

I'm not robot

Continue

Fred claus soundtrack

A B C E F G H I J L M N N P Q R S U V V X Y Z Fred Claus (2007) Format: CD UPC: 09362498952 Label: Warner Bros Label Number: 377212 Duration: Not on File Delivery Date: November 20, 2007 Click Fred Claus Soundtrack CD for more information from MovieMusic Store. 1. Jingle Bells - Johnny Mercer 2. Santa Claus is back in town - Elvis Presley 3. Sana Ride - Roneti 4. Here comes Santa Claus (right down Santa Claus Lane) - Doris Day 5. I want you for Christmas - Russ Morgan... Watch the full tracklist Q: What's the name of the song/performer that Fred played with the elves after he kicked the DJ off his booth and started playing a funky song? I don't see it on the soundtrack. I'd like to get my hand on this song. Any help is appreciated! (from Frosty in Rochester, New York, USA) In: It's called Humenekkin' Elvis. Although the version in the film is remixed by Paul Oakenfold. (thanks laurie, us) add more information Q: What is the title song in the captions from Ludacris, which had Here Comes Santa Claus as a remix? (from Michael in Toronto, Ont Canada) In: It's called Ludacrismas (thanks to Lilo, Fort Worth, Texas) add more information Q: What song does Fred teach the elf to dance to? That's when they're in a bar and it turns on the song and two of them dance. (with Nicole in Georgia) In: Is It a Beast of Burden (thanks to Lilo, Fort Worth, Texas) add more information Q: What's the last song playing, how do they dance and who sings it? (from Betty's big example in Sacramento California) To: Israel Kamakawao Ole' - Somewhere Over the Rainbow / What wonderful world (thanks to Kelsey Anni, Austin, TX) add more information Q: What song plays when Vince Vaughn dances with all the elves in the gift room at the top of the table? (from C in San Diego, California) Answer: See question/answer #1 - I believe you think of Rubberneckin' (thanks to RB, St. Louis, MO) add more information Q: What song that goes some like... Raspberry flame..... just in front of the family reunion scene at the end of the film? Please know Lemme. (from Kodvra in Nigeria) Answer: This is a song called My Back Pages by Bob Dylan, but the version in the film sings The Byrds (thanks to Atomic, Charleston SC) add more information Q: Which song plays when Fred delivers Christmas presents as he rushes? (with mins in Houston TX) B: A Christmas wrapper of waitresses (thanks to sragg, RP, CA, USA) add more information Q: Who sings the song I'd Love To Change the World from this movie? It's not on the soundtrack!... from Lisa in Kansas City (answer to Lisa's question) Q: What song does it play when Fred pursues other Santas? (from Brian in Pittsburgh) In: Trashman - Surfing Bird (thanks to scufmark, Australia) add more information Q: In the film at the end they play the song Silent but when words ... Christ the Savior is born... the singer starts buzzing, why? (from the Irish in Florence KY USA) B: It was sung by Sinead O'Conner. She is not a fan of religion, she refused to sing this part. If I remember, she was the one who ripped up a picture of Pope John Paul II on Saturday night live. (thanks to Josiris, Virginia Tech) add more information Q: What song does Fred put after he makes the elf stop playing Here Comes Santa Claus over and over again? Looks like stones. (from cycling in the UK) To: It's called Rubberneckin' Elvis, though the version in the film is remixed by Paul Oakenfold (thanks to Gabe, Aurora, Colorado) add more information Q: Who sings Somewhere Over the Rainbow in this movie? (from Arlene in Newhall, IA) B: Israel Kamakawao'ole (thanks to Boofball) add more information Q: What song are the elves dancing in the workshop? Vince Vaughn is at the top of the dance table also..... from Mark in St. Louis, MoD (answering Mark's question) • Email this page to anyone. • Ask questions about the music in this movie. • Add information about the music heard in the film, but not listed on the CD with the soundtrack. • Add other information not mentioned above (trivial anecdotes, press quotes, recording anomalies, etc.). • Fixed bugs listed above (incorrect track lists, product codes, typo, etc.). Listen to music from the film Fred Claus in full in Spotify appLegalPrivacyCookies About ads Buy a movie: Buy a movie: AllMusic User Rating Rating (0) Your rating Review : User reviews : Credits : Releases : Similar albums : Holiday movies rarely break new ground, when it comes to their accompanying soundtracks and this collection of yuletide cheers from Paul Giamatti and Vince Vaughn comedy Fred Claus is no exception. However, there are much worse people to spend your Christmas, than Elvis (Santa Claus is back in town), Dean Martin (Let It Snow), Doris Day (Here comes Santa Claus), and Jackson five (Santa Claus goes to town), and the inclusion of the occasional odd modern cut from the likes of waitresses (Christmas wrapper) and Sinedad O'Connor (Quiet Night) keeps things from descending into a blur caused by a mall The blue highlight marks the choice of track © 1996-2014, Amazon.com, Inc. or its Edit Joulupukki ja sen veli (2007) Somewhere Over the Rainbow, written by Harold Arlen and E.Y. Harburg Rubberneckin' (Paul Oakenfold Remix) Written by Dory Jones and Zain Warren performed by Elvis Presley courtesy of RCA Records By Arrangement with Sony BMG Music Entertainment Jingle Bells, written by James Pierpont (as James S. Pierpont) Played by Carl Weissman performed by singing dogs courtesy of Multitone A/S, Copenhagen Jingle Cats Medley Cats Courtesy of Jingle Cats Records Christmastime Is Here Written by Vince Guaraldi and Lee Mendelson Tomorrow Written by Martin Charnin and Charles Strouse Here comes Santa Claus (right down Santa Claus Lane) Written by Gene Autry and Okley Haldeman performed by Doris Day courtesy of Columbia Records by arrangement with Sony Let it snow! Let it snow! Written by Sammy Kahn and Jule Steen played by Dean Martin courtesy of Capitol Records Under EMI Film & Licence Television Music Christmas Wrapping Written by Christopher Butler performed by a waitress courtesy of universal recordings under the license of universal music enterprises La Vie en Rose Music by Louiguy Lyrics by Éd Piaf My back pages, Written by Bob Dylan performed by The Byrds courtesy of Columbia Records by arrangement with Sony BMG Music Entertainment My First Noel Traditional performed by Lee Nesha courtesy of Netwerk Productions Ludacrismas Written by Ludacris (as Christopher Bridges), Gene Autry, and The Okley Haldeman production and performed by Ludacris Ludacris appears courtesy of Disturbing World/ Island Def Jam The music group contains samples of Here Comes Santa Claus (right down Santa Claus Lane) performed by Doris Day courtesy of Columbia Records by agreement with Sony BMG Music Page 2 Fred Claus, Santa's bittersweet older brother, forced to move to the North Pole to help Santi, and the elves are preparing for Christmas in exchange for cash. Cash.