The highwayman cyberpunk bug

in: Share Behind the Guns O'Rama in Rancho Coronado East The Highwayman is a hidden side job found in the game world V in Cyberpunk 2077. Walkthrough Start this side job, first, head over to Rancho Coronado East and travel down the street to the Guns O'Rama gun shop. In the back you will find an accessible garage with a ghost horse sticker on the left. As soon as they get in, V and Johnny will comment on the scrapped Apollo they found inside. To officially start the side work, access the terminal to the other side of the garage. After reading the stored data, exit the terminal and V will take a photo of James and Josie sitting next to him. That leads V and Johnny to find James to find out more about their situation. To find James, travel from Japantown West and south to the nearby public space with a 24/7 comfort stand. James sits on the same bench in front of the 24/7 stand. If you talk to him, you'll start an investigation into what happened to Josie. James and Josie stand in front of the 24/7 stand to find out what happened to Josie, heading to Metro: Glen North on the map. On the subway, travel east on the sidewalk with the scanner active until the nearby drop point. Your scanner's going to pick up a dried blood spatter on the floor. Directly to the right is an alley; And in a dumpster behind Josie's body. There will be a splinter labeled Bad News, which details Josie's cause of death, as well as information about the location of the bike stolen by a Tyger Claw boss. After an exchange with Johnny, it's time for you to go back to James in Japantown and confront him with what they discovered. What happens to James after you confront him is up to you. After the confrontation, you need to find the Tyger Claw boss bike in order to finish the job. The shard on Josie's body mentions that All Foods' is on the Maelstrom lawn. It sends him to the All Foods Plant north of Watson. Opposite the travel point, you'll see the ghost horse that Josie mentioned on our shard. The bike is located in the nearby garage. Punch the date that James and Josie met (0214) next to the keyboard in the garage and it opens. Diary entry There is also a young guy in the garage - the heartthrob type. Emails on the computer of a certain James - you do not need a genius to connect the dots. Maybe we should look for our Romeo - especially in Japantown. I have a feeling it's still clicking there. I wouldn't be surprised, kids always date there. Fucked... It always starts out so cuky, doesn't it? It rarely ends like this. Josie hid the Tyger boss's bike somewhere in town, near the All Foods factory, on Maelstrom's lawn. He told me to find a ghost horse. All right, then... Think of it as a treasure hunt, though not the kind of fixer in Night City who usually pays you. Josie... That's a nice name. She's a sweet girl. It's going to end ugly. This Tyger is the quiet... I'd better let him know, V. I can't let what he did to this poor girl slip. Another mystery, another missing person in Night City. Cops used to look for people like him. Today, his fate is in your hands. Goals Find James. Find out what happened to Josie. Find James and ask him. Find the stolen Tyger Claw motorcycle. Notes: This is one of the few side works the game is not specifically tagged on the map. When confronted by James, the first dialogue choice, So there was an election, resulting in a peaceful resolution, but the second causes him to attack. It's up to you to avenge Josie or let her live with her guilt. Trivia The Highwayman is a poem by Alfred Noyes published in 1906, a historical arc closely related to the themes of the mission. The last two stanzas include pictures of a ghostly horse and rider. Gallery of the garage where V starts the side work. James' location on the map. Someone stuck in find james/ find out what happened to Josie? I don't know the love of any progress on this, if you read the description of the mission it says that you might want to look for James especially Japantown & i pretty much finished all the concerts & police stuff there traveling through probably almost the entire Japantown process & I couldn't make any progress to happen on this mission, so I have no idea where to look specifically for Japantown or anywhere else. If anyone has any info about this please let me know as I'm going nuts at this point trying to figure out (also I can't re-open the picture I think you see if you get the mission and can't remember where I got the picture so I could go back to my starting place, it's crazy...) places to link look carefully around pointy places Is there any chance that more info in this picture? like what I'm supposed to look for in these places because I visited them & I can't find the guy or girl in any of the sites that I provided for the women's & men's space pictures. the man should sit on a bench running around and look for the green circle around the minimap, When you get close to it you take the photo and start talking about women: find the body in a small alley body hidden behind a trash can in this place this quest you need to spend some time looking around ok, at least now I know what I'm looking for, I'll give you one more go & pray the mission is not bugging (I already have like 2 or 3 cyberpsycho quest to get the bug, I hope it's not another. i'm officially giving up on this mission, looking through every fluffy inch to the market & I can't find this guy anywhere on the bench, ground, standing, walking, sitting, nothing! it's either bugging me or maybe it's tied to the main story progress & I need to do several main stories before I can advance this side mission, either way I can't get my ass up anymore. So I've gotten all the way to the point of releasing the bike, but the Keyboard is broken. It does not allow me to put any number combination in, just wondering if anyone else have this problem or my game is just bugging. I've seen ppl have problems with the keyboard while looking for a solution to my problem in this mission, so you're not the only one. Btw do you happen to remember exactly which site the guy & girl was on a mission? Okay, here's a walkthrough of imo good infos on how to find the guy - step 1 & 3 you can see slightly well where you are. If the connection does not work (do not know how well this forum takes external links yet) - we have the straight (east / west) bridge over the river - west-northwest of Jig Jig city. Around the street diamonds, you will find a circular bench surrounded by some bushes near the north-eastern quadrant. He's going to sit there. There are quite a few youtube tutorials on this. Here's one. I hope this helps this is a walkthrough for The Highwayman, a Side Quest Cyberpunk 2077. Read on to find out all the choices available from Highwayman, how to get the best possible results, tips and strategies for your Quest, and all the rewards available. Quest Type Side Act Act 1 Quest No. - Lifepath All Enlarge The Highwayman becomes available after completion of the Ride. Find Josie's garage in Rancho Coronado and look at the message on her laptop to start this side job. Quest Rewards The full list of rewards for this Quest coming soon! Objectives 1 Zoom Find James.You will find James sitting under a tree on the western edge of Japantown, near the bridge that leads to Watson. 2 Zoom Learn what happened to Josie. At the end of the trail, you'll find Josie's body by a dumpster. Pick up the shard to continue. 3 Magnify James and confront him. If you answered with the second dialogue option, you're going to have to kill James in front of the crowd. 4 Zoom Find the stolen Tyger Claw bike. The bike's in Josie's secret garage. You can find it only throughout All Foods (where you've got the Flathead), but the door is closed. The password is the date on the bench where you found James, which is 0214. If you're using a PS4, press the numbers using ○ button. As soon as the garage is open, the Nazare Itsumade is yours. If you play Cyberpunk 2077 using PS4, you ○ enter the code in the garage using the ○ button. Cyberpunk 2077 The Highwayman side job sends fans to find James, Josie, and a stolen Tyger Claw bike, and this guide is here to help. The Highwayman is a side job at Cyberpunk 2077 that sends players to do some detective work, first tracking a character named James, then finding out what happened to Josie, and finally picking up a stolen Tyger Claw bike. However, there are no per-game waypoints for these objectives, which makes it a little difficult to complete. It's mindful that this guide is written and indeed Cyberpunk 2077 fans will find the location of James, Josie, and the Tyger Claw bike, what follows. First, James, the players that are trying to find him in this Cyberpunk 2077 side mission need to turn their attention to the bridge that connects Watson and Westbrook. Specifically, the character can be found sitting on a bench north of that bridge on the Westbrook side, and the red-flag haircut should catch your eye. For fans who need further education, the video below highlights James' exact situation. Continue scrolling to continue reading Click the button below to quickly view the article. Start now, having spoken with this Cyberpunk 2077 character, players will be induced to find out what happened to Josie and you should look to the Glen area of Heywood. In this area, fans must go to Metro Ebnike station and activate their scanners near drop point there. In doing so, you need to uncover a bloodstain on the ground, and a series of such spots will lead Cyberpunk 2077 players to an alleyway that is home to the Shard, which will advance the Highwayman side mission when they interact. Fans are now told to face James, who is still on the aforementioned bench, and will be given a new goal after that dialogue is completed. This new goal sends players to find the stolen Tyger Claw bike, and it's in a garage just northeast of the All Foods Plant's fast travel point watson (Northside). To enter this garage, fans simply need to insert 0214, the date that was scribbled on James' bench, into the adjacent keyboard. As soon as the garage door opens, the players receive a signal that they have completed the Highwayman mission and have acquired a vehicle. This vehicle is the Nazare Itsumade motorcycle, which can be found in the garage, and fans will be able to summon as they can with their cars Cyberpunk 2077, moving forward. They are also free to hop on the bike instantly, drive out of the garage and head to the next mission using the brand new set of wheels. Cyberpunk 2077 is now available on PC, PS4, Stadia and Xbox One with PS5 and Xbox One X versions are coming in 2021.
