th] after waiting a lot for God, I went to the Salvation Army Congregation, Roker Avenue. God bless the army. They immediately greeted me, and already realizing His Presence in my body, I longed for communion, and when, after prayer, the Glory of God covered me. I was aware at the same time of much experience I believe Daniel had in his 10th chapter. After that, I regained the strength to kneel, and continued in this Holy Splendor of God throughout the day, still doing a more powerful work to follow. I went to All Saints, to the Service of Communion, and after I was led to wait in the Spirit, many things that take place in the expectations of encounters that still lead me to the hungry feeling of Holy Justice. Around 11 a.m. on Tuesday morning, at the Vicariate of All Saints, I asked my sister to help me witness the baptism of the Holy Ghost. She put her hands on me in the presence of her brother. The Parish Hall of All Saints, Sunderland Fire fell and burned in me until the Holy Spirit clearly revealed absolute purity before God. At this point she was summoned from the room, and during her absence there was a wonderful revelation, my body became filled with 1 light and holy presence, and in revelation I saw an empty cross, and at the same time Jesus, who I loved and adored crowned in Glory in the reigning position. The glorious memory of these moments is beyond my expression to give, when I could not find a word to express, and then irresistible Power filled me and moved my essence until I found to my glorious astonishment I spoke in other languages clearly. After that, burning love for all filled my soul. I am glad to bear my testimony, I pray for those who fight this truth, but I am clearly given to understand that I must come out of every element of non-believer. I am already a witness to the signs i have learned. Praise him. SMITH WIGGLESWORTH * * * From Smith Wigglesworth- Apostle of the Faith by Stanley Frodsham, Chapter 5. By the time I was baptized in spirit, this meeting lasted in the great vestry of the Church of All Saints, and I went straight to it. The vicar of the church, Pastor Boddy, had a behind and spoke. I knew that he had not yet been baptized in the Holy Spirit, and I interrupted him by saying, Oh, please let me speak, Mr. Boddy; I have just been baptized in the Holy Spirit. The place was full of people. I don't remember what I said, but I know I made all these people very dissatisfied and dissatisfied with their position. They said, We have rebuke this man because he was so hungry, but he came for a few days and was baptized, and some of us have been waiting here for months and have not yet received. Great hunger came across them all. From that day on, God began to pour out His Spirit until in a very short time fifty were baptized. The first thing I did was telegraph to my house, saying, I was baptized in the Holy Spirit and spoke in tongues. On the train to my hometown, the devil started asking, Will you take it to Bradford? As for my feelings at the moment, I had nothing to take, but I just don't live feelings, but by faith. So I yelled at the train coach to amaze everyone, Yes, I take it! I was very happy when I made this declaration, but somehow I knew that from that moment on it would be a big fight all the time. When I got home, one of my sons said to me, Father, did you speak the tongues?. I said, Yes, George. Then let's listen to you, he said. But I could not say anything, because although I was baptized in the Holy Spirit, I did not receive a separate gift of tongues. It didn't happen until nine months later. My son did not understand that speaking the languages accompanying baptism in the Spirit is not a gift of the languages spoken in 1. but there can be no further utterance in languages unless there is a special anointing of the Spirit. The gift of languages, however, is such that the recipient can use it for prayer or worship at any time. My wife said to me, So you spoken the language, right? And I said, Yes. Well, she said, You want you to understand that I'm just as baptized as you are and I don't speak languages. I saw that the contest starts at home. I've been preaching for twenty years, she continued, and you sat next to me on the platform, but on Sunday you will proclaim yourself, and I will see what is in it. She kept her word. On Sunday, she sat at the back of the building. Until that day, we always sat together on the platform. So the contest started strongly in the church. There were three steps to the platform and as I went up these three steps the Lord gave me the scripture in Isaiah 61:1-3, the Spirit of the Lord God is on Me; Because the Lord has anolyted Me to preach good news to the gentle; He sent me to bind the broken heart, to preach freedom to the poachers, and to open the prison to those who are bound. I was not a preacher, but hearing my Lord's voice saying these words to me, I began. I can't remember what I said now, but my wife was Disturbed. The bench on which she sat sat sat, seated nine people and moved around her until she sat on each part of it. Then she said in a voice that everyone around her could hear: This is not my Smith, Lord, this is not my Smith! I was giving out the last hymn when the mission secretary stood up and said, I want what our leader has received. The strange thing was that when he was supposed to sit down, he was late for the place and went down to the floor. Then my eldest son stood up and said he wanted what his father had, and he too took his place straight to the floor. In a short time there were eleven people firmly on the floor of this mission. The strangething thing was that everyone laughed in the Spirit and laughed at each other. The Lord truly turned his captivity back into Zion and his children's mouths were filled with laughter according to the Lord's word in Psalm 126: I, 2. This was the beginning of the great outpouring of the Spirit, where hundreds of people were baptized in the Holy Spirit and all of them spoke in tongues as the Spirit of God spoke. Expression.
