We kickstarted the month of July with an exhilarating event - the 2025 Global Art Hougang, Bedok and Yishun In-House Competition, held at Chui Hwee Lin Club!

The hall buzzed with excitement as our talented young artists showcased their creativity, energy and passion for the art.

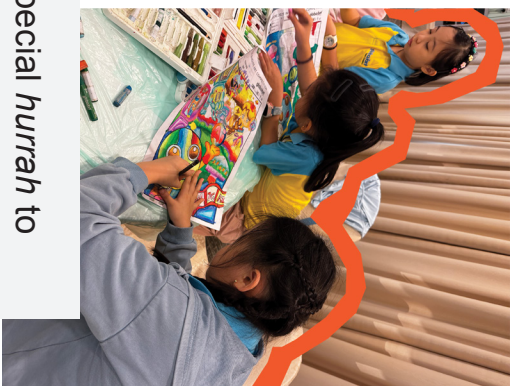

Astounding
congratulations to all our students who participated!

You are all shining stars!

And a special hurrah to our Top 3 winners in each category - you have truly shined with your creativity, dedication and imagination! Your hard work and artistic flair truly has inspired all of us and we are so proud of what you have achieved!

Along the way, she has celebrated wonderful milestones — scoring 78 (B grade) in the 2024 Foundation Grading Exam and earning 3rd Runner-Up in the 2025 In-House Competition (Group B)!

Over time, Jessica has grown more confident, now able to complete entire paintings on her own while carefully blending colours and refining details. Beyond her artistic journey, she has also blossomed socially — becoming more comfortable sharing her ideas and connecting with friends.

We're so proud of Jessica's growth and can't wait to see her creativity and confidence continue to shine brighter!

Jessica

A quiet and gentle girl, Jessica expresses herself best through her art. She loves exploring new techniques and experimenting with colour combinations, always paying close attention to details.

Her paintings are truly special — filled with creativity, precision, and a unique artistic touch that makes each piece stand out beautifully.

Lastly, to all our participants, keep believing in yourself, keep exploring new ideas and always remember that every drawing you make is another step towards becoming an even greater artist! We can't wait to see how high your talents will take you in the future!

Celebrating Singapore's 60th Birthday

As we celebrate our nation's 60th birthday, our creative students from the Hougang, Bedok and Yishun centres put their imaginations to work! Each fantastical artwork showcased their love and adoration of our vibrant city, from the majestic Merlion fountain, to our colourful food culture, and even the dazzling sights of Marina Bay Sands and the Singapore Flyer!

In just a short time, she has already taken part in exciting events like the 2024 National Day Art Contest (Group A) and proudly achieved 4th Runner-Up in the 2025 In-House Competition (Group B)!

Though a little shy when talking to others, she shows her creativity beautifully through her art.

Amber loves unicorns, Kuromi, and all things cute! Her sketchbooks are filled with charming details and delightful colour choices that make every page come alive.

As Amber continues to grow, we encourage her to try drawing her favourite illustrations in larger sizes, refine the details even more, and bravely share her ideas in class. Keep shining Amber!

Amber's Art Booth

Amber joined Global Art Yishun in 2024, starting in the Foundation 2 level and has greatly progressed to Foundation 3.

She is a quiet and gentle little girl who is always lending a kind, helping hand in class and brings a warm, caring presence to those around her.

What a joyful way to show pride in our home! We wish Singapore to continue to shine brightly for the next 60 years and beyond, and to be always filled with joy, harmony and endless possibilities for the future! Majulah Singapura!

Deco Art Workshop Arctic Seal

After weeks filled with hardwork, the students of Global Art Bedok-Hougang-Yishun wind down with the termly Deco Art Workshop.

This term, the students learned how to make a decoartive phone holder with an arctic theme by using cardboard as a base and air-dry clay for the seal and intricate details!

She has already achieved wonderful milestones — participating in the 2025 In-House Competition where she placed as 4th Runner-Up, and scoring in the Global Art International Student Grading Exam in 2024.

Artistically, Murphy loves to challenge herself with drawings of adorable cartoon animals and cute girl characters.

Her colouring has also improved beautifully, especially in shading and tones. While she's still building confidence in blending oil pastels smoothly, we know that with practice, she'll discover a blending style that's uniquely her own.

We are so proud of how far she has come and can't wait to see her grow even more. Keep shining, Murphy — your creativity is truly inspiring, and we'll always be cheering you on!

Murphy, joined Global Art Hougang in 2024 and is currently in Pre-Basic after starting in Foundation Level 2. In just one year, she has blossomed into a confident and creative young artist!

Fun Fact!

There are 6 species of ice seals localising the surface bays of the Northern hemisphere of Greenland, Svalbard and Northern Norway.

The seal referenced on this Deco Art closely resembles the Harp seal, who are commonly found on the arctic side of Greenland and Svalbard.

Harp seals, sometimes called Saddleback seals, referring to the saddlelike mark on the back and sides of the adults.

Though quiet by nature, Seb speaks volumes through his resilience and creativity in art. With every challenge — whether in class activities or competitions — he shows determination and a brave spirit.

Like a true problem-solver, Seb always tries things out by himself first before seeking help, and this independence shines through in his Foundation 3 artworks.

Seb's progress has been steady and strong. His focus and patience show that he is growing into an artist who values both creativity and precision.

Seb

Seb joined Global Art Hougang in 2024, starting in Foundation Level 2 and now proudly progressing to Foundation Level 3.

In his short time with us, he has already participated in several exciting events — winning Silver in the 2024 Year-End Annual Exhibition, joining the 2025 Singapore World Water Day Art Competition, the Global Art Mother's Day Competition, and the National Day Drawing Competition.

More than play

Arts and crafts offer a fun, hands-on learning experience for children to strengthen fine motor skills and problem-solving capabilities through simple, creative projects.

Beyond play, these activities can nurture life skills such as:

- Planning and organisation
- Hand-eye coordination
- Social skills
- Critical thinking
- Self-expression
- Creativity
- Confidence and independence

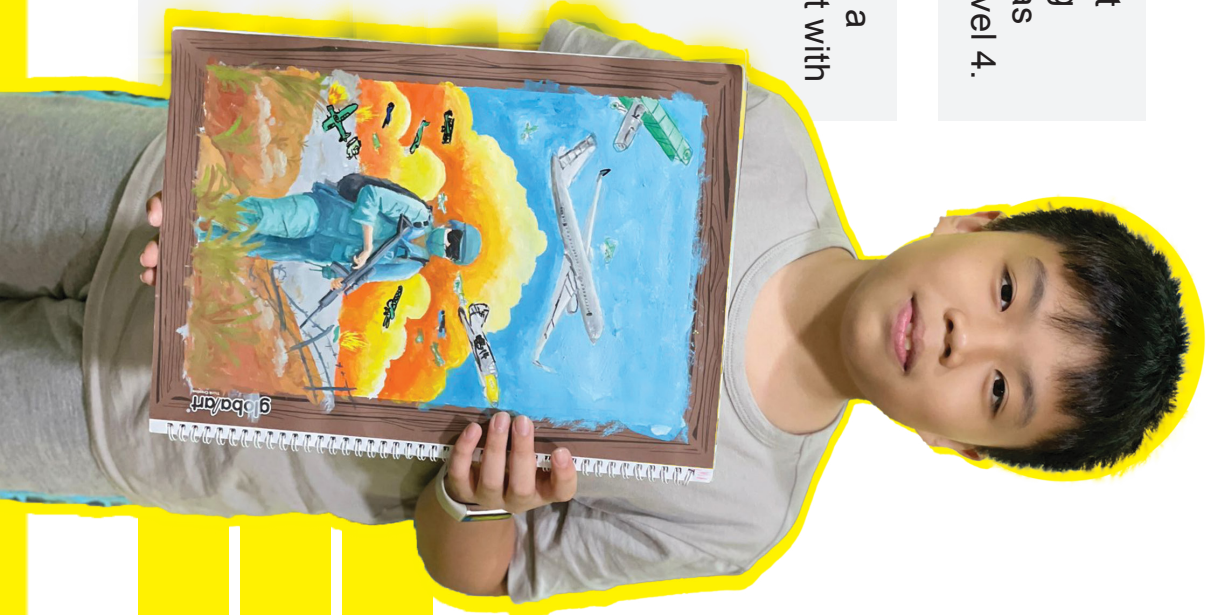

Young Artists of the Month

Caleb

Caleb joined Global Art Bedok in 2019, starting in Foundation 2 and has progressed to Basic level 4.

Caleb has grown to be a passionate young artist with a unique flair for mechanical subjects, especially his all-time favourite — airplanes!

He has an incredible eye for detail. his solid drawing skills and technical creativity shine brightly, showing both his patience and his passion for mechanical subjects.

In 2024, Caleb proudly achieved 3rd Runner-Up in the Global Art Bedok In-House Competition, Group C.

His artworks often stand out because he cleverly weaves his love for aircraft into his pieces, making them not only eye-catching but also full of personality and imagination.

We can't wait to see how Caleb continues to grow as an artist, combining his imagination with his keen technical eye. Keep flying high with your creativity, Caleb — the sky is just the beginning!
