Learn to read with acoustics If you live in England, your child will learn to read with acoustics. Their school will likely use either the letters and acoustics framework sounds or the Read Write Inc. program. Check with your school if you are unsure which one they are using. Using letters and sounds? If your child uses letters and sounds, you can find books suitable for them by clicking on the Levels menu below and using the Letters filter and phase sounds to choose the right stage. Keep in mind this: If you don't know your child's phases, you can check with your school. As a guide, most children's admission will be at stages 1-4 and most children of year 1 will be at stages 4-5. Aside from Phase 5, your child will be able to decipher most of the books. In letters and sounds, there are sets in phases - so your child may not know all the sounds in each book as part of their phase. Some series contain random tricky words that your child can't decipher with acoustics. Use the inner notes of the front cover to teach your child these words before they start the book. Learn more about the letters and sounds of Read Write Inc. Phonics?
