

With a distinguished career spanning over four decades, Anatoli Kucheruk brings vast experience and passion for classical ballet to B. Funk. He trained with the Kiev Ballet Academy and was a soloist for the State Opera and Ballet Theater in Lviv, performing lead roles in classics such as Swan Lake, Sleeping Beauty, Giselle, and Don Quixote. He's won multiple-time silver medals at international ballet competitions and has danced and taught all over the world. As a ballet master and coach since 1984, Mr. Anatoli has worked with the Kirov Academy of Ballet in Washington, DC, and the State Opera and Ballet Theater in Tbilisi. He specializes in classical ballet technique and men's training, mentoring dancers at all levels—from young beginners to professional competitors. Known for a disciplined yet inspiring teaching style, Mr. Anatoli is dedicated to helping each student unlock their full potential and develop both technical excellence and artistic expression.