Q&A 4/5 How to Share the Gospel?

It is so important that when we present the gospel, we have a clear understanding of the Godhead.

God the Father: Starting at the beginning, the gospel of Christ was revealed in Genesis 3:15 when man committed the first sin. It is God's will that we obey God. When mankind disobeys God, he will justly receive the punishment due. The gospel or good news is that God has designed a way out for our sins.

God the Son: In Jesus Christ, we see the love of God the Father, who sent His Son to die in our place so that we may be redeemed from our sin. Jesus lived a sinless life, satisfying the demands of the law and willingly laid down His life to purchase us from the penalty of sin. The cross signifies His sacrifice, and His resurrection assures us of the hope of His promise.

The Holy Spirit: The book of Acts begins with the coming of the Holy Spirit and ends with the words of the Holy Spirit (Acts 28:25). In between these chapters we see the good news preached to the Jews first, and then to the gentiles.

Peter is chosen by God to present the first gospel message. His hearers are convicted and three thousand are obedient to his plea to 'repent and be baptized'. As the gospel is preached, churches are established, elders appointed and lives transformed.

Conclusion: The gospel, in brief, is the good news. It is God's purpose to save fallen men that they may repent of their ways, which will condemn them for all eternity. By God's grace through faith in Jesus we find full and complete remission of all sins. As we turn from our former ways to walk with Christ in the light, we conform to His image and maintain a living relationship with Him until we return to be with Him forever.

God is the judge of all things, including a person's response to the gospel and his eternal salvation. As Christians, it is so important that we teach the gospel in its totality, ensure that our hearers understand the message, and disciple them to mature faith.

Helpful Tips on Living the Christian Life

A photograph of a person from behind, walking away on a dirt road that leads into a hilly, arid landscape. The person is wearing a light-colored hoodie, dark shorts, and a backpack. The terrain is dry with sparse, low-lying vegetation. In the background, there are rolling hills under a cloudy sky. The text "Living the Christian Life" is overlaid in the top left corner of the image.

Introduction: Jesus is our Example

He travelled light

Matthew 8:20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

One Solitary Life: "Here is a man who was born in an obscure village... He never owned a home. He never wrote a book. He never held office..."

Living the Christian Life

Beware of Covetousness

1 Timothy 6:9

But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

2 Timothy 2:4

No soldier on service entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier.

Not Possible to Do Balancing Act

Many people want to allocate some of their time to God, but save some for their own use – “balancing act”

James 4:4 Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

1 John 2:15

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

Living the Christian Life

We need to

We live in complicated, stressful and complex times

Many of us are like Martha of Luke 10 who was careful and troubled about many things

The truth is, only one thing is necessary

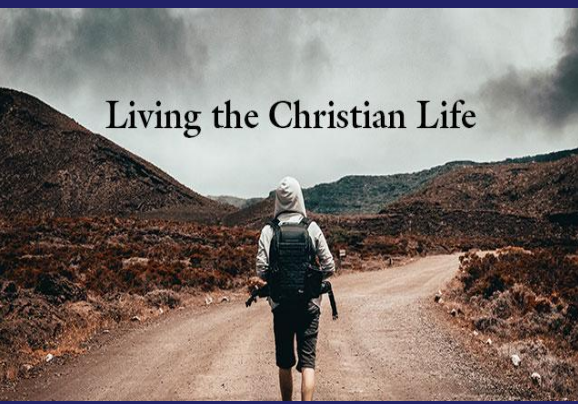

Luke 10:42

Only one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Living the Christian Life

Seek Contentment

Hebrews 13:5

Let your life be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

1 Timothy 6:8

And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

Philippians 4:11

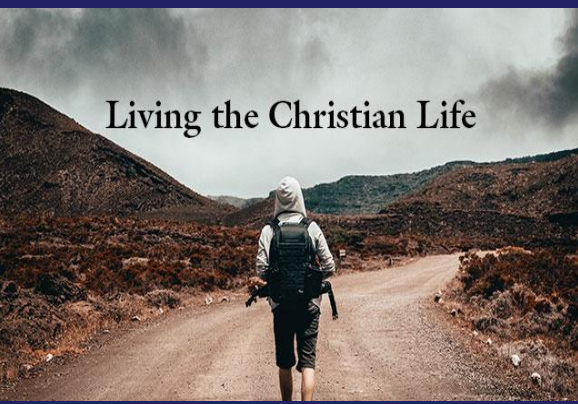

I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

Thanksgiving is the Heart

Colossians 2:7

Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

Philippians 4:6

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

Living the Christian Life

Be Generous

2 Cor 8:2

How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

2 Cor 8:4

Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

2 Cor 8:5

And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

Conclusion: Cut Away the Clutter

James 5:3

Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.
