Young Artists

We had the joy of featuring many of our students in the Young Artists segment. Each child's journey reminded us that art is not just about results, but about growth, curiosity, and self-expression.

From imaginative storytellers to careful planners and cheerful explorers, every student brought their own unique style and energy into the classroom. It has been wonderful to witness their progress and celebrate their achievements—big and small.

Here are our Young Artists for the first 2026 Issue:

A photograph of three young girls, all wearing glasses, standing in front of a large, colorful, hand-drawn word 'CHERRY' in the background. The girl in the center is holding a drawing titled '2025 GLOBAL ART MOTHER'S DAY COMPETITION' which depicts a mother and child. The girl on the left is holding a drawing of a cat with hearts. The girl on the right is holding a drawing of Santa Claus and a snowman. The entire scene is framed by a purple and blue border.

Cheryl is a gentle and focused young artist who takes great care in her drawings.

In class, Cheryl listens attentively and follows guidance step by step, allowing her to complete her pieces confidently and efficiently.

As she continues to explore new subjects and ideas, we look forward to seeing Cheryl grow in confidence and develop her own artistic style.

RHYS

Rhys is a wonderfully creative young artist with strong sense of his own ideas.

During the creative process, he always brings his own thoughts to both composition and colour choices, giving every artwork a unique personal touch.

He is thoughtful, determined, and takes his work seriously. This quality can be seen in the focus and care he puts into each piece he creates.

We can't wait to see what amazing creations he will bring to life next!

XIN ER

Xin Er is a cheerful and energetic young artist who brings joy and positivity into the classroom.

Always eager to participate, she confidently shares her ideas, helps her friends, and shows great kindness toward younger children.

She has grown wonderfully in confidence. Once hesitant, she is now brave in taking on challenges and enjoys completing her artworks independently.

We look forward to seeing her express more of her own stories through art and continue shining as a confident young artist

Xuan Qi is a quiet yet friendly young artist who works well with her peers.

She shows exceptional skill in anime drawing and colour blending, bringing her characters to life with depth, emotion, and vibrancy.

Her thoughtful use of colour gives her artwork a strong visual impact and a clear artistic voice.

With continued practice and exploration of new styles, she has great potential to grow even further. We are excited to see her refine her skills and continue shining as a talented young artist.

Parent Appreciation

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all parents for your continued trust and support throughout 2025.

Your encouragement at home and cooperation with our teachers play a big part in helping our students grow confidently and joyfully.

We truly appreciate this partnership and look forward to working closely together again in 2026.

Looking Ahead to 2026

As we begin 2026, we are excited to introduce new initiatives and activities designed to further inspire creativity and artistic confidence.

This year, we will continue encouraging students to explore a wider range of subjects, work on larger-scale pieces, and challenge themselves with new techniques. We have a selected 6 new Deco Art projects for our students in 2026.

Our goal remains the same—to provide a supportive environment where every child feels confident to try, express, and grow.

Strengthening Connections Between the Centre, our Students and Parents

In 2026, we will be focusing on will be on strengthening connections between the centre, our students, and parents. Students will enjoy more celebrations through competitions, mini contests, birthdays, certificates, parties, and year-end exhibitions and prize-giving, so effort is recognised.

We will also be increasing parent engagement through dialogue sessions, greater involvement in events, and more active communication via social media, including a closed parents' Facebook group for sharing updates and highlights.
