Kardashians GraduationGraduation'yn Malik World TourCelebritiesPrincess Dentist GamePrincessSLOL Surprise VSCO GirlsDolls You admired the many physical attributes of your favorite anime characters such as their eyes, hair, chest, butts and even feet. Let's check some damn anime legs for a change. Why, why do we have an article dedicated to anime legs you ask? I mean, we need legs to love, stand, walk and run. I think they're useful. But beyond that, who cares? Well, I guess a lot of people. But look, you don't have to admit to having that in your feet, if you end up checking out the list we have for you below. Maybe you're just doing some research for your anime drawing lessons. Or you just really love checking out any anime related articles. Or you're on your feet. All this aside, we're here to uncover sexy anime legs with, admittedly, an emphasis on female characters. And no, we're not biased against the male species. It's just that most anime male characters have legs that are about as sexy as bread bread. That's a fact. Excuse me. Asuka Langley's Second Child, Asuka Langley Shikinami Souryuu from Evangelion: 2.0 You can (not) Preview Although Asuka is great to watch, she's also pretty temperamental, with a focus on the psychic. Just ask Shinji, he met the bottom of Asuka's leg for walking on her when she was naked! Does Asuki have the most beautiful anime legs? More like the deadliest. Uten Tenjou by Shoujo Kakumei Uten (Revolutionary Girl Uten) Revolutionary Girl Utena is a show that went out of its way to provide as many of the sexiest anime leg scenes as possible. One of the most remarkable scenes is where Akio caresses the bandaged leg of Utena. Is he trying to seduce her, or does he just have something for his feet? Yukari Yukino From Kotonoha no Niwa (Garden of Words) If you thought that the most complex and sexy anime scenes were relegated to Uten, then you would be wrong. Masterfully romantic drama Makoto Shinkai brings us one of the most touching scenes in the history of the anime environment. Some even compared it to the famous E.T. finger scene! Ryoko Hakubi from Tenchi Mui! It's time to go a little retro and rediscover a special beauty with crazy big blue hair. Ryouko is definitely one of the sexiest characters in Tenchi Muyou! Universe. She is also in amazing shape for someone over 5,000 years old. And she also has a great pair of legs, which she uses to chase The Tenchi, which she is madly in love with. Nami Cat Burglar from One Piece There was simply no way that Nami would be left out of this sexy anime foot list. She has huge fans who are crazy about her - so much so that they're after tons of fan art and fan fiction all over And it's not hard to see why; she is attractive and loyal to her friends. She also always wears a skimpy skimpy that often demonstrate her legs and legs. Akane Macho Chick Tendo from Ranma 1/2 Akane is a bit of a tomboy who leads a fairly active lifestyle. Even though it comes across as unfeminine, there are still plenty of boys who love her. She is also a martial artist who has no time for perverts. If they get any funny ideas, it will definitely give them good kicks. Lucy Lou-chan, Blonde, Princess, Lucky, Bunny Girl Heartfilia From Fairy Tail crazy adventure is pretty much done when Lucy is around. This is one girl who often finds herself in wild, dangerous capers. Sometimes, she will be right in the middle of a tense situation while, fortunately for us, her legs are exposed! She definitely got sexy anime legs in the Fairy Tail series. Mine Fujiko from Lupin III: Alcatraz Connection Fujiko is a pretty special femme fatale, and part of why we love the Lupin III series so much. Could her enticing legs be part of the reason why some famous thief has hot for her? Aria Holmes quadra Aria Kanzaki from Hidan but Aria (Aria Scarlet Ammunition) If you have a thing for cute loli characters, then Aria can be right in your alley. Also, if you can't get enough girls who wear thigh-high leggings, then you are in heaven! Aria has some of the sexiest legs as far as miniature female characters are concerned. Mumei from Kutsuju no Cabaneri (Cabaneri from the Iron Fortress) Mumei is another cute and petite character who happens to be much tougher than she looks. You only realize what a badass she really is when she needs to deal with undead zombie monsters. The action is dense, but the animators made sure that Mumei's smooth legs and legs stole the show. Lafter Frankland of the mobile costume Gundam: Iron-blooded Orphans Gundam series is not just about big badass fur and complex political shenanigans. It is also a series that introduced us to a pack of gorgeous and strong female characters. Lafter Frankland can fly a little under the radar for most Gundam fans - somewhat miserable as she's a pretty hottie! She is also someone who likes to look her best; That's why she takes extra care when painting her nails! Seagull Trabant of Hitsugi but Seagull (The Seagull-Coffin Princess-) Diminutive female wizards in the anime are a dime a dozen. The seagull stands apart from the party, but perhaps for the wrong reasons. She has unusually large eyebrows and carries a giant coffin. But perverts will be indifferent as long as they can look at the sexy legs of anime in fantasy land. Mai-chi Kawakami of Musaigen is not the Ghost World (Myriad Colors Ghost World) This is one of those unwritten nature that any beautiful and busty girl is obliged to turn heads. And Mai Kawakami is a great example of that. But never take it for some some bimbo, which looks only beautiful. She spends most of her time fighting phantoms, using almost exclusively her feet. So her slender legs and legs make a regular appearance throughout the show. Hakaze the Witch, Dancing Princess Kusaribe of zetsuen but Storm (Storm Explosion) We can only sympathize with the plight of Hakadze when she was betrayed and abandoned on a desert island. But we are also confident that she is determined enough to overcome this challenge. It's not all bad though. Because of the situation she found herself in, Hakadze barely dressed, showing most of her body. Many of her fans are bound to enjoy looking at the slender, magical feet of the sorceress. Ken Masters with Street Fighter II: The Movie (Street Fighter II: Animated Film) You know the part where I mentioned that anime male characters kick as bread loves. Ken from Street Fighter was not happy with this statement, and decided to break up the party. He believes he has sexy anime legs in a frigging multiverse and demands to show them off! Hey, I'm not going to stop him or anything, he's the last dude I want to fight. Honorable mentions may not get enough sexy anime feet online. Don't worry, there are still a few who are bound to keep the fans' feet happy. Edward Ed, Radical Ed, Francoise Wong Howe Ashes Tivrusky IV of Cowboy Bebop Edward may be an odd choice for this list. But she uses her feet even for the most prosaic tasks that they are just an integral part of her character. When we think of the legs, when we can't help but consider Ed Claire Harvey of Hundred Claire another blonde bombshell, and she certainly doesn't disappoint when it comes to her feet. Mamimi Samejima from FLCL You just have to love Mamimi. She has a girl-next door good look while displaying her silky smooth legs. And it more than qualifies for being the best foot in the ultra-stylish FLCL series. Cecil Court of Wizard Barristers: Benmashi Cecil When you have to protect your magical customer users in court all day, it can get really draining! Cecil takes some time in the hot tub, puts his feet up and finally gets to relax. Kasumi Misty, Ondin from Pokemon (Pokemon) It's officially - Pikachu is a leg man, and you heard it here first. See how happy he looks like he spheres out The Foot and Mysty's legs. Catalogue: Characters → Earthlings with The Blood of Sayan → support team Dragon Now I'm crazy at you. And the last thing you want on your case is the blue-haired girl whose purchase you destroyed. What's your problem?! - Attack on Vegeta Bra BriefBura-1-EschalotBulla Brief 1/2 Sayyan-1/2 EarthlingTuffle-Saiyan-Earthling (formerly; GT) Bulla (ブ, Bura) is the daughter of Veget and Bulm, making her Sayan Earthling hybrid, like her older brother Tranx. Vegeta originally wanted to give his daughter Sayan Sayan and made the decision on Eschalot (エシャロト, Esharotto), however, Bulma decided to name her Bulla before Vegeta could offer a name. Content of the show Appearance While she is Vegeta's daughter, Bulla has almost no physical resemblance to him and looks almost entirely like her mother. When she was born, it was jokingly noted that her forehead resembled him and her facial features when the angry looked like his own. As a child in Dragon Ball Super, Bulla has an onion head and triangle strands of blue hair on top of her head. As a child, during the 28th World Martial Arts Tournament, Bulla wears a white dress with orange polka dots and her hair tied back into a knot. In Dragon Ball Super: Broly, her hair grew in two small tails held by red hair. She wears a pink foot. At the beginning of the Dragon Ball GT Bulla is 9 (10 at the end), and her appearance resembles a teenager: she wears a red crop top revealing her belly with open shoulders, red finger-less gloves that go up to the shoulders, a red miniskirt with a yellow belt buckle, and red thigh-high boots. She also wears red hair, a gold choker, and gold hoop earrings. Her appearance in the GT makes her seem older, and she even hit on two adult men in The Attack on Vegeta. Bulla's appearance in GT looks like a younger retooling of her mother's overall appearance (most memorable during the adventure on Namek, as well as Androids Saga). Bull's personality as she appears in Dragon Ball - She is a close friend with her two other dragon team daughters: Pan (daughter of Gohan and Vidan) and Marron (daughter of Krilin and Android 18). Of the three girls, Bulla is the most assertive of her femininity, especially compared to Pan, who Dragon Ball GT has grown into a kind of tomboy. Her personality is oriented closer to her father's personality. As a child, Bulla is shown to always smile and laugh. However, she can be picky about others, such as crying as Yamcha and Hercule were held while she smiled as Goku and her family held her. She also seems to love Beerus when he was left at the head of her nanny. Unlike her older brother as a child, Bulla doesn't intimidate her father and, after having held him for the first time, she smiles and laughs as he frets over what her name should be. Bulla is usually hilarious and want to please as a child. When she becomes a teenager, she becomes stubborn, imperious, sassy, sarcastic and spoiled, like her mother. Since childhood, Bulla seems to have no problem with violence, but lacks the competitive streak and aggression of the Sayan. Although Bulla often appears next to her mother, she loves her father very much. Vegeta dotes on Bulla and tends to spoil it, and she is one of the few people capable of doing Smile. However, Vegeta's attachment to his daughter may be particularly responsible for the fact that she later became firm and stubborn. Although she is said to be very strong, she is not a fighter. Because she relented after the Bou conflict, Vegeta doesn't force her to train like he did with her brother Trank, and gives Bull more freedom as a child. Because of this, she prefers shopping over training, a trait she has taken from her mother, and shows no interest in following in the footsteps of her father and brother. Bulla may be the only person Vegeta demonstrates not hesitation to respond to, often bending her wishes, such as insisting that he shave off her moustache because she feels it makes him look like a full geek, or taking her shopping, as shown in the Dragon Ball GT. Von Bull's biography is vegetate's second child and Bulma, and thus as half Sayan and half earthlings are bloodied. She was born six years after losing to Kid Buu. Dragon Ball Super Universe Survival Saga Home article: The Universe Survival Saga Bull as a Child, which is held by her father, Vegeta Bulla was born at the age of 780, a few months after the battle with Goku Black. Although they kept the baby floor a surprise during pregnancy, Vegeta and Bulma wanted their new baby to be a girl and Vegeta decided on the female name Saiyan Eschalot. Right before Bulla's birth, Vegeta was invited to participate in the exhibition of the zenon Expo, but he refused because he wanted to be there for Bulma as she was about to give birth and he was ready to see his daughter be born. However, frustrated by Vegeta's refusal to participate in the Power Tournament before birth, Wis used his magic to warp Bull from within his mother, leaving everyone in shock. Bulma is delighted with her daughter, and the Dragons team celebrates her arrival. Vegeta stays while everyone meets Bull, but reacts with anger and turns into Super Saiyan Blue when Mr. Satan and Yamcha make her cry. When Vegeta finally holds Bulla, she smiles happily at her father, and Vegeta feels an instant attachment to her daughter. Upon learning that Bulma had named her child as Bulla, Vegeta initially protested, saying that he should give his daughter a name worthy of Sayan, and decided on Eshalo, but softened, saying that Bulla is also not a bad name. While Beerus stays at Capsule Corp. before the tournament, he wakes up from a nightmare and starts to bulluish, making her cry, and Bulma puts her to bed. The next day, Bulla cries as Trunks tries to change his diaper. Vegeta easily changes it, making Bull stop crying, and she laughs with the Trunks as he holds her. After winning Team Universe 7 in the Force Tournament, Bulla is in the arms of Vegeta as Bulma hugs him for a safe return home. Celebration of the party is then held for Bull, as brings her gifts and lavish her with attention, and Vegeta smiles with for his daughter. The party, however, is interrupted when Pan accidentally hits Vegeta in the face and he decides to channel his anger at Goka for a rematch. Galactic Patrol Prisoner Saga Main article: Galactic Patrol Prisoner Saga Bulla comes with Mr. Satan and Bulma when they head to the Tights house so Bulma can get a communicator from her to keep in touch with Jaco after realizing Goku and Vegeta suddenly disappeared, and the galactic patrol may have been behind it. As soon as they arrive at tights house, when Bulma informed Jaco about the whole situation through tights communicator, Bulla is seen holding her aunt's tights as she laughs when Mr Satan makes a silly face to her. Bulla then goes to the observation deck with Bulma and Mr. Satan to inform Denda that Piccolo is one of the fighters that Jaco wants to recruit into the Galactic Patrol, along with the ability to get Jaco to tell Denda the whole situation regarding Moreau and his gang through the communicator. Bulla then leaves the observation deck with Bulma, Mr. Satan and Dende, as soon as Dende agreed to go with them to tell Piccolo the whole situation that is going on in space. Dragon Ball - World Saga Home article: The peaceful world saga of Bulma and Bulla at the tournament Four-year-old Bulla attends the 28th World Martial Arts Tournament with her family to support those who participated. She was impressed with her father's strength after witnessing him easily throw back before the tournament. She supports Pan when she fights Wild Tiger. The tournament is cancelled when Goku and Uub leave the tournament so that Goku can coach Uuba to make him the next defender of the Earth. Main article: Black star of Dragon Ball Saga Bull and Vegeta Five years later, Bulla is seen with his father as they watch Goku, Tranki, and Pan go into space to look for Black Star Dragon Balls. Baby Saga Home Article: Baby Saga Look Daddy! The mustache must go away! It makes you look like a total geek. - Bulla says Vegeta shave the moustache Sorry guys! My dad's got a bit of character and he can get kind of grumpy when he has to take me shopping. - Attack on Vegeta Bulla along with Vegeta as he takes her home from the shops Bulla saw again with her father driving home after making her purchase when they attacked Gohan. Vegeta tells Bulle to come home so he can fight Gohan. Bulla was later spotted under the control of Thurds, Goten, Gohan and Vegeta. She is with Trunks, Goten and Gohan when they give Baby Vegeta their energy to Sayan to defeat Goka for what his race has done to his planet. She was later cured of the child's control. Main article: Super 17 Saga Bulla dines at the house of Chi-Chi A year later, Bulla is seen at the house Chi-Chi dine with Bulma, Goku, Pan, Gohan, You've seen it. Trucks come to the house affected by Android 17. They look outside and see hole that leads from hell to Earth. Trucks heal and tell them that Android 17 wants Goku to go to hell. They watch on TV as resurrected villains come out of the pit and begin to destroy cities. Goku says he'll go to hell if he wants it to stop. Bulla's last appearance in the Dragon Ball GT Bulla is seen on the plane with his mother, another in the fight. They see a big explosion and hit the chi-chi pot. Bull was last seen when black Smoke Dragon comes out of Dragon Balls. Main article: Dragon Ball Super: Broly Baby Bulla in Dragon Ball Super: Broly Bulla is located in a family holiday home on the island with his parents, Goku, Wis and Birus. After Trunk calls Bulma to tell her that the six Dragon Balls have disappeared, Bulma leaves Bulla with Birus so she can go with Vegeta and Goku to find the latter. After the battle with Broley is over, Bulla happily laughs and plays with Birus, who is relieved the fight is done. Other stories of Dragon Ball Fusions Home article: Dragon Ball Fusions Bulma and daughter Vegeta, and younger sister of Tranx. She looks like Bulma. Vegeta has a soft spot for her and often carries her stuff. - Dragon Ball Fusions description of the profile of Team Tekka's first meeting of Bull in Satan City. Bulla is happy to see Pan, and although she recognizes Kid Trunks as her younger self-husband she hides her identity as his sister. She asks them to help promote a clothing store in the city of Satan by dispersing leaflets. After they are handed out leaflets and return to Bulla they find her talking to a client named Dennish, whom Bulla finds attractive, although he does not pay attention because of his upright nature. After Dennis leaves, Bulla thanks them for their help and reveals their relationship with Kid Trunks, who is shocked to learn that he will have a sister in the future. Just who do you think I am!? My mother's and my father's blood is flowing through my veins! - Bulla in the face of Team Tekka's Dragon Ball Fusions Bull proudly reminding Tranx of her line in front of Team Tekka in Dragon Ball Fusions After learning how to recruit new team members from Roshi, Team Tekka can return to the area around Satan City and hear a woman screaming for help and find her being approached by Biyan and Chinjao. After defeating the men, they find that Bulla's woman and that she is only pretending to be in trouble to get Dennis' attention, but Tekka's team thwarts her plan and Dennis leaves as soon as he discovers that everything is fine. Later outside Orange Star High School, Tekka's team thwarts another of bull's attempts to catch Dennis' attention and tells them to stop intervening or she will make them regret it, causing Tranx to say it's like getting yelled at by his mother after Bulla leaves. True to his word, when Tekka's team come to the rescue for the third time, says she expected them to show up and decide to teach them a lesson with the help of their allies (Biyan, Chinjao, Noomeg, and Eemai), who helped her in her previous attempts at deception. Tranx is surprised to learn that Bulla can actually fight, forcing Bulla to proudly shove the blood of both her mother and father, who runs through her veins before fighting Tekki's team into battle. However, due to lack of training, Bull was defeated along with her allies. The tranks try to calm her down, but Bulla angrily asks Tekka why they keep interfering. When she finds out that they were concerned that her screams may have been real (or about her safety depending on Tekka's response) Bulla calls them idiotic, though blurts that she loves them before explaining that she loves her style and decides to join Team Tekka. Bullu can then be found in a clothing store in Satan City or on the team's spaceship. In the Satanic city she will comment on the latest events in the main history. The power of Theriyama's authors and guidebooks said Bulla was strong as well, though she was not involved in the battle. Unlike her father and brother, Bull is not a fighter, despite the fact that she is also strong, preferring to shop rather than train. Dragon Ball GT Perfect Files implies that because she inherited Sayan's blood, Bulla has the potential to turn Super Saiyan when the proper conditions are met, such as the arrival of the worst danger. Video games in Dragon Ball Fusions, Bulla is shown battling for the first time and is shown to be capable of flying by shooting Ki Blasts, and Ki Pass (she previously demonstrated Flight and Ki Pass in dragon ball GT during infection with one of Tuffle Baby's parasites). She also revealed that she is able to use techniques such as her father's Galician gun, as well as Pan's Maiden's Rage and Maiden Burst techniques, showing that she is capable of producing powerful energy waves and blast waves. Like her mother, she can use her sex appeal to her advantage through her Sexy Smile and Super Sexy Smile techniques, giving her an edge against male opponents. It is classified as a C-Rank fighter, putting its power on a par with Chiaotzu, Gina, Great Sayaman 2/Videne, Guldo, Nappa, Raditz, Saibamen and Yamcha, who are all C-Rank. In Sub-Event: My Darling, Bulla and her cohort challenge Tekki's team in the fight to punish them for interfering with Bulla's attempts to get Dennis to notice her. However, it is shown that she is not strong enough to defeat team Tekka (which consists of the younger self of her brother, Kid Goten, Kid Goku, Pan, and Tekka) even with the help of her teammates. Presumably, her weakness is the result of her lack of training. However, she is still strong enough to join Tekka on their adventures through Timespace Rift and participate in the Timespace tournament. She can Grow much stronger during the game allows her to learn more powerful techniques. Flight abilities - the ability to fly using ki. Bulla flies while she is under baby control in the Dragon Ball GT, although she has never been seen flying before. An uninfected Bulla can also use a ki-based flight in Dragon Ball Fusions, although it's unclear if she was able to fly before entering the Timespace Rift or learned how after graduating in the Timespace Rift, as Kid Goku (post-King Piccolo Saga) did. In Dokkan Battle, however she is unable to use a ki-based flight and as her mother requires a jetpack. Bulla, Gohan, Goten and Trunks give energy to Baby Vegeta Ki Transfer - while under baby control, Infected Bulla can transfer its energy to the baby. In Dragon Ball Fusions, it appears under the name Ki Pass and is one of the special Bulla moves that she can learn after reaching Lv. 69. Ki Blast is the most basic form of energy wave used by Bulla in Dragon Ball Fusions. Maiden Burst - Explosive Wave Technique, originally developed by Pan, which used Bull as one of her special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. Super Maiden Burst is a stronger version of Maiden Burst used by Bulla as one of her special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. Ultimate Maiden Burst is an even stronger version of Maiden Than Super Maiden Burst, used by Bulla as one of her special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. Maiden Blast is a method of explosion ki originally developed by Pan, which is used by Bulla as one of its special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. Super Maiden Blast is a stronger version of Maiden Blast used by Bulla as one of her special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. Ultimate Maiden Blast is a version of Maiden Blast that is even stronger than Super Maiden Blast. You can learn from Bulla as a special move after reaching Lv. 79 in Dragon Ball Fusions. Bulla is charging her Galick Gun in Dragon Ball Fusions Galick Gun - an energy wave technique used by her father. Presumably, she either learned this from her father or brother (how Kid Trunks is able to use it in Dragon Ball Fusions). One of Bull's special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. Dad Galik Gun - a version of the attack team where Bulla forces his father Veget to attack his opponent with his Galick Gun. Used in Dokkan Battles as a super attack. Daddy Final Flash is the team attacking version of Final Flash, where Bulla forces his father Veget to attack his opponent with his Final Flash. Used in Dokkan Battles as a super attack. Bulla performing Sexy Smile in Dragon Ball Fusions Sexy Smile - Bull's Signature Special Move, which can undo the movements of a male character smiling at them in a seductive manner in Dragon Ball Fusions. This method for females and allusions. Super Sexy Smile is a stronger version of Sexy Smile and one of Bull's special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. Attack Creek - Scream That Power Powers allied nearby. One of Bull's special moves in Dragon Ball Fusions. First striker - Sometimes act at the beginning of the fight. One of Bulla's skills in Dragon Ball Fusions. Capricious - Statistics change with each action. One of Bulla's skills in Dragon Ball Fusions. Team Attacker - Damage increased by the support of the attacker ct. One of Bulla's skills in Dragon Ball Fusions. Fusion - Bulla can perform three types of fusion in Dragon Ball Fusions. EX-Fusion is a synthesis method developed by Bulma in the Space Fault Framework that allows two people wearing the rings to fuse while performing the Metamoran Fusion Dance, but can remain fused until the Single Metamo-Ring, created by a fusion of fuse metamo rings. Used by Bulla and Pan to merge with Bulpan. Tekka and Bulla can also be used. Five-Way Fusion is a five-man fusion dance created by Gina, who Bulla learns after joining Tekka's team, allowing her to merge with any four of her teammates to create Ultra Fusion, whose race and gender are determined by those who initiate the merger. Freeform Fusion is a synthesis method that allows two registered people to fuse with Metamo-Rings and Fusion Dance. The technique resembles a cross between EX-Fusion and Namekian Fusion, as one fuse remains dominant and can remain fused as long as one Metamo-Ring is formed by fusion. This method allows Bulle to merge with almost any playable character in Dragon Ball Fusions, with the exception of Tekka, which functions as EX-Fusions in a similar way. The Metamo-Ring equipment is an armlet-like device invented by her mother's colleague in Timespace Rift in Dragon Ball Fusions, which allows two people to wear one to perform either EX-Fusion or Freeform Fusion. Jet Pack - In Dragon Ball: Dokkan Battle, Bulla uses one to fly as she is portrayed as not being able to use the Ki-based flight in the game. Forms of infected trucks and Bulla controlled by a child During the events of Dragon Ball GT in Baby Saga, Bulla (along with almost everyone else on Earth) are taken from a tight parasite from the evil mutant machine, Baby. Under his influence, Bulla demonstrates the ability to fly with Ki and can pass her ki along with other baby followers to feed the baby in his strongest form 1 and strongest form 2. Main articles: Pulling out the sleeping force and unlocking potential in Dragon Ball Fusions, Bulla can briefly have its potential released by any ally who can use Unleash Potential, which gives her a positive release status effect that allows Bulle to inflict damage 1.5 times during her next tour. Fusion Bulpan Home article: Bulpan EX-Fusion Bulpan Bulpan is EX-Fusion Bulla and Pan Dragon Ball Fusions. To perform EX-Fusion, Bulla and Pan must be Lv. 30, and it costs 40 Blue Energy to fuse although subsequent EX-Fusions between them can be down for free. Highlights: Tekka and EX-Fusion's In Pan, Bulla can perform EX-Fusion with Tekka if they have reached Lv. 25 and cost 20 Blue Energy to fuse for the first time, although all subsequent EX-Fusions between them can be done for free. Their EX-Fusion result retains the floor, race and voice chosen by the same, although they have access to both special fuse movements and passive skills. Ultra Fusion Home Article: Ultra Fusion As a member of the Tekka team, Bulla can perform Five-Way Fusion with any four of her teammates to create Ultra Fusion. If Bull is initiated, the result will be a woman Earthling Ultra Fusion. The video game The Appearance of Bull Card for Super Dragon Ball Heroes Bulla pretends to be a character who describes a mission in the GT saga of The Infinite World. She also makes an appearance in Budokai Tenkaichi 2, in which after completing basic training, she can go with Bulma. In this game, she testifies that she came from the future and says: I'll take a shopping out on training any day or I'm not sure if I understand, but do my best. She also claims that her parents were so lame. Bulla also serves as an assist in Bakuretsu Impact. In Dragon Ball Xenoverse, the Bulla GT hairstyle (complete with red bandaged hair) appears as the last of the hair options for the Future Warrior (Earthling or Saiyan) woman, allowing you to create Bull as a custom character, similar to the creation of Gina as a custom character. In Dragon Ball Xenoverse 2, Bulla's hairstyle returns as a custom version of Type 21 hair for Women of the Future Warrior (Earth or Sayan). She makes her debut as a playable character in Dragon Ball Fusions. She later appears in Dokkan Battle as a playable character. She makes an appearance in Dragon Ball Heroes, starting with Big Bang Mission 3. Voice Actors Japanese: Hiromi Tsuru †, Aya Hisakawa (Broli) English Spanish: Portuguese: Brazilian Portuguese dub: Priscilla Concepcion (DBS and DBGT), Rebekah Sadra (DBH Kai), Mair Paris (DBS ep). 83-84, DBS Broly), Michel Giudice (DBS ep. 87-91) Portuguese dub: Cristina Cavalinos German dub: Jill Bottcher Hungarian dub: Orsolya Olga Polish dub: Agnieszka Wisniewska (DBS) Italian dub: Patricia Scianca (DB), Jenny De Sesarey (DBGT) , Valentina Pallavicino (DBS) Greek dub: Matina Carra (DBH), Maria Sisi (DBGT) Trivia In-universe her name has been shown to be written as Bura. Like her mother and older brother Trunks, Bulla's name is a reference to underwear, bra in particular (this pun is more evident in the Japanese dub, where her name is a homophone for the Japanese pronunciation of bra). Because of Dragon Ball being a family show in the west, her name was changed from Na Bull's bra to the English dub, with them choosing Bull because it sounded close to Bulm. Bulla was never born in the Future Trunks chart that her father Vegeta was killed by androids before she was conceived. Conception. she has never met Future Trunks anywhere in dragon ball media (anime/manga, games, commercials, etc.). Bulla's hobby is shopping. While Tranx's hair color is different from both of his parents, Bulla is the same color as her mother. There has always been speculation that Bulla is Veget's favorite child. Interestingly, the bulla is an amulet worn as a medallion, which was given to male children in ancient Rome nine days after birth. A few similar objects are rare finds of the late Bronze Age of Ireland. Bulla was worn around his neck as a locket to protect against evil spirits and forces and often depicted figures from the myth. This probably wasn't the author's intention, which probably meant to keep the Brif family's underwear trend. Vegeta planned by Sayyan's name Bulla, Eschalot, comes from shallots - a type of bow that fits into her head shape as a baby and Sayan naming the trend of plant puns. If she had been named Eshalo as Vegeta, she would have been the only Sayan hybrid and a child of Vegeta and Bulma, who would have the name Sayyan. She is the first hybrid member of the Vegeta family, which has the name Sayyan, associated with their descendant Vegeta Vegeta Jr., who was the first hybrid that had the actual name of Sayyan origin, since it was named after its ancestor Vegeta IV. Bulla - the first female semi-Seaan and semi-earth hybrid (unlike Pan, which is a quarter-breed), and she is also the first princess born in the family. Male Anicent Sayan Shalot's name is based on the same pun, albeit more direct. In Dragon Ball Fusions, there is a minor playable female character named Shallot who is Sayan, who is a 1/4 earthling (essentially the reverse pan with is an earthling who is 1/4 Sayyan), who has a name also pun based on the shallot. Bulla's age compared to Pan's age is a big discrepancy. Dragon Ball GT: Perfect Files said Bulla was born before Pan, making her older. However, in Dragon Ball Super, their birth dates were switched, putting Pan to be the oldest and Bra the youngest of two female Sayan hybrids. In Dragon Ball GT, the inconsistencies are quite noticeable. Despite being younger than Pan herself, the bra looks a lot older (it comes more from her being taller). That's because that it is that fans have been misled by Toriyama's decision in their projects, and have often speculated that this may be due to Saiyan genes vegetates, maturing much faster than other Sayans like Goku (who was marked by Gina to be a slow development starter in Dragon Ball Super: Broly implying Saiyans mature at different speeds with some maturing more slowly, as Goku, who can also apply to his granddaughter, so Pan's maturity may be due to her slow maturity may be due to her also, she may have been born before Pan's the main chronology of Dragon Ball GT, while she was born after Pan in the main timeline of Dragon Ball Super (a similar case takes place in the canon with Broley in Dragon Ball Super: Broly, as he is older than his non-canonical colleague and Goku as he was born around the same time as Vegeta). In accordance with the year of bulla's birth (Age 780) in the Chinese zodiac, her sign will be the Horse. Throughout the series, Bulla reveals some of the characteristics of this zodiac. From baby to child; it has been shown to be very calm and warm. However, in Dragon Ball GT, in reflection of Vegetata's upbringing. Bulla inherits a very independent and attractive person. Because of this, she occasionally turns to her father and, being raised spoiled, often goes to the store. Despite this, it still maintains its positive attitude. Bulla also lives in close contact with his father. This dotes to the attitude of Horse and Ram (Sheep or Goat) stated in the Chinese calendar. While Bulla shows little interest in fighting herself in either the Dragon Ball or Dragon Ball GT, she is shown to know how to fight and fly in Dragon Ball Fusions and can fly with the help of a ki while infected with the Tuffle parasite in the Dragon Ball GT. However, due to the lack of training she is shown to be weaker than Kid Trunks and Pan, who are both serious martial arts who have struggled since they were little. Presumably Vegeta and GT Trunks may have at least taught her how to protect herself, although she herself was never forced to train regularly as she grew up in relatively peaceful times and Vegeta presumably was more lenient on her when it came to fighting and training. Unlike Pan, who admits to wanting Xenoverse 2, it is not known whether Bulla has a desire to achieve a super Sayan transformation. Ironically Pan wants to get a shape mostly for his blond hair, so it's possible that Bulla might want to purchase it out of vanity as well. However, it is likely that her lack of preparation and interest in wrestling prevented her from acquiring enough S-cells to transform and experienced the intense emotions needed to achieve transformation (as an alternative method used by Caulifla is now unknown to the saiyans of Universe 7), despite the gentle spirit that naturally increases the number of S-cells. If she had a more competitive personality like her brother and Goten, she could acquire it as easily as they did as she was conceived long after her father became Super Saiyan just like Goten.
