

Megan started dancing at the age of four. She studied and competed in several areas of dance including jazz, lyrical, ballet, tap, contemporary, and musical theatre. Her accolades include many regional and national titles and placing as a top 10 soloist, as well as receiving the Maryland Distinguished Scholarship for the Arts. She also has traveled the country performing in New York, Las Vegas, Myrtle Beach, Florida , Texas, and Washington D.C.

Megan continued her love of dance and went on to teach and choreograph for dance studios in the DMV area. Many of her students have won countless scholarships, cash awards, national titles and overall high score awards at various regional and national dance competitions, as well as performed on cruise lines, national television, and Radio City Music Hall. Megan loves to share her passion for dance with her students and is thankful for all the opportunities and friendships she's made along the way through dance.
