

We are delighted to invite you to a virtual roundtable event for NGO leaders, co-hosted by the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize (GSTEP) and the Practical Education Network (PEN).

Please register for the event here.

The agenda for the session will be as follows:

Time	Agenda item
13.00-13.15	Short presentation by Constance Agyeman (Director of the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize, GSTEP, and Director at Nesta Challenges): Introducing the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize (GSTEP)
13.15-13.25	Short presentation by Heather Beem (CEO at Practical Education Network, PEN): Introducing PEN and the STEM youth advocacy network
13.25-14.00	Workshop 1: Alignment on messaging of STEM education and youth entrepreneurship We will divide attendees into small breakout groups to align on the key aims and messaging around STEM, practical education and youth entrepreneurship in Ghana.
14.00-14.35	Workshop 2: Working together as a STEM education and youth entrepreneurship network We will divide attendees into small breakout groups to discuss how we can work together most effectively, in practice.
14.35-14.45	Quick poll: Barriers and learnings We will run a short poll to understand the key barriers and learnings from the group in respect to STEM, practical education and youth entrepreneurship in Ghana.
14.45-15.00	Short presentation by Constance Agyeman (Director of the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize, GSTEP, and Director at Nesta Challenges): 'What's next?' and questions

If you have any questions about the event, please contact
Naomi Whitbourn (naomi.whitbourn@nesta.org.uk).

GSTEP is being run by a consortium of partners:

Foundervine

With support from:

foundation
BOTNAR

