

THE WORKS OF ARTHUR CLEMENT HILTON;
TOGETHER WITH HIS LIFE AND LETTERS (1904) PDF,
EPUB, EBOOK

Edgcumbe, Edward Robert Pearce, Sir, | The Online Books Page

The Fred Harclerod Papers are a collection of documents created and received by Harclerod slightly prior to, during, and after his time as President of the University. The collection consists almost primarily of personal photographs, with some documents such as letters and legal documents. Papers of Nicholas Hardeman, professor and academic senator at Long Beach State relating to various faculty and administration controversies. Harden and his son, William Harden, ca. This collection documents the life of Helen Harder nee Eleanor F. She later worked in a variety of fields including private Hardgrove's papers include correspondence, student papers, published and unpublished manuscripts, photographs, slides, audio and video tapes and secondary materials on her subjects of interest Appointing and directing Folsom and Charles Meyer to take charge of affairs and property of W. Leidesdorff in the event the latter's illness should prove fatal. A collection of papers and photographs collected by John L.

Hardie, a former UC Davis alumnus and campus administrator. Material includes correspondence with other campus officials including Edwin C. Voorhies and Larry N. Vanderhoef; campus historic publications, recollections from Voorhies He wrote many books, including , , and a three-volume history Charles M. The collection contains correspondence related to research, published and unpublished, dealing with the U. Constitution and constitutional reform politics. Also included are general The collection contains background material, audiotapes, and transcripts of interviews conducted by David E. Russell, with Garrett Hardin, in Includes biographic and bibliographic information, correspondence, extensive subject files used in his writing, UCSB teaching files, drafts of articles and manuscripts, and photographs.

Highlights include files related to his Summary: Two diaries, one depicting Hardin's journey to California by way of New Orleans and Mexico in , the other is for the year Small collection of personal papers of author George Laban Harding, primarily comprising family photographs, portraits, and Boy Scouts of America ephemera. The collection consists of correspondence; technical reports on various aspects of irrigation; reports and surveys of specific irrigation projects throughout California, and in Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, and North Dakota; and miscellaneous material relating to water costs and requirements, water The Donald L.

Hardison Collection spans the years , and includes files created by Hardison and his firms. This collection documents the political and professional life of activist Paul D. Letters to F. Hardt from various Italian correspondents, relating to political events and public opinion in Italy during the period of its neutrality in World War I. The material includes a combination of documents, cartoons, artwork, magazines and photographs. Most of the photographs are unlabeled and unattributed. The material was collected during Mr. Hardy's military service and covers the period from the early s until his retirement The collection consists of correspondence, office files, and other records from Dr. Consists of a selection of George Hardy's papers, including personal files, correspondence, clippings, materials relating to the George Scalise case of the s, a biography titled "So Much to be Done: George Hardy's Life in Organized Labor," and an oversized This collection offers visual images of the career of George Hardy.

It includes many union activities such as conventions and strikes. George Hardy is the central figure in most images This collection contains documents, manuscripts, correspondence, and ephemera assembled by author and collector Grahame H. Hardy reflecting a range of legal, administrative, municipal, and real estate-related transactions initiated by railroad and mining interests, businessmen, and municipalities in the San Francisco These papers include two letters to David Starr Jordan, ; manuscript, typescript and published versions of Hardy? A Pioneer Childhood and Afterwards? The Rex Hardy photographs span the years and encompass 2 linear feet. The collection consists of 1, 35mm nitrate negatives taken by Hardy on assignment for Life magazine in and Only a small percentage of the This collection contains manuscripts, programs, photographs, publications, and other materials pertaining to Thomas Hardy, English novelist and poet, and the Hardy Players, a group of performers.

Included are manuscripts with programs and related material, photographs and sketches of individuals and This is a collection of manuscripts by Captain W. Hardy regarding his life and experiences in Arizona from Some were printed in the newspaper between and These are typed manuscripts and copies, all of which are Major subjects depicted are agricultural activities, immigrant laborers of various ethnic groups, the Chinese fishing village in Monterey, domestic and historic architecture including missions and adobes of Spanish The Chauncey Hare photograph archive comprises photographic documentation of ordinary people in their homes and in the work environment, as well as urban and rural landscapes in California and various areas in the United States.

Areas of concentration are the This collection contains correspondence and records relating to Sgt. William S. This collection primarily consists of military records and photographs belonging to Daniel D. This collection consists of entirely music scores. They are ozalid reproductions of his manuscripts of two compositions: , and Overture for Orchestra with orchestral parts for both Sherman Oaks, California, 13 March The George H. Many of the photographs were published in George H. Harlan's book "San Francisco This collection houses a variety of government documents, papers, photographs, business records, scrapbooks, ephemera, and other pertinent information regarding a variety of topics related to the political career of Harlan Hagen. Letters to Alfred E. Tilton, deeds, and abstracts of title, mainly for land in Mosquito District, Park Co. Collection contains slides of Stanford football, including the Rose Bowl of , and Stanford swimmers; and photographs of Memorial Church, Lake Lagunita, Quad images, sports, and portraits of female students, some of which were used in the QUAD.

Includes letters from Charles F. Aked, William F. Cheney, Albert H. Elliot, Thomas E. Hayden, William S. Morgan, Thomas H. Reed, Anna Scott, J. Reports, clippings and mimeographed material concerning the University of California loyalty oath controversy. Correspondence, prison records, receipts, legal records, notes, clippings, editorial drafts, and manuscripts of Donald Harley, The materials primarily document Harley's trial and prison sentence, but also include materials related to his personal life and activism.

Bryce N. Harlow served as Assistant to the President and Counselor to the President. The materials cover the period from November to January when Mr. This autobiography details his life as public relations executive and consultant as well as salesman, business executive, educator, researcher, lecturer, and author. Several chapters deal with his teaching career at Stanford and the Stanford Public Relations Institute.

The collection also Correspondence between Muir Dawson, Harold Smith, and Roger Levenson, and other documents regarding the development, manufacture and sale of the Har-ma printing press. The Bob Harman drawings span the years and encompass 6. The collection contains more than drawings, about half in pencil and half in pen and ink.

Those that are dated fall between and The Tom Harman Papers consist of 7 cubic feet of physical and digital records reflecting the interests and political activities of Photos collected by western artist Harmer, mostly of Southwest Indians, but also of the U. Army, Mexico, and Dakota Indians. This collection consists of 5 postcards primarily of scenes along the San Francisco Calif. This collection is comprised of material that documents the military career and personal life of Arthur C. It contains The papers include legal documents, correspondence, newsclippings, maps, reports, subject files, and theater and movie programs from Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and New York. The documents James and Edie Harmon's grassroots environmental work in opposition to numerous landfills, mines, and waste projects in the late s and s. The collection dates from to , and includes environmental impact reports, correspondences, newspaper clippings, litigation John B.

Harmon practiced law in Sacramento and Virginia City, Nevada. In , he moved to San Francisco where he was associated with P. Galpin, Moriss M. Estee and D. The collection consists of correspondence and legal papers Larry Harmon started the independent zine in Harmon's zine included detailed researching and reporting of the odd tales of Southern California. Construction projects in Southern California, mostly public buildings. Interiors of Union Station. Prints have been produced of some of these images Hancock Oil, Shell and Richfield service stations. The Harmony Grove Church Restoration Papers consist of correspondence, reports, clippings, architect's drawings and unpublished histories pertaining to the restoration of the Harmony Grove Church, Lockeford, Calif.

The collection includes manuscripts, research notes, illustrations, and other material pertaining to Jack Harness, an American Science Fiction and Fantasy fan and writer who was active in Los Angeles, California during the 's and 's. Includes stories and poetry by Various harness racing horses, traps, and drivers photographed in motion. Location and date are unidentified. The Harold A. Parker Studio Collection of Lantern Slides and Transparencies consists of 96 hand-colored lantern slides and autochrome lantern slides, and 52 color transparencies, ca. Parker Studio Collection of Negatives consists of glass plate negatives, film negatives, and panoramic negatives, , that depict commercial, residential and landscape sites in and around Pasadena and Southern California. The images provide a look at Letters are primarily concerned with personal and family matters. Such letters give Contains four signed notes and three paper fragments with signatures of notable persons in history, science, and literature.

Items include a portion of a printed title page of a published letter written by Alexander Hamilton, annotated and initialed by "A. Interviews conducted by Suzanne B. Introductions by Ernest R. Hilgard and R. Nevitt Sanford. Copies of photographs inserted. Comments on their careers in child development and growth studies, particularly at the Collection consists primarily of writings by Harold E. Also contains biographical information about Jones, correspondence, course notes, news clippings, a small number of photographs some of Jones , radio transcripts for child development programs, and speeches.

Minutes; financial reports; and correspondence relating to the Berkeley War Council Materials about the Council include items relating to child care; consumer interests; housing; education; nutrition, medical care, and health; and community centers. The majority of the papers and articles reflect Harold Biswell's association with controlled burning and forest ecology. Includes numerous documented photographs and slides of California forests, chaparral, and ranches from the s through the s. One document: Appointment as second lieutenant, by President William H. Taft, 30 July Contains documents concerning government surplus property for veterans, irrigation agreements with San Joaquin Canal Company, U. Contains notes made in preparation for Noble's doctoral dissertation, documents relating to the Pearl Harbor inquiry, ca.

The Harold L. Willson papers document Willson's unstinting efforts to make public transportation accessible for people at all mobility levels. Willson's primary legacy is the removal of architectural barriers on Bay Area public transportation; copious correspondence with BART officials, as Part of a collection of certificates, diplomas, and similar documents, primarily from California. This collection of home movies primarily documents the early years of the Lloyd children and life at the family's Irving Street home located in the Los Angeles neighborhood of Hancock Park where the family lived until , and Greenacres estate The collection contains photographs of Harold Morris, members of his family, and various talents that his agency managed, including the Harmonica Rascals, the Duane Dancers, Yukiko Sakakura, and Tony Martin; as well as professional correspondence; certificates from the American Guild Re Harold S.

Chase, his coming to SB, Hope Ranch development, role in public affairs, including earthquake and depression relief, fundraising for Cottage Hospital, wildlife conservation, , and family life. Interviewer: Ronald L. Materials taken from eighteen scrapbooks that relate to Harold S. Three scrapbooks related to his business interests including drive-in restaurants and bowling alleys ; nine related to his career as a supervisor on the San Francisco Board of Supervisors , The papers include research notebooks, correspondence, course notes, reports, subject files, biographical materials, and reprints of Johnston's articles.

One letter TLS from perennial presidential candidate Harold Stassen to Theodore Bailey re Stassen's communication with Premier Stalin, together with related address, statement, and transcript , Consists of correspondence, deeds, agreements, accounts, receipts, manuscript maps, and other papers reflecting Asbury Harpending's business and speculative activities in the Western United States, Kentucky, New York, and Latin America between the years and Although the collection contains Edwin L. Harper assisted in the area of research, planning, and coordination of domestic policy. These policies included: budget issues, The Harper Special Files include information on revenue sharing and Presidential appearances. Correspondence, speeches and writings, memoranda, reports, clippings, and other printed matter relating to laissez-faire economic and political theory, and to economic conditions and governmental economic policy in the United States.

Photographs, clippings, memorabilia, and personnel records, relating to post-World War II American military activities, especially in the Philippines. Photostats, microfilm, and research notes relating to commercial shipping in the British Colonial ports of North America. Collection largely consists of negatives , a few contemporary prints, and contact sheets from selected negative rolls made in Subjects include rehearsals for student plays, parties and excursions, Prof. Thomas Bailey in class, exams, graduation, campus scenes, and Also includes biographical material about Wagner, as well as references to the Harr Wagner Publishing Company. In addition, copies of the Letters to James Harrell from Jonas O. This collection includes personal papers, working production files, photographs, slides, audio tapes, tapestries, drawings, oil paintings, watercolor paintings.

Reports, memoranda, minutes of meetings, tests, manuals for tests, and a photograph, relating to the development and administration of an Army

General Classification Test to help select American soldiers for officer training and specialty training during World War II, and Three-page typescript letter sent from Harriett Ashim Choynski to a Mrs. Neumann in describing the history of the Ashim family in San Francisco. The letter describes the arrival of California pioneer Morris B. Ashim in San Francisco in , One envelope addressed to Lili E. Stephens of Princeton, Illinois, with later ink notation "Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's autograph. Removed from Montgomery Collection Wyles Mss 9.

One letter ALS , signed H. Stowe, to an unnamed friend, offering best wishes for the New Year. Mandarin, Florida, 11 January One note ANS , signed H. Found in CDCC. This collection consists of 38 photographs of Harriett Fyffe's trip to Yosemite. Photographs are mounted on cardboard backing This collection consists of the personal and professional papers of Harriet G. It is organized into the following series: Personal, Travel, Professional, Correspondence and Audiovisual. Contains 4 letters by Harriet Martineau. The first letter dated October 20, , discusses a tale from her book on economics, "Illustrations of Political Economy. Contains several composition books and letters written by Harriette Franklin of Manchester, England, including a letter from Harriette to her brother, Ellis.

Also includes an SF Examiner clipping dated Harriman and Company. Relates to mining rights in Georgia Transcaucasia. The Curtis Harrington papers span the years bulk and encompass 30 linear feet. There are scripts, correspondence, clippings, reviews, and production material for Harrington? A collection of material related to the personal and professional life of George Harrington, American treasury official and diplomat. The major part of this collection is two albums of photographs from Harrington's work and travels in Bolivia and Argentina, and undated. Images include villages, local people, trekking on mountain trails and by river boat, geologic formations, other geologists, John Peabody Harrington was a linguist and ethnologist.

His career spanned over forty years, dedicating his research to studying Native American languages and cultures across the western United States. Collection includes notes created by John Peabody Harrington during the Mark Raymond Harrington born July 6, died June 30 , noted anthropologist and archaeologist, was curator of archaeology at the Southwest Museum from to and discoverer of ancient Pueblo structures near Overton, Nevada and Little Lake, California Harris Water Project Papers contain photographs, correspondence, and memorandums of agreement related to water projects Harris worked on in the early s. This collection is primarily composed of autograph letters and drafts written by Ann Harris and Richard Chandler between October and September The bulk of the material is finished letters written from Harris to Chandler.

Material attributed to Chandler The Charlotte Harris Papers include photographs, postcards, church programs, and awards related to the activities of the Harris and Fletcher families. The bulk of the collection is photographs of family and friends of Charlotte Harris in Seattle, Washington and Berkeley, Notebooks, clippings, etc.

Writings, correspondence, lecture notes, printed matter, and photographs, relating to political conditions in the twentieth-century Middle East, European intellectual history, and political science. Unpublished typescript draft, given to Stanford professor Gordon Wright following Harris' death for editing; annotated by Wright Correspondence, speeches and writings, reports, research notes, newsletters, lists, and printed matter, relating to Emperor Napoleon I of France, the Balkan crisis of , international affairs in Europe during the interwar period, and reconstruction of Germany and Austria following World Notebooks, patent invention disclosure files, patent photographs, and other assorted papers related to Donald B.

Harris's work on the Spiratron tube at General Electric Company. This collection contains audio cassettes, posters, fliers, documents, and other material regarding Dot Harris and her career at UCR. The Elihu M. Harris Papers consist of reports, photographs, subject files, and administrative and financial records documenting Harris' political career as the mayor of Oakland, California from and as co-owner of KDIA radio station from The Elihu Harris Papers consist of 19 cubic feet of records reflecting Harris's activities during his Assembly career.

Harris, one of the first women in the U. Marine Corps. The Ellen Stern Harris papers document the efforts and accomplishments of a California environmental activist whose concerns ranged from protecting the California coastline to cleaning up campaign finances. Harris established herself as a leading activist through exhaustive correspondence, editorials, committee Erna P. Harris Papers consists of photographs of family and friends of Erna P. Reports, memoranda, and correspondence relating to the Russian Civil War in Siberia, the Czechoslovak Legion, political and economic conditions in Siberia, and American policy in Siberia.

This finding aid describes the Clark Library's collection of material created by and related to Frank Harris, and includes correspondence, manuscripts, news clippings, typescripts and proofs. George Harris was a barister and judge with strong interests in anthropology and psychology. During , George Harris solicited comments and suggestions from many eminent philosophers, theologians and naturalists concerning the ideas and language of his planned treatise on The Gladys Knight Harris Papers document Harris's personal interest in domestic science, household affairs, child rearing, or what could be characterized as "women's work" in a harsh, unspoiled environment.

Depicts the headquarters of the American Expeditionary Forces in Siberia, and officers of the Japanese and Czechoslovak forces in Vladivostok. Writings, correspondence, reports, memoranda, printed matter, computer disks, and photographs, relating to Panama, American-Panamanian relations, the American invasion of Panama, Manuel Noriega, and the Foreign Policy Association of Panama. Includes research material for the book by David S The Harwell Hamilton Harris drawings and model span 8 linear feet and date from to The collection is composed of three flat file folders, each contain drawings for different projects.

Includes manuscripts, typescripts for Dr. Harris' book, California's Medical Story , and on medical history in California, and musical compositions. The latter are songs, some orchestrated, with words by Harris and others: Louis B. Jacobs, S. Brenner, Edward M. Papers of a theosophist and member of the Theosophical Society in Point Loma, California, dating chiefly from the early foundation of Lomaland to the Society's relocation in to Covina, California.

Included are descriptions of the Theosophical Society's Raja Yoga The collection is available The diary contains entries for virtually every day of the trip. The collection has been processed to the Collection level and is open for use. This scrapbook was the property of L. The first few pages of this book shows data on the construction work on the second track between Yampai, Arizona and Topock, Arizona. Writings, correspondence, photographs, maps, and memorabilia, relating to U. File contains 2 handwritten letters regarding Lewis Birdsall Harris' death, one written by his son Lewis B. Harris, Jr. Briscole on July 7th, Photographs, legal documents, manuscripts, personal and business correspondence, lecture notes, videotapes, audiotapes, clippings, scrapbooks, floppy disks, memorabilia and other material from actor, lecturer and intersex person, Lynn Edward Harris Born intersexed, Harris was raised female despite being born Mabel C.

The collection is comprised of business papers with equipment specifications and blueprints, newspaper and journal articles, and photographs. Koster, plus a photocopy of The history of Harris combined header and thresher The consists of Harris's working papers from the library regarding staff, long range planning, budgeting, publicity and working documents for programs. It includes detailed information about events and speakers, including guest registers, newspaper clippings and press releases.

General program information, A collection of photographs compiled or created by Philip B. Harris of railroad construction and survey work in the Los Angeles area, s, and photographs of soldiers, ruins, and other scenes in World War I France. Robert E. Harris b. The collection consists of copies of newspaper articles The Robert H. Harris papers span the years bulk and encompass 1. The collection consists of clippings, scripts, programs, correspondence, scrapbooks, and photographs Correspondence between Roy Harris and Hans Barkan concerning the commissioning of Harris to write an orchestral work for Stanford's 50th anniversary celebration Harris describes the process of composition and decisions made at every step.

Also includes articles and photographs Writings, correspondence, photocopies of government documents, photographs, sound recordings, video tapes, and printed matter, of an American historian relating mainly to biological warfare, especially as conducted by Japan in China before and during World War II. Includes research material used Relates to the history of the Monarkhicheskaia Organizatsiia TSentral'noi Rossii, known as the Trust, and its control by the Soviet secret police for purposes of penetration and manipulation of anti-communist Russian groups in exile, from to Master's thesis, In, he was appointed U. Consul General to Japan. He negotiated commercial treaties with Siam in and Japan in After the election of Abraham Lincoln in, The collection includes a small number of family papers, letters, and materials relating to Weinstock's business ventures and Weinstock's work on agricultural cooperatives.

The collection consists primarily of Harris Weinstock's diaries and photographs. Aside from two small general diaries from The William Torrey Harris papers, , consists of letters, manuscripts, typescripts, notes, and leaflets collected and created by noted 19th century educator, philosopher and lexicographer William Torrey Harris. In addition to letters from major philosophers of the period, including John Includes interviews The materials consist of of printed ephemera from President Benjamin Harrison's epic cross-country railroad journey, from the papers of E.

Tibbott, Harrison's private secretary who accompanied him on the trip. The President's train left Washington and proceeded to make a Benjamin Harrison was a lawyer and Democratic Party leader in California. He served as city attorney for Needles, was appointed U. President Harrison's speech-making tour in was, at that time, the longest journey ever undertaken by any President while in office. The 9, mile rail trip lasted one month and three days. The trip was partly planned and largely financed The are comprised of 17 personal letters written primarily between Mr. Harrison and his wife, Julia E. Harrison during his enlistment. Letters from Julia and Mr. Harrison's family are also included; a letter from Sallie unknown relation to George J. Harrison served as Senior Agronomist and Superintendent of the U.

Cotton Field Station in Shafter, California from His Papers contain serials, trade publications, clippings, photographs, and speeches relating to cotton breeding, with an emphasis on the development He began corresponding with Gertrude Stein in, and continued to correspond with Stein until her death in The collection contains galley and page proofs for books by The Gilbert A. The majority of the materials pertain to two controversies at UCLA - the suspension of five student leaders for suspected "radical" Photograph album Views of the Philippine Islands, , during the Spanish-American War, including Manila, battle scenes, and tourist views; with hand-written descriptions by Harrison Gray Otis, a brigade commander, U.

The papers document the life and work of married couple Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison, leading pioneers of the eco-art movement, whose collaborative career began in the late sixties. Throughout their career, the Harrisons worked with biologists, ecologists, architects, Miller and Fredric Lieberman: Lou Harrison. Composing a World. This series contains drawings, paintings, calligraphy samples, and projects done by Lou Harrison as well as artwork given to him by others. Series 1: Music Manuscripts contains complete autograph music scores, sketches, revisions and fragments produced by Harrison during his seventy five years of writing music. This series contains biographical materials about Lou Harrison and family, contracts and awards given to Harrison. This series contains photographs of Lou Harrison, Bill Colvig and friends. This series contains writings by Lou Harrison as well as by other writers about Harrison.

Margaret B. Harrison became interested in fine bookbinding in the 's and apprenticed for a time with master bookbinder Hazel Dreis. For more than four decades, her bookbinding skills enabled her to bind and preserve a number of volumes Updates to Harrison Western Research Center library card catalog, master microfilm of catalog records. The documents the efforts of Alvin S. Harris, an amateur erotic photographer, and Richard "Dick" Oliver Wheeler, an enthusiast, to collect, share, and sell cross-dressing and sexual fetish materials, including literature, photographs, periodicals, catalogs, and other types of sexually explicit Quelle outside his print shop. Also includes a photograph of Perry O. Simmons, In this oral history, Harry and Sandra Reese, the owners of Turkey Press, provide an insiders view of the art of printing. Also about their education and early careers. Interviewer: David E. Russell, ca. Interviewee s : Harry and Sandra Reese Transcript: edited and finished version, Education of Consists of correspondence, diaries, and subject files concerning his research in biology and medicine.

Of note are materials relating to Torrey's research voyage to Japan on the ship Albatross. Portraits, snapshots and postcards pertaining to the life, family and career of Harry Beal Torrey. Includes many nineteenth century cartes de visite and cabinet card portraits. Subpoena for Dr. With its seriousness of purpose, its literary stature and the range—both stylistic and thematic—of its content, the Comedy soon became a cornerstone in the evolution of Italian as an established literary language. Dante was more aware than most early Italian writers of the variety of Italian dialects and of the need to create a literature and a unified literary language beyond the limits of Latin writing at the time; in that sense, he is a forerunner of the Renaissance , with its effort to create vernacular literature in competition with earlier classical writers.

Dante's in-depth knowledge within the limits of his time of Roman antiquity, and his evident admiration for some aspects of pagan Rome, also point forward to the 15th century. Ironically, while he was widely honored in the centuries after his death, the Comedy slipped out of fashion among men of letters: too medieval, too rough and tragic, and not stylistically refined in the respects that the high and late Renaissance came to demand of literature. He wrote the Comedy in a language he called "Italian", in some sense an amalgamated literary language mostly based on the regional dialect of Tuscany, but with some elements of Latin and other regional dialects. By creating a poem of epic structure and philosophic purpose, he established that the Italian language was suitable for the highest sort of expression. In French, Italian is sometimes nicknamed la langue de Dante. Publishing in the vernacular language marked Dante as one of the first in Roman Catholic Western Europe among others such as Geoffrey Chaucer and Giovanni Boccaccio to break free from standards of publishing in only Latin the language of liturgy , history and scholarship in general, but often also of lyric poetry.

This break set a precedent and allowed more literature to be published for a wider audience, setting the stage for greater levels of literacy in the future. However, unlike Boccaccio, Milton or Ariosto , Dante did not really become an author read across Europe until the Romantic era. To the Romantics, Dante, like Homer and Shakespeare , was a prime example of the "original genius" who set his own rules, created persons of overpowering stature and depth, and went far beyond any imitation of the patterns of earlier masters; and who, in turn, could not truly be imitated. New readers often wonder how such a serious work may be called a "comedy".

In the classical sense the word comedy refers to works that reflect belief in an ordered universe, in which events tend toward not only a happy or amusing ending but one influenced by a Providential will that orders all things to an ultimate good. By this meaning of the word, as Dante himself allegedly wrote in a letter to Cangrande I della Scala , the progression of the pilgrimage from Hell to Paradise is the paradigmatic expression of comedy, since the work begins with the pilgrim's moral confusion and ends with the vision of God. Dante's other works include Convivio "The Banquet" , [64] a collection of his longest poems with an unfinished allegorical commentary; De Monarchia , [65] a summary treatise of political philosophy in Latin which was condemned and burned after Dante's death [66] [67] by the Papal Legate Bertrando del Poggetto , which argues for the necessity of a universal or global monarchy to establish universal peace in this life, and this monarchy's relationship to the Roman Catholic Church as guide to eternal peace; and De vulgari eloquentia "On the Eloquence in the Vernacular" , [68] on vernacular literature, partly inspired by the Razos de trobar of Raimon Vidal de Bezaudun.

The major works of Dante's are the following. From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia. For other uses, see Dante disambiguation. Florentine poet, writer, and philosopher. Posthumous portrait in tempera by Sandro Botticelli , Further information: Guelphs and Ghibellines. Dante's tomb exterior and interior in Ravenna, built in See also: Category:Works by Dante Alighieri. A document prepared for Dante's son Jacopo refers to "Durante, often called Dante". He may have been named for his maternal grandfather Durante degli Abati. Dante: storia di un visionario. Rome: Gius. ISBN Collins English Dictionary.

Retrieved 20 May Oxford Dictionaries UK Dictionary. Oxford University Press. Merriam-Webster Dictionary. Zalta, Edward N. The Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy. Giovanni Boccaccio, a Biographical Study. The Western Canon. Riverhead Books. Reading Dante: From Here to Eternity. New York: Liveright Publishing Corporation. In Matheson, Lister M. Santa Barbara, CA: Greenwood. Human accomplishment: the pursuit of excellence in the arts and sciences, B. New York: HarperCollins. OCLC The Cambridge Companion to Dante's 'Commedia'. Cambridge University Press. According to Giovanni Boccaccio , the poet said he was born in May. A Alighieri, Dante. Dizionario Biografico degli Italiani in Italian. Enciclopedia Italiana.

Bibcode : bea.. Retrieved 7 March Dante: Il romanzo della sua vita. Milan: Mondadori. Delphi Complete Works of Dante Alighieri. Delphi Classics. Philip Henry Wicksteed, Herman Oelsner ed. The Paradiso of Dante Alighieri fifth ed. Dent and Company. Dante: Poet, Author, and Proud Florentine. Infobase Publishing. Academy of American Poets. Retrieved 20 December Nilsen Names and Naming in Young Adult Literature. Scarecrow Press. Critical Companion to Dante. Dante Alighieri Society of Massachusetts. Archived from the original on 12 December Retrieved 30 December Retrieved 18 June Boston: Houghton, Mifflin.

London: Hodder and Stoughton. Bertolo Spolia — Journal of Medieval Studies. Retrieved 18 August Retrieved 1 February Retrieved 27 March Cuius sollicita procuracione conventus perusinus meruit habere gratiam a summo pontifice papa Benedicto XI ecclesiam scilicet et parrochiam Sancti Stephani tempore quo [maggio ipse prior actu in Perusio erat Cr Pg 38r ". Retrieved 9 May The Florentine. The Catholic Encyclopedia. Retrieved 2 May Courtesy Internet Archive. Arthur Clement Hilton - April 3, was an Anglican priest, and an English poet who wrote nonsense verse. Hilton attended Marlborough College and St. John's College, Cambridge. He graduated in from Wells Theological Seminary, and was ordained a deacon in and a priest in He earned a M. He died suddenly in Hilton never reached the Sixth at Marlborough, and only took a pass degree at Cambridge, but his school and University record is not a fair index of his accomplishments.

Still, his early efforts gave little inkling of the real genius for parody revealed in the Light Green , a burlesque magazine — the title of which was suggested by a short-lived Oxford periodical called the Dark Blue — 2 numbers of which appeared in the May Term of

Todos los libros del autor Edward Highton

Which I wish to remark, And my language is plain, That for plots that are dark And not always in vain, The heathen Pass-ee is peculiar,. Nonsense Verses - by Arthur Clement Hilton. By Edward Leary. Clement of Charleston South Carolina includes. A Vulture is a rapacious and obscene bird, which destroys its prey by plucking it limb from limb with its powerful beak and talons. A Husbandman is a man in a low position of life, who supportshimself by the use of the plough. With thy bosom bespangled and banded With. Octopus - by Arthur Clement Hilton. Works of Arthur Clement Hilton Together with his life and I've really done enough of sums, I've done so very many, That now instead of doing sum I'd rather not do any.

A J Clement John Henry McCray- Letters, speeches, news clippings, reports, programs, photographs, and miscellaneous printed items related to the career and activism of A. Benny deals with the aftermath of losing Beth Harmon. Get it by Fri, Aug 7 - Mon, Aug Arthur Hilliard charged with murder in death of Diamond Book is new and unread but may have minor shelf wear.

B- A Vulture is a rapacious and obscene bird, which destroys its prey by plucking it limb from limb with its powerful beak and talons. The art net Price Database has records of two auction sales of Clements sculptures, similar tubular steel works that sold for 25, and 15, in and. Mary, Sandwich, and was ordained priest in Very good. The poem is written by Arthur Clement Hilton. Edgcombe on. Analysis of Arthur Clement Hilton's poems - description of poetic forms and elements. Arthur Clement Hilton Poems. Octopus- Arthur Clement Hilton Octopus Strange beauty, eight-limbed and eight-handed, Whence camest to dazzle our eyes?

Mathematics Arthur Clement Hilton Poems. Poem Mathematics by Arthur Clement Hilton. Poem The Heathen Pass. Arthur Hilton. The Works of Arthur Clement Hilton. In addition there are photographs, This collection of photographs consist of 2 postcards, 5 small photographic prints related to Sigurd Hagen. This collection contains 12 correspondence written by Sergeant William "Bill" F. Hagerty to his family during the Vietnam War. A collection of correspondence related to the professional and personal life of Henry Rider Haggard, English novelist. Collection contains some pieces of correspondence, including letters to J. Jeaffreson, Lord Curzon, and letters to and from Andrew Lang. Also includes fragments of manuscript notes, scrapbooks of clippings, a photograph album, and other ephemera Collection consists of manuscripts, applications for research grants and fellowships, teaching materials, papers related to public service activities, research materials, committee work documents, and correspondence of UCLA law professor Donald Gerald Hagman.

Topics include planning, taxation, local government, and the This collection contains materials related to Harlan Hahn, his family, his battle with polio in the s, and his professional career focusing mostly on society's view of disabilities. Hahn was a professor of political science, psychiatry, and behavioral science Copies of publications by Santa Barbara author Hahn, on the internet, computer programming, and related subjects.

The collection includes press clippings, press releases, Hahn's mayoral files, budget books, business Kenneth Hahn was a former Los Angeles County Supervisor and Los Angeles City Councilman who served for over 40 years, making him the longest serving elected official in California's history. The collection contains materials about Hahn's life and passing, including The materials in the collection supply a picture of the growth of an internationally successful company through the period of the Great Depression, as well as the development of the machines important to the farmers and developers in California and Photographs show drawings of designs for totem poles. Collection is accompanied by the following information: "Totem poles representing the family history and the mythology of the tribe of 'Haida' Indians on Queen Charlotte Island, B.

Also their places and modes The materials of Alexander Meigs Haig, Jr. Nineteen letters from San Francisco lawyer, George W. Haight to A. Smith in Grand Junction, Colorado, dated - Taylor, G. Fifteen are A collection of material related to the personal and professional life of Henry Huntley Haight, lawyer, businessman and governor of California. Mainly photocopies of fliers, broadsides, poetry, manifestos, and other printed material distributed in the community, the bulk of which was printed by the Communications Company, a group created by several writers and Diggers; together with several issues of Free City The collection primarily contains handbills, flyers, and posters of cultural and political activities in the Haight-Ashbury area of San Francisco in Manuscript haiku collections, most with accompanying letters sent to Elizabeth Searle Lamb by John Polozolo Zolo during All are untitled.

Some typescript and some holograph; some illustrated by author. One hundred seventy-five boxes were prepared and distributed. The collection consists of John Brandi's working papers relating to his haiku publications. This material was organized by Brandi and his content notes for each folder have been retained. Each folder pertains to one publication and includes items associated with Henderson and Leroy Kanterman in This nonprofit organization promotes English language haiku and is open to all who appreciate this form. The collection contains materials related to William Nicholas Hailmann was a leading exponent of the doctrine of Froebel in early childhood education.

He was the director of the German-American Academies and Milwaukee and the German-American Seminary in Detroit, served as superintendent of The Haines, Evans, and Merrell Families were all related. The collection consists of the Civil War diaries of John H. Merrell, and miscellaneous personal correspondence and ephemera of the Haines and Evans families, mostly letters to Sarah Elizabeth Haines Evans. Portraits and snapshots of friends, associates and colleagues; many relating to librarianship and the American Library Association ALA. Many snapshots of group outings and social gatherings in conjunction with ALA meetings between about and are present. Portraits include This file contains a letter from Estelle H. Guinn, and a copy of a photograph of Haines. While Haines took many photographs of Found in misc. Materials created and collected by and about Jester Hairston, and administrative materials related to Hairston's centennial celebration.

Materials include manuscripts, music and lyrics, articles, and administrative files. Correspondence, reports, orders, awards, citations, photographs, clippings, and printed matter, relating to American military activities in the European Theater during World War II, and to postwar administration of the Army. Pages of an early printing of the English Voyages. Found in workroom. Ink notation: Atherton Gallery, Menlo Park.

The collection includes correspondence about the Jews in the California Gold Rush and about the historical preservation of pioneer Jewish cemeteries and landmarks. The Hal Pereira Film Sketches Collection consists chiefly of the film sketches that art director and designer Hal Periera created for Hollywood films in the s and s. The Hal Roach Studios scripts and production material spans the years and encompasses 3.

The collection consists of scripts and other production documents, including continuities, dialogue breakdowns, production reports, schedules, and treatments. The majority of these papers George Halasz was a theatrical critic for the, under the column. Additionally, he wrote features for, the, and the. Hans Milton Halberstadt is a writer, photographer, and documentary film maker. This collection includes Hans Halberstadt's original photographs and slides used for publications on tractors and farms, as well as research materials and books. Photographs, proofs, transparencies, and negatives of Milton "Hal" Halberstadt commercial and artistic photography. Personal and business correspondence relating to his life as a photographer. Papers include business ledgers and records, teaching slides and notes. Correspondence and memorabilia from Sherrill Halbert, Sacramento jurist and amateur historian, served as a director of the Pony Express Centennial Association from He was administrator of many Association Projects including the creation of trail markers and penned about twenty "Pony Express Days" vignettes. Relates to the influence of anarchist and Marxist theories on the Russian and Chinese Revolutions, and on revolutionary movements throughout the world.

This series was created to document the activities of H. Haldeman as he carried out his duties as White House Chief of Staff. The series also includes the files of key staff members who worked under Haldeman. In , he purchased a partnership with Louis Kopelin in the newspaper and its printing facility with money Emanuel Haldeman-Julius, a newspaper publisher, opened a publishing house in Girard, Kansas, where he published small, inexpensive paperback books, including classic works of literature and essays on myriad topics, for the working and middle classes. The publications in the are The consists of a small number of business records, the personal records of Jack Botwin, the printing plates for one title, and articles about the Haldeman-Julius Collection at the Leonard H. The pamphlets are printed on pulp paper and staple-bound, and were marketed to workers and the "educated" classes. This collection contains the papers of Augustin Ward Hale , as well as family members in New York, New Jersey, California, and Nevada, with the bulk dating from to Manuscripts chiefly reflect Hale's business ventures in California, including Barbara Hale began her acting career in and although she has appeared in numerous screen and television productions, she is most recognized as her character Della Street, in the television drama.

The collection consists of television scripts, call Chiefly subject files, press releases and press conference material, speeches, and some correspondence files, pertaining to the tenure and administration of Governor Edmund G. Brown, Sr. Collection includes: 2 photographs of New York City; 1 photograph of a U. Memoirs, letters, clippings, and photographs, relating to conditions in prisoner of war camps in Japan during World War II. George Ellery Hale — was an influential astrophysicist and science administrator. This collection of Hale's scientific, professional, and personal papers documents his roles in inventing the spectroheliometer; promoting international cooperation among scientists; and founding major observatories, as well as the Written by Israel Hale, who travelled with his son Titus Hale, this daily diary chronicles the challenges and hardship of an overland journey by wagon train from St.

Joseph, Missouri to Sacramento that took from May 5, to October Papers of Jonathan D. This extensive archive of roughly items documents the turmoil of irregular warfare in Tennessee and Kentucky. Kathleen Burke Hale was one of Santa Barbara's most distinguished citizens. The most decorated woman of World War I, Burke received awards and medals from seven European nations. Also included are a possibly unrelated letter The collection consists of two scrapbooks related to productions staged at the Valley Music Theatre. Included are playbills and cast group photographs representing Papers of Terrel Hale, American poet and editor, dating from to Included are original notebooks, typescripts, and drafts of Hale's prose, poetry, and plays; proofs, typescripts, paste-ups, lists of contributors, and correspondence related to the publication of. This collection contains four books of research done by Hale on the titles to property of Rancho San Andreas for his partition suit entitled Briody vs.

Hale, The Victor W. Hale papers consist of two series - one devoted to the Conference on high-speed automatic calculating machines held at the Cambridge University Mathematical Laboratory June , , and one consisting of papers relating to EDSAC from Sound recordings and transcripts of proceedings, and correspondence, memoranda, and conference papers, preparatory to and resulting from the conference, relating to international communist party cadre selection and leadership training.

Mainly concerning his career at the University of California in the Department of Landscape Architecture from until his retirement in ; the development of the field and the curriculum; and planning the Berkeley campus. Appendices include copy of a Published by the Czechoslovak Ministry of National Defense. Translated by R. Halhous and K. The collection is available for research use without restriction. There is a photocopy of a July time book that lists individuals names and time worked.

Original contractual documents include a Photographs and memorabilia, relating to famine conditions and American Relief Administration work in Orenburg and Samara, Russia. These lantern slides depict urban, agricultural, and nature scenes of California in the s. It consists of correspondence, diary, printed matter, photographs, and miscellany. Collection consists of correspondence, books, journals, clippings, and other printed materials related to abortion and sterilization in the course of Dr. David S. Relates to mining in North Yuma County, mining and oil exploration in Texas and Alabama and to Hall's literary career. Debra Jane Hall is a southern California representational, figurative painter, best known for her portraits of women by poolside. Papers record her personal life and artistic career, including family records, teaching materials, research materials for projects and artwork, documentations Doris D.

Hall was a resident of Los Angeles, California. This collection consists of printed materials related to travel and recreation within California and the greater U. Also included are the La Kennedy recalling their impressions of Kennedy while he was a student at Stanford in fall The E. Raymond Hall papers include field notes spanning the years , as well as wildlife control materials including correspondence, reports, meeting minutes, reprints of articles, and similar materials dating from Additionally, there is a small collection of photographs Writings, pamphlets, and eulogy, relating to missionary activities in the Belgian Congo, conditions at the time of independence, and the evacuation of Europeans and Americans in Family papers and sugar plantation records of the Hall family of England and Jamaica, including William Hall b.

The Hall family owned and operated the sugar plantations Diary, letters, orders, memoranda, leaflets, and financial records, relating to British military operations in Sicily and Italy during World War II. This collection contains correspondence written by George Hall U. Army to Lorraine "Lorry" Natzke from to This collection also contains one photograph of Hall dated January , signed "With love George" and correspondence from the Verteran's Administration dated The Gladys Hall papers span the years bulk and encompass 10 linear feet.

The collection consists primarily of notes and manuscripts for her articles on various movie stars. There is also a small amount of correspondence, as well The papers of Harvey Monroe Hall contain correspondence, notes, reprints and newspapers clippings relating to his family life and his career This small collection conatins five letters between various members of the Hall Family, several receipts, a carte de visite of Edward W.

Hall, and a handwritten family record of Sargent Hall and Nancy Clay. After that date Transcripts and Briefs for a particular case are bound together. It is not clear why the individual Briefs were bound together as they were. Their order is vaguely The John R. Hall Papers include published articles, unpublished conference and other papers, subject files, department memos, correspondence, event flyers, and a small set of published materials relating to intentional communities. Materials used by Hall in preparation of, and cited in, his book, , published in Includes correspondence, legal documents, clippings, transcripts of conversations and broadcasts, and ephemera collected and generated by members of Peoples Temple, particularly in This collection contains papers of Julia M. Wilde Hall and her family in Northern California and Deposit, New York, including diaries kept by Hall from in Sacramento, California, family records, and correspondence chiefly from Hall to her husband, Memoranda, letters, reports, and speeches, relating to the election campaign of Ronald Reagan for governor of California in, and to miscellaneous aspects of administration of the California state government during his gubernatorial administration.

Collection includes two photo albums of portraits of Stanford faculty, administrators, and alumni, including Birge Clark, Donald B. Tresidder, Russell V. Clippings, notes, writings, and correspondence, relating primarily to foreign relations between the United States and Morocco, and to post-World War II political, social, and economic conditions in Africa, especially North Africa. Includes correspondence with Kaiser Wilhelm II relating to A collection of manuscripts detailing the arts of Alchemy, Hermeticism, Rosicrucianism, and Masonry, gathered by Manly Palmer Hall, author and researcher in the realms of mysticism and the occult. Papers include concert programs, correspondence, a scrapbook, newspaper clippings, and photographs documenting the life and career of baritone singer Marcus Hall She was a design craftsperson, drama teacher in the San Diego Unified Public Schools and a social worker at the Alcoholism Counseling and Education Center This collection consists of screenplays and 19 television plays by Norman Shannon Hall, and 17 items plays, screenplays, and television plays by friends of Hall.

Drawings include Washington St. Consists of San Francisco memorabilia including Historic sites, Calif. Also includes a report on Golden Gate Bridge suicides. This collection contains the personal and professional papers of California judge Peirson M. Hall Collection contains a stampless folded letter addressed to William Branch, Birchardville, Pennsylvania with maritime receiving postmark "New-York ship" Aug.

Much of the letter is about the patent medicine business, reading in part: "The medicine business is nothing to what He flew 55 combat missions Sharlot Mabridth Hall was born in Kansas, was a pioneer, rancher, poet, prose writer, state historian of Arizona, and assistant editor of magazine. This collection includes correspondence to and from Hall and Charles Fletcher Lummis, manuscripts of Hall's published This collection contains information on his life and flying cars. Vivian Hall, a resident of Irvine, California from until her death in, was an educator, feminist, political and community activist, and grass roots organizer. The collection principally documents Hall's political and feminist activities during the s, notably Warren Acker Hall was born on Aug. After receiving his Ph. Letters, a notebook, and memorabilia, relating to the inspection of foodstuff distributed by the Commission for Relief in Belgium, and to the departure of American members of the commission from Belgium upon the entry of the United States into World This collection consists of digital and analog recordings of performances by the William Hall Master Chorale of Orange County, Along with the recordings there are also a number of scrapbooks documenting the performances.

Chiefly correspondence, reports, accounts, and other papers pertaining to Hall's irrigation projects in Calif. Includes some papers related to Hall's research and publications on irrigation, dams, and reservoirs; reports and The William Hammond Hall Papers, consist of correspondence, writings, diaries, maps, photographs, notes, and clippings recording the fifty year career of a pioneer in the fields of irrigation, reclamation, and conservation.

The William Hammond Hall papers MS consists of correspondence, technical reports, scrapbooks, and blueprints generated during his time as the first State Engineer of California, as a supervising engineer for the U. Geological Survey, and as a private Folder contains one handwritten letter from G. Beaugregard to Capt. Henry Wager Halleck. In the letter, Beaugregard introduces a friend of his who will be visiting the new territory Halleck was overseeing, and simultaneously congratulates Halleck on obtaining the Also included: correspondence The firm was dissolved in The collection contains correspondence, mainly relating to land litigation of Halleck, Peachy Correspondence and papers relating to land and land litigation including original documents and disenos, and transcripts and to various legal cases, some concerning Chinese immigration, ships, and the funding bill in San Francisco; accounts; and tax records.

Reel 1: box 1 folder 1 through box 3 folder 5; reel 2: box 3 folder 6 through box 6 folder 2; reel 3: box 6 folder 3 through box 7 folder 7; reel 4: box 7 folders 8 through An 8 x 10 color photograph of the late John McGinitie and friends on Christmas day, This collection contains one letter written by Roger W. Haller to his mother during the Iraq War. Pictorial booklet, relating to the German youth movement.

Text and photographs by A. Paintings by Captain Herrmann, a German prisoner of war. She authored bills concerning agriculture, education, and flood control in Monterey. This collection contains personal material relating to the career of Maj. George Hallett. Hallett was an engineer who worked with Glenn Curtis on early airplanes in San Diego. Correspondence, diaries, speeches and writings, photocopies of government documents, propaganda leaflets, and printed matter, relating to European diplomacy, imperialism, psychology of national socialism and totalitarianism, U. Includes drafts Reports, conference papers and proceedings, laws and treaties, hearing transcripts, correspondence, printed matter, and photographs, relating to international communications and space law.

The program was reorganized as the with Lionel Barrymore as host and featured true stories of American and world This collection includes materials about China House, a residence located near the entrance to Newport Harbor, and the campaign by historic preservationists to prevent the demolition of the house in This collection contains project files, publications, photographs, and other material regarding the career of Dr.

Frederick F. The prints in the Haloid Company Collection pre-date the company's involvement with xerography. They appear to be photographs intended to be used as examples of the various textures of "modern photographic papers. Correspondence, writings, reports, and printed matter, relating to activities of the Finnish Information Bureau in the United States in publicizing and seeking American recognition of the Soviet government of Finland. Includes writings and correspondence of Santeri Nuorteva, head of the Speeches and writings, correspondence, legislation, memoranda, reports, studies, and printed matter, relating to federal aid to education in the United States.

The collection also includes multiple documentaries on violinist The collection contains grant proposals, conference papers, minutes, reports, studies, writings, notes, correspondence, electronic bulletins, and printed matter related to economic and social development of the Southeast Asia region, and American social science studies of the area; ethnology and social The Mark Halpern papers consists of technical papers and reports, conference proceedings, manuals, the majority of which were published by IBM, and periodicals that document programming languages and computer technologies from through , with the bulk of the material Collection consists of the files, papers, and kinescopes of Saul Halpert, working journalist in the Los Angeles area from to Topics covered range from local to international politics, with a significant project on Los Angeles school integration.

Anna Halprin was a renowned San Francisco Bay Area-based dance teacher and choreographer, who remains active in the dance community through various workshops and presentations. Halprin helped pioneer the experimental art form known as postmodern dance. Over the years, Sara Halprin was an American writer, filmmaker, teacher, and therapist. This collection contains interviews and research materials the writer collected while working on her biography of photographer Seema Weatherwax. Accordingly, the bulk of the collection consists of recorded conversations Diary transcript, other writings, and miscellany, relating to conditions in Japanese internment camps in the Philippines during World War II.

The Odd S. Halseth Manuscript Collection contains typed documents recording the pueblo pottery collection of the San Diego Museum in June and an account of attending the Congress of Poets and the International Congress of Archaeology in Oslo in Funeral records, daybooks, and death and burial registers for seven funeral homes, mostly based in San Francisco--with the exception of Clark and Booth in Sacramento, as well as a few records from Burlingame and Stockton--acquired over time by the present-day This is a typed copy of a manuscript by Walter Kerr Halsted entitled "My Trip to California in '49," wherein Halsted recounts the four years he spent traveling to and living in California, starting in Halsted was 91 at The Ho Young Ham papers consist of artifacts, audio recordings, books, clothing, correspondence, manuscripts, photographs, Reports, minutes, and instructions relating to economic conditions in China during the Sino-Japanese War.

This collection contains photostats of letters by and about pioneer Mormon Jacob Hamblin and the Mormon Church's Indian missions as well as photostats of two Hamblin diaries and and copy prints of photographs of Hamblin's family and This collection contains novels and short stories written or edited by Barbara Hambly, an American science fiction, fantasy, and mystery writer. Also includes novels and short stories written by George Alec Effinger, an American science fiction writer, and short stories Hunt of the Southern Pacific Galveston, Harrisburg and The Hamburger Collection of the Berlin Fellowship, documents the history of a Christian work-camp program called World Deputation, which gave birth to the Berlin Fellowship.

The collection consists of correspondence, minutes, team reports and other documents involved in the Papers of Robert N. Hamburger, UCSD professor of pediatrics and researcher in allergy and immunology. Hamburger investigated the relationship between peptides and immunoglobulin E IgE antibodies and synthesized human IgE pentapeptide HEPP , a substance shown to inhibit allergic response. A collection of material related to the personal and professional life of Thomas Lyon Hamer, American congressman and soldier.

Letters to his father and wife concerning surveying and land speculation, Fox Lake area, Wisconsin; overland journey, , with change of destination at Laramie from Pike's Peak goldfields, to Washington Territory; life as farmer and surveyor near Walla Walla. Photographs show butterflies, owls, and other wildlife, presumably in California. Most are unidentified. Collection consists of fifty-eight lectures on the subject of midwifery. Includes a brief history of the field, a select list of authors, and a table of contents at the back Andrew Jackson Hamilton was a U. Archibald T. Hamilton was born in Edinburgh, Scotland in A merchant in ill health, he decided to emigrate to Southern California in in hopes of regaining his strength. The Ben Hamilton collection spans the years and encompasses 5 linear feet.

The collection includes correspondence, fan scrapbooks, and miscellany. The correspondence includes letters written to Lily May Caldwell, who worked for various newspapers in Birmingham, Alabama from at This collection contains professional papers generated by Calvin S. Hamilton during his tenure as planning director for the City of Los Angeles from to This collection contains one postcard written by D.

Donald Bengtsson Hamilton created the Matt Helm series of detective novels, wrote western novels and other books, and contributed articles on hunting, yachting, and photography to magazines. The collection consists of Hamilton's correspondence, articles, various editions of his books, William Menard. Manuscript reminiscences of Ezra M.

Hamilton, with index and typescript of pages and Holograph letter written on behalf of and signed by Hamilton Fish on official stationery of Department of State, Washington, [D. Walker about receiving Walker's note of the 20th and in compliance with his request, Photographs of San Francisco scenes and subjects, ; photos of actors and actresses; photos of individuals. Collection includes reports, speeches, memos, newsclippings, photographs and books related to the history of the Electro-Motive Division of the General Motors Corporation and the history of the Diesel locomotive on the occasion of its 25th Anniversary.

Correspondence, reports, bulletins, and photographs relating to social conditions in Poland and the Soviet Union and to American Friends Service Committee relief work. This includes his daily work as a police officer, and his engagement with significant moments in late 20th century Louis, Missouri, who held various administrative roles in the union and advocated for rank-and-file reform. It includes Correspondence, clippings, photographs, sound recordings, and motion picture film, relating to the activities of Inter-America House in providing entertainment for American and Allied junior officers during World War II. This collection chiefly contains sermons written by California Presbyterian minister Laurentine Hamilton between and , as well as some ephemera.

Correspondence of members of Hamilton family to Mrs. Hamilton's brother, Joseph Delliber, in Hartford, Connecticut Printed by the artist's son, Edward Hamilton. Reports, memoranda, correspondence, lectures, press releases, and printed matter, relating to American foreign policy toward China, Japan, and other government officials concerning economic and political conditions in Japan and Manchuria, Poems written by G. Hamilton, M. Music and photographs, , of singer Rae Hamilton. The bar was located at Santa Monica Boulevard, Hollywood, California, and was operated by lesbian women, Tess and Contains certificate of incorporation dated February 29, , deeds, mortgages, property descriptions ,etc. The collection consists of correspondence between British diplomat and archaeologist Sir William Hamilton and his nephew Charles Francis Greville Volume 1, p.

January 1, to March about the life of a miner in California including discussing his illnesses, "Mexican dysentery;" violent crimes Also correspondence and witness report forms about earthquakes occurring in Southern California A collection of papers, personal and professional, belonging to Ralph Cunningham Hamlin - , who was a pioneer Los Angeles automobile dealer and racing enthusiast. Also covers his early years racing on bicycle. Photographs relating to Ralph Cunningham Hamlin - : his personal and family life; bicycling; motorcycling; and automobile racing activities; auto road and endurance trips; business matters and associates including early auto shows ; and the Franklin automobile dealerships. The materials consists of letters, 13 essays, radio scripts, 1 book of poems, 66 photographs, 20 negatives, and approximately 89 pieces of various printed and manuscript ephemeral materials pertaining to the Hamm and McMahon families, all dated from Estate records of Henry Hammel and Andrew H.

Includes a grant deed, letters, invoices, receipts, ledgers and canceled checks. Hammer and Coffin Society Records, , document the development of the society from a humor society to a national student organization. The materials are arranged in nine series by type of document and include correspondence, minutes, reports, records, scrapbooks, photographs, Armand Hammer was an American petroleum executive, entrepreneur, and art collector. He ran Occidental Petroleum from until his death, though he was well-known for his art collection, his philanthropy, and for his close ties to the Soviet Union Wight Art Gallery Wight Gallery.

Included are materials documenting exhibitions held at the Armand Postal card photographs, ca. Spanish-American War views of soldiers in camp training, the U. Army and civilian population in the Philippines, plus general views of California and Japan. Correspondence, photographs, and other material collected by Hammer, much of it during his career as a rare book and manuscripts dealer in Santa Barbara. Garfield, Oliver Wendell Holmes, J. This collection documents the two-term administration of Susan Hammer, who served as Mayor of San Jose between the years and The collection consists of administrative files, press and publicity, awards, photographs, videotapes, correspondence, and other memorabilia collected primarily A set of sketchbooks, notebooks, lithographs, notes, and working materials by California hard-edge abstract painter, Frederick Hammersley.

This scrapbook was compiled by San Diego resident G. Hamilton Hammon. Hammon, who was an artist and poet, included fair copies of original manuscript poems, as well as striking handpainted vignettes of San Diego scenes. Several photographs are also present Business papers of three generations of the Hammon family, focusing primarily on the activities of Wendell P. Philucius Hammon, , and his son, Wendell C. Cooper Hammon, A grandson, Wendell Hammon, , was custodian of the family papers Correspondence, reports, contracts, shipping lists, specifications for dredging equipment, annotated maps, and photographs, relating to mining operations in China, Siberia, Korea, Malaya, and Poland.

Photograph album depicting family and friends, interiors, Atlantic City, N. A handwritten letter by Earl C. Hammond, Jr. Contains papers relating to George E. Hammond's career with the Pullman Company [Richmond, California] shops. Documents and fragments, mostly from Warwick County, England. Most relate to legal actions concerning financial matters. Includes judgement in the case of the estate of Captain John Mathews, ; and court documents signed by Richard Whitaker, , and by Richard The George P. Hammond Papers document the life and career of a Southwestern U. Diaries, photographs, printed matter, and miscellany relating to American military operations in Hawaii, Siberia during the Russian Revolution and in the Philippines. Includes a section of photographs illustrating the history of aviation. The collection documents the civic activities of Sacramento City Councilwoman Lauren Hammond, with a small amount of personal items and awards from her office.

Material dates from to , with the bulk from to Relates to Portuguese colonialism in Africa. Includes notes. Published by Stanford University Press. This collection contains the papers of home economics teacher Ruth Gill Hammond , who taught in China, Thailand, and the United States. The bulk of the papers consists of correspondence to and from Hammond. Subject matter of the correspondence covers Includes images of Senior class activities not Stanford??

Most of the over photographs were taken by Wes Hammond and used in the publication The Carrier, the company magazine of the FMC corporation. The rest were taken by Verna Mae Leggate who was the editor of the magazine Hammond-Chambers served on the H. Royal Arthur, H. Plyades, H. Blake, and H. Duke of Wellington in the region of Australia and New Zealand in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. He kept these logbooks, dated This collection contains newspapers and other material regarding the early history of the Inland Empire, specifically Moreno Valley, California collected by Viola F. Hamner, a local resident and author of. A transnational collection of 18th century material pertaining to three generations of a British Naval family; includes letters, manuscripts, journals, ship's logs, letter books, ship's papers, maps, volumes and ephemera.

Printed program, ca. Writings, correspondence, and printed matter, relating to Ukrainian and Soviet history, and especially to the Russian Revolution in Ukraine. The collection consists of 24 histories of academies in China published between , a printed text of the , a set of original woodblocks for the , imperial Collection includes correspondence, publications of nonsmokers' rights groups, press clippings, campaign literature, legal briefs, and audio cassette tapes County records, with a few private account books. Names of prominent Mormons and Anti-Mormons recur. Also includes photographs and a listing Contains articles of incorporation, bylaws, minutes of the founding meeting, general correspondence, treasurer's reports, minutes of board and general membership meetings, and newsletters. Also includes committee files, including newsletter, nominating, program, exhibition, and membership, as well as publicity files and Herrick, and Barbara F.

Information about their careers as bookbinders and book restorers and about their teachers, particularly Belle McMurtry Young and Edna Peter Fahey; opinions about bookbinding Some water damage to covers; front hinge broken; shaken; contents clean. Photo album containing 26 2 detached hand-colored photographs 3? The 75 items in this collection consist of insurance policies, correspondence, receipts and other business and legal papers relating to the Hands Loan Co.

One [Form O 19] is for service as a freight handler, dated September 17, , with annotations Correspondence, photographs, a journal, and incomplete manuscripts and typescripts of theatrical works by aspiring playwright Randall Clay Haney born Correspondence and printed matter, relating to activities of the American Protective League, a private patriotic organization concerned with subversive activities in the United States during World War I. The Hanft Photograph collection contains black and white negatives of United States railroad photographs. These photos were taken by Hanft and other photographers. One letter ALS to Miss [?] Santa Fe, 8 Sept. Lewis Ulysses Hanke b. Relates to the confiscation of Japanese properties by the Chinese Nationalist government, and to the administration of Hankou under the Kuomintang during the Chinese Nationalist government. The V. Hanks Jr. Photograph Collection contains photographs and papers created by professional San Francisco photographer V.

Hanks Jr from the s until the late s. The photographs include both negatives and photographic prints created by Hanks beginning Autographed prompt books for the farce Bamboozing and for the melodrama The bear hunters, once the property of actor Joseph Hanley. Letters, pamphlets and unpublished manuscripts collected by Dr. Hanley to support his doctoral research on the Inter-American Defense Board. Includes letters with former Board chiefs and others connected with the Board Chester was born in March in Pennsylvania, where he lived until he moved to California to work as a brakeman for Ralph W. Hanlon was born on July 31, in Springfield, MA. He joined the U. The collection is composed of G. Dallas Hanna's correspondence, photographs, and research papers. There is a significant amount of materials pertaining to Hanna's work in Alaska with a some focus on the Alaska earthquake. Other focus areas include malacology, Correspondence, blueprints, drawings, photographs, and other records relating to the planning, design and construction of the campus home of Professor and Mrs.

Paul R. This collection contains documents pertaining to the reconstruction of Hanna House following the earthquake. Relates to the attitude of the British government toward the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine in Correspondence, speeches and writings, memoranda, reports, printed matter, and photographs of the American educator and director of the Stanford International Development Education Center from Materials relate to education in the United States, the Philippines, and developing countries in general. Includes correspondence and notes concerning Stanford and the School of Education, Stanford Research Institute, the Jacks family fund, and other related issues. He also wrote many books. The collection consists of He served through when he was elected to the United States House of Representatives.

Speeches and writings, correspondence, memoranda, printed matter, and photographs, relating to the political career of Ronald Reagan as governor of California and as presidential candidate in and Includes drafts of the book by Peter Hannaford, New York, , Two holograph poems on one leaf, "Search after Happiness" and "Solitude," Aug. Gift of Pearl Chase. One letter ALS from English religious writer and philanthropist Hannah More or Moore to a Miss Leevess, 17 February, re health, religious and other personal matters; also one engraving, a portrait of Moore, n.

Contains appointment and correspondence books from the law office of J. Hannah and E. Miller in Visalia, California. Also contains small amount of later family correspondence and property records. Lester Hannibal was considered one of the foremost plant breeders in the country. The collection contains correspondence, articles, catalogs, notes, photographs, reports, and slides. The Thomas M. Hannigan Papers consist of Hannon was owner or co-owner of lesbian- and gay-friendly bars and nightclubs in California beginning in the s. Hannon was also an accomplished drummer Glass negatives, in 8x10, 5x7, and odd sizes. Primarily of actors and actresses employed by the Mack Sennett Comedies Co. Collected by Hanover College Library. Reports and agreements, relating to relief work and communist influence in the Border Region of China.

The Hans Arons collection is comprised of photographs depicting his life and activities in the Jewish ghetto in Shanghai, China from , as well his refugee and identification documents from Shanghai. Submissions for the Hans Christian Anderson award, including biographies, bibliographies, reviews, and samples of each author's or illustrator's work. Also includes some original manuscripts and one cassette tape of Maria Elena Walsh singing her own poems, which was submitted This collection comprises correspondence to Dr.

Hans Esberg from Max Cohn about his experiences surviving refugee camps and concentration camp. Also included is a letter written to Dr. Esberg by the wife of a GI dated May 5, Selected items from accounts, legal papers, etc. Buhne and D. Tape 1: Lewy interviewed by Bill Wolf, ; tapes honorary doctorate ceremony, Bonn, ; tapes Hans Lewy memorial service, November 4, This collection contains one manuscript, 19 letters, and 30 pieces of ephemera related to Thomas H. Hansbrow of Sacramento, California. Most of the correspondence and ephemera relates to the various pumps Hansbrow designed for mining, steamers, agriculture and railroads This collection contains article reprints, correspondence with colleagues at universities and pharmaceutical laboratories, slides of computer-generated molecular models, grant proposals, and awards.

Collection contains manuscript notebooks of student attending lectures at Bowdoin College's Medical School of Maine, Four notebooks: Surgery v. Edgar Ivory Hanscom was born in in The Hanscom photograph collection, circa , bulk , SAFR , Pa is mainly comprised of photographs of Union Iron Works, San Francisco, California, showing shipyard activities, vessels, and stationary engines. The collection has been processed to the File Unit level The William Wallace Hanscom papers [SAFR], [HDC] consists largely of scrapbooks and notebooks, but also includes some trade catalogs and oversize naval architecture and marine engineering plans. The research strength is largely in the area of technical aspects Hansen was a district commander at one point, and also was active in the local unit. During this period he worked with youth in the Tenderloin, including many young gay, This collection This collection is composed primarily of research files compiled for Hansen's study of federal-state relations in the Central Valley, which resulted in his dissertation, The Central Valley Project: Federal or State?

Speeches and writings, correspondence, notes, minutes, reports, internal bulletins, resolutions, theses, printed matter, sound recording, and photographs relating to Leon Trotsky, activities of the Socialist Workers Party in the United States, and activities of the Fourth International in Latin America, This collection contains the papers of Los Angeles writer and gay activist Joseph Hansen , known primarily for creating the Dave Brandstetter detective series, which was unique in featuring an openly gay detective as the title character.

The papers include Speeches and writings, correspondence, memoranda, reports, studies, and printed matter related to the economic development of developing countries, technology transfer to developing countries, and American trade with and investment in developing countries. Some materials relate to American foreign trade and This collection contains reports, financial documents, correspondence, and publications of Kirby Walter Hansen. Petition for membership by Pullman Company employee Lloyd A.

Hansen in the Order of Railway Conductors, announcement regarding movement of National Guard units, and a letter from Mr. Hansen regarding an incident involving the presence of a woman in a Typescript reminiscences of Hansen's life and family genealogy, ; reviewed and revised Slides take on campus and during Stanford University Libraries staff events, Hansen's professional and research papers include correspondence, manuscripts, research notebooks, lecture notes, unpublished studies and notes on various experiments and scientific developments such as radar, the rhumbatron, the klystron, radiation and microwave mechanics.

Also included are Hansen's account of the This collection consists primarily of W. Hansen's correspondence with professional colleagues , Boxes , although some letters of a more personal nature are also included. These letters were in no particular order when acquired by the Archives. They have The A. Hanson papers span 8 linear feet and date from circa to circa The diaries of William Hanson describe his life as a rancher in Yuba County from , then moving to Willows, California until his death in It includes recollections of Honorable D.

Hanson crossing the Plains in , written The papers include teaching materials, papers, administrative files, as well as personal and professional correspondence Diary, correspondence, orders, identification documents, clippings, printed matter, and photographs, relating primarily to Allied military operations in France during World War II up to the evacuation from Dunkerque. Relates to political conditions in Germany during World War I, Originally published as Fra Krigstiden Copenhagen, Lutz, Mary Schofield, and O. Winther; published in Bloomington by Indiana University Correspondence, writings, notes, and printed matter relating to political and social conditions in China during the s, the Communist movement in China in the s, and the Sino-Japanese War. Includes correspondence, drafts, printed versions of San Francisco : Dept.

Public Health, , ed. The majority of the collection includes annual conference and related conference materials consisting of programs, schedules, committee meeting notes, correspondence, presentation papers, announcements, budget proposals, Includes biographical data and photographs. This collection contains materials relating to the history of Happy Valley School and it's surrounding community. Personal and professional papers. Rockefeller Foundation workbooks, photos, correspondence, lab notebooks, record cards of diseases and experiments, articles, pamphlets, and reprints. He was an assistant clinical professor of physiological chemistry , associate professor of physiological chemistry and nuclear medicine and professor of biological chemistry in the UCLA This collection consists of the personal and professional papers of feminist, suffragist, author and lecturer Elizabeth Boynton Harbert and her family.

John S. Harbison was one of the first beekeepers to import bees into California and was an inventor of innovative beehives and new methods of rearing queen bees. He authored and His papers contain daybooks documenting Harbison's This record group contains This collection comprises agendas, fundraising materials, and ephemera documenting the activities of the Harbor Day School Board of Trustees from to The Fred Harclerod Papers are a collection of documents created and received by Harclerod slightly prior to, during, and after his time as President of the University. The collection consists almost primarily of personal photographs, with some documents such as letters and legal documents. Papers of Nicholas Hardeman, professor and academic senator at Long Beach State relating to various faculty and administration controversies. Harden and his son, William Harden, ca. This collection documents the life of Helen Harder nee Eleanor F.

She later worked in a variety of fields including private Hardgrove's papers include correspondence, student papers, published and unpublished manuscripts, photographs, slides, audio and video tapes and secondary materials on her subjects of interest Appointing and directing Folsom and Charles Meyer to take charge of affairs and property of W. Leidesdorff in the event the latter's illness should prove fatal. A collection of papers and photographs collected by John L. Hardie, a former UC Davis alumnus and campus administrator. Material includes correspondence with other campus officials including Edwin C.

Voorhies and Larry N. Vanderhoef; campus historic publications, recollections from Voorhies

Arthur Clement Hilton | Penny's poetry pages Wiki | Fandom

Benny deals with the aftermath of losing Beth Harmon. Get it by Fri, Aug 7 - Mon, Aug Arthur Hilliard charged with murder in death of Diamond Book is new and unread but may have minor shelf wear. B- A Vulture is a rapacious and obscene bird, which destroys its prey by plucking it limb from limb with its powerful beak and talons. The arnet Price Database has records of two auction sales of Clements sculptures, similar tubular steel works that sold for 25, and 15, in and. Mary, Sandwich, and was ordained priest in Very good.

The poem is written by Arthur Clement Hilton. Edgcumbe on. Analysis of Arthur Clement Hilton's poems - description of poetic forms and elements. Arthur Clement Hilton Poems. Octopus- Arthur Clement Hilton Octopus Strange beauty, eight-limbed and eight-handed, Whence camest to dazzle our eyes? Mathematics Arthur Clement Hilton Poems. Poem Mathematics by Arthur Clement Hilton. Poem The Heathen Pass. Arthur Hilton. The Works of Arthur Clement Hilton. Poem Octopus by Arthur Clement Hilton. Arthur Clement. A Clement papersBook, Poema de Arthur Clement Hilton. Arthur 'A' Clement. Arthur Clement Hilton. The Queen's Gambit TV. Arthur Hilliard charged with murder in death of Diamond. Works together with his life and letters by Sir Robert P. The Vulture and the Husbandman. Reports, memoranda, correspondence, lectures, press releases, and printed matter, relating to American foreign policy toward China, Japan, and other government officials concerning economic and political conditions in Japan and Manchuria, Poems written by G.

Hamilton, M. Music and photographs, , of singer Rae Hamilton. The bar was located at Santa Monica Boulevard, Hollywood, California, and was operated by lesbian women, Tess and Contains certificate of incorporation dated February 29, , deeds, mortgages, property descriptions ,etc. The collection consists of correspondence between British diplomat and archaeologist Sir William Hamilton and his nephew Charles Francis Greville Volume 1, p. January 1, to March about the life of a miner in California including discussing his illnesses, "Mexican dysentery;" violent crimes Also correspondence and witness report forms about earthquakes occurring in Southern California A collection of papers, personal and professional, belonging to Ralph Cunningham Hamlin - , who was a pioneer Los Angeles automobile dealer and racing enthusiast.

Also covers his early years racing on bicycle. Photographs relating to Ralph Cunningham Hamlin - : his personal and family life; bicycling; motorcycling; and automobile racing activities; auto road and endurance trips; business matters and associates including early auto shows ; and the Franklin automobile dealerships. The materials consists of letters, 13 essays, radio scripts, 1 book of poems, 66 photographs, 20 negatives, and approximately 89 pieces of various printed and manuscript ephemeral materials pertaining to the Hamm and McMahon families, all dated from Estate records of Henry Hammel and Andrew H.

Includes a grant deed, letters, invoices, receipts, ledgers and canceled checks. Hammer and Coffin Society Records, , document the development of the society from a humor society to a national student organization. The materials are arranged in nine series by type of document and include correspondence, minutes, reports, records, scrapbooks, photographs, Armand Hammer was an American petroleum executive, entrepreneur, and art collector. He ran Occidental Petroleum from until his death, though he was well-known for his art collection, his philanthropy, and for his close ties to the Soviet Union Wight Art Gallery Wight Gallery. Included are materials documenting exhibitions held at the Armand Postal card photographs, ca. Spanish-American War views of soldiers in camp training, the U.

Army and civilian population in the Philippines, plus general views of California and Japan. Correspondence, photographs, and other material collected by Hammer, much of it during his career as a rare book and manuscripts dealer in Santa Barbara. Garfield, Oliver Wendell Holmes, J. This collection documents the two-term administration of Susan Hammer, who served as Mayor of San Jose between the years and The collection consists of administrative files, press and publicity, awards, photographs, videotapes, correspondence, and other memorabilia collected primarily A set of sketchbooks, notebooks, lithographs, notes, and working materials by California hard-edge abstract painter, Frederick Hammersley. This scrapbook was compiled by San Diego resident G. Hamilton Hammon. Hammon, who was an artist and poet, included fair copies of original manuscript poems, as well as striking handpainted vignettes of San Diego scenes. Several photographs are also present Business papers of three generations of the Hammon family, focusing primarily on the activities of Wendell P.

Philucius Hammon, , and his son, Wendell C. Cooper Hammon, A grandson, Wendell Hammon, , was custodian of the family papers Correspondence, reports, contracts, shipping lists, specifications for dredging equipment, annotated maps, and photographs, relating to mining operations in China, Siberia, Korea, Malaya, and Poland. Photograph album depicting family and friends, interiors, Atlantic City, N. A handwritten letter by Earl C. Hammond, Jr. Contains papers relating to George E. Hammond's career with the Pullman Company [Richmond, California] shops. Documents and fragments, mostly from Warwick County, England.

Most relate to legal actions concerning financial matters. Includes judgement in the case of the estate of Captain John Mathews, ; and court documents signed by Richard Whitaker, , and by Richard The George P. Hammond Papers document the life and career of a Southwestern U. Diaries, photographs, printed matter, and miscellany relating to American military operations in Hawaii, Siberia during the Russian Revolution and in the Philippines. Includes a section of photographs illustrating the history of aviation. The collection documents the civic activities of Sacramento City Councilwoman Lauren Hammond, with a small amount of personal items and awards from her office.

Material dates from to , with the bulk from to Relates to Portuguese colonialism in Africa. Includes notes. Published by Stanford University Press. This collection contains the papers of home economics teacher Ruth Gill Hammond , who taught in China, Thailand, and the United States. The bulk of the papers consists of correspondence to and from Hammond. Subject matter of the correspondence covers Includes images of Senior class activities not Stanford??

Most of the over photographs were taken by Wes Hammond and used in the publication The Carrier, the company magazine of the FMC corporation. The rest were taken by Verna Mae Leggate who was the editor of the magazine Hammond-Chambers served on the H. Royal Arthur, H. Plyades, H. Blake, and H. Duke of Wellington in the region of Australia and New Zealand in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. He kept these logbooks, dated This collection contains newspapers and other material regarding the early history of the Inland Empire, specifically Moreno Valley, California collected by Viola F. Hamner, a local resident and author of. A transnational collection of 18th century material pertaining to three generations of a British Naval family; includes letters, manuscripts, journals, ship's logs, letter books, ship's papers, maps, volumes and ephemera.

Printed program, ca. Writings, correspondence, and printed matter, relating to Ukrainian and Soviet history, and especially to the Russian Revolution in Ukraine. The collection consists of 24 histories of academies in China published between , a printed text of the , a set of original woodblocks for the , imperial Collection includes correspondence, publications of nonsmokers' rights groups, press clippings, campaign literature, legal briefs, and audio cassette tapes County records, with a few private account books. Names of prominent Mormons and Anti-Mormons recur.

Also includes photographs and a listing Contains articles of incorporation, bylaws, minutes of the founding meeting, general correspondence, treasurer's reports, minutes of board and general membership meetings, and newsletters. Also includes committee files, including newsletter, nominating, program, exhibition, and membership, as well as publicity files and Herrick, and Barbara F. Information about their careers as bookbinders and book restorers and about their teachers, particularly Belle McMurtry Young and Edna Peter Fahey; opinions about bookbinding Some water damage to covers; front hinge broken; shaken; contents clean. Photo album containing 26 2 detached hand-colored photographs 3?

The 75 items in this collection consist of insurance policies, correspondence, receipts and other business and legal papers relating to the Hands Loan Co. One [Form O 19] is for service as a freight handler, dated September 17, , with annotations Correspondence, photographs, a journal, and incomplete manuscripts and typescripts of theatrical works by aspiring playwright Randall Clay Haney born Correspondence and printed matter, relating to activities of the American Protective League, a private patriotic organization concerned with subversive activities in the United States during World War I.

The Hanft Photograph collection contains black and white negatives of United States railroad photographs. These photos were taken by Hanft and other photographers. One letter ALS to Miss [? Santa Fe, 8 Sept. Lewis Ulysses Hanke b. Relates to the confiscation of Japanese properties by the Chinese Nationalist government, and to the administration of Hankou under the Kuomintang during the Chinese Nationalist government. The V. Hanks Jr. Photograph Collection contains photographs and papers created by professional San Francisco photographer V.

Hanks Jr from the s until the late s. The photographs include both negatives and photographic prints created by Hanks beginning Autographed prompt books for the farce Bamboozling and for the melodrama The bear hunters, once the property of actor Joseph Hanley. Letters, pamphlets and unpublished manuscripts collected by Dr. Hanley to support his doctoral research on the Inter-American Defense Board. Includes letters with former Board chiefs and others connected with the Board. Chester was born in March in Pennsylvania, where he lived until he moved to California to work as a brakeman for Ralph W. Hanlon was born on July 31, in Springfield, MA. He joined the U. The collection is composed of G. Dallas Hanna's correspondence, photographs, and research papers.

There is a significant amount of materials pertaining to Hanna's work in Alaska with a some focus on the Alaska earthquake. Other focus areas include malacology, Correspondence, blueprints, drawings, photographs, and other records relating to the planning, design and construction of the campus home of Professor and Mrs. Paul R. This collection contains documents pertaining to the reconstruction of Hanna House following the earthquake. Relates to the attitude of the British government toward the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine in Correspondence, speeches and writings, memoranda, reports, printed matter, and photographs of the American educator and director of the Stanford International Development Education Center from Materials relate to education in the United States, the Philippines, and developing countries in general.

Includes correspondence and notes concerning Stanford and the School of Education, Stanford Research Institute, the Jacks family fund, and other related issues. He also wrote many books. The collection consists of He served through when he was elected to the United States House of Representatives. Speeches and writings, correspondence, memoranda, printed matter, and photographs, relating to the political career of Ronald Reagan as governor of California and as presidential candidate in and Includes drafts of the book by Peter Hannaford, New York, , Two holograph poems on one leaf, "Search after Happiness" and "Solitude," Aug. Gift of Pearl Chase. One letter ALS from English religious writer and philanthropist Hannah More or Moore to a Miss Leeves, 17 February, re health, religious and other personal matters; also one engraving, a portrait of Moore, n. Contains appointment and correspondence books from the law office of J. Hannah and E. Miller in Visalia, California.

Also contains small amount of later family correspondence and property records. Lester Hannibal was considered one of the foremost plant breeders in the country. The collection contains correspondence, articles, catalogs, notes, photographs, reports, and slides. The Thomas M. Hannigan Papers consist of Hannon was owner or co-owner of lesbian- and gay-friendly bars and nightclubs in California beginning in the s. Hannon was also an accomplished drummer Glass negatives, in 8x10, 5x7, and odd sizes. Primarily of actors and actresses employed by the Mack Sennett Comedies Co. Collected by Hanover College Library. Reports and agreements, relating to relief work and communist influence in the Border Region of China.

The Hans Arons collection is comprised of photographs depicting his life and activities in the Jewish ghetto in Shanghai, China from , as well his refugee and identification documents from Shanghai. Submissions for the Hans Christian Anderson award, including biographies, bibliographies, reviews, and samples of each author's or illustrator's work. Also includes some original manuscripts and one cassette tape of Maria Elena Walsh singing her own poems, which was submitted This collection comprises correspondence to Dr.

Hans Esberg from Max Cohn about his experiences surviving refugee camps and concentration camp. Also included is a letter written to Dr. Esberg by the wife of a GI dated May 5, Selected items from accounts, legal papers, etc. Buhne and D. Tape 1: Lewy interviewed by Bill Wolf, ; tapes honorary doctorate ceremony, Bonn, ; tapes Hans Lewy memorial service, November 4, This collection contains one manuscript, 19 letters, and 30 pieces of ephemera related to Thomas H. Hansbrow of Sacramento, California. Most of the correspondence and ephemera relates to the various pumps Hansbrow designed for mining, steamers, agriculture and railroads This collection contains article reprints, correspondence with colleagues at universities and pharmaceutical laboratories, slides of computer-generated molecular models, grant proposals, and awards.

Collection contains manuscript notebooks of student attending lectures at Bowdoin College's Medical School of Maine, Four notebooks: Surgery v. Edgar Ivory Hanscom was born in in The Hanscom photograph collection, circa , bulk , SAFR , Pa is mainly comprised of photographs of Union Iron Works, San Francisco, California, showing shipyard activities, vessels, and stationary engines.

The collection has been processed to the File Unit level The William Wallace Hanscom papers [SAFR], [HDC] consists largely of scrapbooks and notebooks, but also includes some trade catalogs and oversize naval architecture and marine engineering plans. The research strength is largely in the area of technical aspects Hansen was a district commander at one point, and also was active in the local unit. During this period he worked with youth in the Tenderloin, including many young gay, This collection This collection is composed primarily of research files compiled for Hansen's study of federal-state relations in the Central Valley, which resulted in his dissertation, The Central Valley Project: Federal or State? Speeches and writings, correspondence, notes, minutes, reports, internal bulletins, resolutions, theses, printed matter, sound recording, and photographs relating to Leon Trotsky, activities of the Socialist Workers Party in the United States, and activities of the Fourth International in Latin America, This collection contains the papers of Los Angeles writer and gay activist Joseph Hansen , known primarily for creating the Dave Brandstetter detective series, which was unique in featuring an openly gay detective as the title character.

The papers include Speeches and writings, correspondence, memoranda, reports, studies, and printed matter related to the economic development of developing countries, technology transfer to developing countries, and American trade with and investment in developing countries. Some materials relate to American foreign trade and This collection contains reports, financial documents, correspondence, and publications of Kirby Walter Hansen.

Petition for membership by Pullman Company employee Lloyd A. Hansen in the Order of Railway Conductors, announcement regarding movement of National Guard units, and a letter from Mr. Hansen regarding an incident involving the presence of a woman in a Typescript reminiscences of Hansen's life and family genealogy, ; reviewed and revised Slides take on campus and during Stanford University Libraries staff events, Hansen's professional and research papers include correspondence, manuscripts, research notebooks, lecture notes, unpublished studies and notes on various experiments and scientific developments such as radar, the rhumbatron, the klystron, radiation and microwave mechanics.

Also included are Hansen's account of the This collection consists primarily of W. Hansen's correspondence with professional colleagues , Boxes , although some letters of a more personal nature are also included. These letters were in no particular order when acquired by the Archives. They have The A. Hanson papers span 8 linear feet and date from circa to circa The diaries of William Hanson describe his life as a rancher in Yuba County from , then moving to Willows, California until his death in It includes recollections of Honorable D.

Hanson crossing the Plains in , written The papers include teaching materials, papers, administrative files, as well as personal and professional correspondence Diary, correspondence, orders, identification documents, clippings, printed matter, and photographs, relating primarily to Allied military operations in France during World War II up to the evacuation from Dunkerque. Relates to political conditions in Germany during World War I, Originally published as Fra Krigstiden Copenhagen, Lutz, Mary Schofield, and O. Winther; published in Bloomington by Indiana University Correspondence, writings, notes, and printed matter relating to political and social conditions in China during the s, the Communist movement in China in the s, and the Sino-Japanese War. Includes correspondence, drafts, printed versions of San Francisco : Dept. Public Health, , ed. The majority of the collection includes annual conference and related conference materials consisting of programs, schedules, committee meeting notes, correspondence, presentation papers, announcements, budget proposals, Includes biographical data and photographs.

This collection contains materials relating to the history of Happy Valley School and it's surrounding community. Personal and professional papers. Rockefeller Foundation workbooks, photos, correspondence, lab notebooks, record cards of diseases and experiments, articles, pamphlets, and reprints. He was an assistant clinical professor of physiological chemistry , associate professor of physiological chemistry and nuclear medicine and professor of biological chemistry in the UCLA This collection consists of the personal and professional papers of feminist, suffragist, author and lecturer Elizabeth Boynton Harbert and her family.

John S. Harbison was one of the first beekeepers to import bees into California and was an inventor of innovative beehives and new methods of rearing queen bees. He authored and His papers contain daybooks documenting Harbison's This record group contains This collection comprises agendas, fundraising materials, and ephemera documenting the activities of the Harbor Day School Board of Trustees from to The Fred Harclerod Papers are a collection of documents created and received by Harclerod slightly prior to, during, and after his time as President of the University. The collection consists almost primarily of personal photographs, with some documents such as letters and legal documents.

Papers of Nicholas Hardeman, professor and academic senator at Long Beach State relating to various faculty and administration controversies. Harden and his son, William Harden, ca. This collection documents the life of Helen Harder nee Eleanor F. She later worked in a variety of fields including private Hardgrove's papers include correspondence, student papers, published and unpublished manuscripts, photographs, slides, audio and video tapes and secondary materials on her subjects of interest Appointing and directing Folsom and Charles Meyer to take charge of affairs and property of W. Leidesdorff in the event the latter's illness should prove fatal. A collection of papers and photographs collected by John L. Hardie, a former UC Davis alumnus and campus administrator. Material includes correspondence with other campus officials including Edwin C.

Voorhies and Larry N. Vanderhoef; campus historic publications, recollections from Voorhies He wrote many books, including , , and a three-volume history Charles M. The collection contains correspondence related to research, published and unpublished, dealing with the U. Constitution and constitutional reform politics. Also included are general The collection contains background material, audiotapes, and transcripts of interviews conducted by David E.

Russell, with Garrett Hardin, in Includes biographic and bibliographic information, correspondence, extensive subject files used in his writing, UCSB teaching files, drafts of articles and manuscripts, and photographs. Highlights include files related to his Summary: Two diaries, one depicting Hardin's journey to California by way of New Orleans and Mexico in , the other is for the year Small collection of personal papers of author George Laban Harding, primarily comprising family photographs, portraits, and Boy Scouts of America ephemera. The collection consists of correspondence; technical reports on various aspects of irrigation; reports and surveys of specific irrigation projects throughout California, and in Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, and North Dakota; and miscellaneous material relating to water costs and requirements, water The Donald L.

Hardison Collection spans the years , and includes files created by Hardison and his firms. This collection documents the political and professional life of activist Paul D. Letters to F. Hardt from various Italian correspondents, relating to political events and public opinion in Italy during the period of its neutrality in World War I. The material includes a combination of documents, cartoons, artwork, magazines and photographs. Most of the photographs are unlabeled and unattributed. The material was collected during Mr. Hardy's military service and covers the period from the early s until his retirement The collection consists of correspondence, office files, and other records from Dr. Consists of a selection of George Hardy's papers, including personal files, correspondence, clippings, materials relating to the George Scalise case of the s, a biography titled "So Much to be Done: George Hardy's Life in Organized Labor," and an oversized This collection offers visual images of the career of George Hardy.

It includes many union activities such as conventions and strikes. George Hardy is the central figure in most images This collection contains documents, manuscripts, correspondence, and ephemera assembled by author and collector Grahame H. Hardy reflecting a range of legal, administrative, municipal, and real estate-related transactions initiated by railroad and mining interests, businessmen, and municipalities in the San Francisco These papers include two letters to David Starr Jordan, ; manuscript, typescript and published versions of Hardy? A Pioneer Childhood and Afterwards? The Rex Hardy photographs span the years and encompass 2 linear feet. The collection consists of 1, 35mm nitrate negatives taken by Hardy on assignment for Life magazine in and Only a small percentage of the This collection contains manuscripts, programs, photographs, publications, and other materials pertaining to Thomas Hardy, English novelist and poet, and the Hardy Players, a group of performers.

Included are manuscripts with programs and related material, photographs and sketches of individuals and This is a collection of manuscripts by Captain W. Hardy regarding his life and experiences in Arizona from Some were printed in the newspaper between and These are typed manuscripts and copies, all of which are Major subjects depicted are agricultural activities, immigrant laborers of various ethnic groups, the Chinese fishing village in Monterey, domestic and historic architecture including missions and adobes of Spanish The Chauncey Hare photograph archive comprises photographic documentation of ordinary people in their homes and in the work environment, as well as urban and rural landscapes in California and various areas in the United States.

Areas of concentration are the This collection contains correspondence and records relating to Sgt. William S. This collection primarily consists of military records and photographs belonging to Daniel D. This collection consists of entirely music scores. They are ozalid reproductions of his manuscripts of two compositions: , and Overture for Orchestra with orchestral parts for both Sherman Oaks, California, 13 March The George H. Many of the photographs were published in George H. Harlan's book "San Francisco This collection houses a variety of government documents, papers, photographs, business records, scrapbooks, ephemera, and other pertinent information regarding a variety of topics related to the political career of Harlan Hagen. Letters to Alfred E. Tilton, deeds, and abstracts of title, mainly for land in Mosquito District, Park Co. Collection contains slides of Stanford football, including the Rose Bowl of , and Stanford swimmers; and photographs of Memorial Church, Lake Lagunita, Quad images, sports, and portraits of female students, some of which were used in the QUAD.

Includes letters from Charles F. Aked, William F. Cheney, Albert H. Elliot, Thomas E. Hayden, William S. Morgan, Thomas H. Reed, Anna Scott, J. Reports, clippings and mimeographed material concerning the University of California loyalty oath controversy. Correspondence, prison records, receipts, legal records, notes, clippings, editorial drafts, and manuscripts of Donald Harley, The materials primarily document Harley's trial and prison sentence, but also include materials related to his personal life and activism. Bryce N. Harlow served as Assistant to the President and Counselor to the President. The materials cover the period from November to January when Mr. This autobiography details his life as public relations executive and consultant as well as salesman, business executive, educator, researcher, lecturer, and author. Several chapters deal with his teaching career at Stanford and the Stanford Public Relations Institute.

The collection also Correspondence between Muir Dawson, Harold Smith, and Roger Levenson, and other documents regarding the development, manufacture and sale of the Har-ma printing press. The Bob Harman drawings span the years and encompass 6. The collection contains more than drawings, about half in pencil and half in pen and ink. Those that are dated fall between and The Tom Harman Papers consist of 7 cubic feet of physical and digital records reflecting the interests and political activities of Photos collected by western artist Harmer, mostly of Southwest Indians, but also of the U. Army, Mexico, and Dakota Indians.

This collection consists of 5 postcards primarily of scenes along the San Francisco Calif. This collection is comprised of material that documents the military career and personal life of Arthur C. It contains The papers include legal documents, correspondence, newsclippings, maps, reports, subject files, and theater and movie programs from Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and New York. The documents James and Edie Harmon's grassroots environmental work in opposition to numerous landfills, mines, and waste projects in the late s and s. The collection dates from to , and includes environmental impact reports, correspondences, newspaper clippings, litigation John B. Harmon practiced law in Sacramento and Virginia City, Nevada. In , he moved to San Francisco where he was associated with P. Galpin, Moriss M. Estee and D. The collection consists of correspondence and legal papers Larry Harmon started the independent zine in Harmon's zine included detailed researching and reporting of the odd tales of Southern California.

Construction projects in Southern California, mostly public buildings. Interiors of Union Station. Prints have been produced of some of these images Hancock Oil, Shell and Richfield service stations. The Harmony Grove Church Restoration Papers consist of correspondence, reports, clippings, architect's drawings and unpublished histories pertaining to the restoration of the Harmony Grove Church, Lockeford, Calif. The collection includes manuscripts, research notes, illustrations, and other material pertaining to Jack Harness, an American Science Fiction and Fantasy fan and writer who was active in Los Angeles, California during the 's and 's.

Includes stories and poetry by Various harness racing horses, traps, and drivers photographed in motion. Location and date are unidentified. The Harold A. Parker Studio Collection of Lantern Slides and Transparencies consists of 96 hand-colored lantern slides and autochrome lantern slides, and 52 color transparencies, ca. Parker Studio Collection of Negatives consists of glass plate negatives, film negatives, and panoramic negatives, , that depict commercial, residential and landscape sites in and around Pasadena and Southern California. The images provide a look at Letters are primarily concerned with personal and family matters. Such letters give Contains four signed notes and three paper fragments with signatures of notable persons in history, science, and literature. Items include a portion of a printed title page of a published letter written by Alexander Hamilton, annotated and initialed by "A. Interviews conducted by Suzanne B. Introductions by Ernest R. Hilgard and R.

Nevitt Sanford. Copies of photographs inserted. Comments on their careers in child development and growth studies, particularly at the Collection consists primarily of writings by Harold E. Also contains biographical information about Jones, correspondence, course notes, news clippings, a small number of photographs some of Jones , radio transcripts for child development programs, and speeches. Minutes; financial reports; and correspondence relating to the Berkeley War Council Materials about the Council include items relating to child care; consumer interests; housing; education; nutrition, medical care, and health; and community centers.

The majority of the papers and articles reflect Harold Biswell's association with controlled burning and forest ecology. Includes numerous documented photographs and slides of California forests, chaparral, and ranches from the s through the s. One document: Appointment as second lieutenant, by President William H. Taft, 30 July Contains documents concerning government surplus property for veterans, irrigation agreements with San Joaquin Canal Company, U. Contains notes made in preparation for Noble's doctoral dissertation, documents relating to the Pearl Harbor inquiry, ca. The Harold L. Willson papers document Willson's unstinting efforts to make public transportation accessible for people at all mobility levels. Willson's primary legacy is the removal of architectural barriers on Bay Area public transportation; copious correspondence with BART officials, as Part of a collection of certificates, diplomas, and similar documents, primarily from California.

This collection of home movies primarily documents the early years of the Lloyd children and life at the family's Irving Street home located in the Los Angeles neighborhood of Hancock Park where the family lived until , and Greenacres estate The collection contains photographs of Harold Morris, members of his family, and various talents that his agency managed, including the Harmonica Rascals, the Duane Dancers, Yukiko Sakakura, and Tony Martin; as well as professional correspondence; certificates from the American Guild Re Harold S. Chase, his coming to SB, Hope Ranch development, role in public affairs, including earthquake and depression relief, fundraising for Cottage Hospital, wildlife conservation, , and family life.

Interviewer: Ronald L. Materials taken from eighteen scrapbooks that relate to Harold S. Three scrapbooks related to his business interests including drive-in restaurants and bowling alleys ; nine related to his career as a supervisor on the San Francisco Board of Supervisors , The papers include research notebooks, correspondence, course notes, reports, subject files, biographical materials, and reprints of Johnston's articles. One letter TLS from perennial presidential candidate Harold Stassen to Theodore Bailey re Stassen's communication with Premier Stalin, together with related address, statement, and transcript , Consists of correspondence, deeds, agreements, accounts, receipts, manuscript maps, and other papers reflecting Asbury Harpending's business and speculative activities in the Western United States, Kentucky, New York, and Latin America between the years and Although the collection contains Edwin L.

Harper assisted in the area of research, planning, and coordination of domestic policy. These policies included: budget issues, The Harper Special Files include information on revenue sharing and Presidential appearances. Correspondence, speeches and writings, memoranda, reports, clippings, and other printed matter relating to laissez-faire economic and political theory, and to economic conditions and governmental economic policy in the United States. Photographs, clippings, memorabilia, and personnel records, relating to post-World War II American military activities, especially in the Philippines. Photostats, microfilm, and research notes relating to commercial shipping in the British Colonial ports of North America. Collection largely consists of negatives , a few contemporary prints, and contact sheets from selected negative rolls made in Subjects include rehearsals for student plays, parties and excursions, Prof. Thomas Bailey in class, exams, graduation, campus scenes, and Also includes biographical material about Wagner, as well as references to the Harr Wagner Publishing Company.

In addition, copies of the Letters to James Harrell from Jonas O. This collection includes personal papers, working production files, photographs, slides, audio tapes, tapestries, drawings, oil paintings, watercolor paintings. Reports, memoranda, minutes of meetings, tests, manuals for tests, and a photograph, relating to the development and administration of an Army General Classification Test to help select American soldiers for officer training and specialty training during World War II, and Three-page typescript letter sent from Harriett Ashim Choynski to a Mrs. Neumann in describing the history of the Ashim family in San Francisco.

The letter describes the arrival of California pioneer Morris B. Ashim in San Francisco in , One envelope addressed to Lili E. Stephens of Princeton, Illinois, with later ink notation "Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's autograph. Removed from Montgomery Collection Wyles Mss 9. One letter ALS , signed H. Stowe, to an unnamed friend, offering best wishes for the New Year. Mandarin, Florida, 11 January One note ANS , signed H. Found in CDCC. This collection consists of 38 photographs of Harriett Fyffe's trip to Yosemite. Photographs are mounted on cardboard backing This collection consists of the personal and professional papers of Harriet G. It is organized into the following series: Personal, Travel, Professional, Correspondence and Audiovisual. Contains 4 letters by Harriet Martineau. The first letter dated October 20, , discusses a tale from her book on economics, "Illustrations of Political Economy. Contains several composition books and letters written by Harriette Franklin of Manchester, England, including a letter from Harriette to her brother, Ellis.

Also includes an SF Examiner clipping dated Harriman and Company. Relates to mining rights in Georgia Transcaucasia. The Curtis Harrington papers span the years bulk and encompass 30 linear feet. There are scripts, correspondence, clippings, reviews, and production material for Harrington? A collection of material related to the personal and professional life of George Harrington, American treasury official and diplomat. The major part of this collection is two albums of photographs from Harrington's work and travels in Bolivia and Argentina, and undated. Images include villages, local people, trekking on mountain trails and by river boat, geologic formations, other geologists, John Peabody Harrington was a linguist and ethnologist. His career spanned over forty years, dedicating his research to studying Native American languages and cultures across the western United States. Collection includes notes created by John Peabody Harrington during the Mark Raymond Harrington born July 6, died June 30 , noted anthropologist and archaeologist, was curator of archaeology at the Southwest Museum from to and discoverer of ancient Pueblo structures near Overton, Nevada and Little Lake, California Harris Water Project Papers contain photographs, correspondence, and memorandums of agreement related to water projects Harris worked on in the early s.

This collection is primarily composed of autograph letters and drafts written by Ann Harris and Richard Chandler between October and September The bulk of the material is finished letters written from Harris to Chandler. Material attributed to Chandler The Charlotte Harris Papers include photographs, postcards, church programs, and awards related to the activities of the Harris and Fletcher families. The bulk of the collection is photographs of family and friends of Charlotte Harris in Seattle, Washington and Berkeley, Notebooks, clippings, etc. Writings, correspondence, lecture notes, printed matter, and photographs, relating to political conditions in the twentieth-century Middle East, European intellectual history, and political science.

Unpublished typescript draft, given to Stanford professor Gordon Wright following Harris' death for editing; annotated by Wright Correspondence, speeches and writings, reports, research notes, newsletters, lists, and printed matter, relating to Emperor Napoleon I of France, the Balkan crisis of , international affairs in Europe during the interwar period, and reconstruction of Germany and Austria following World Notebooks, patent invention disclosure files, patent photographs, and other assorted papers related to Donald B. Harris's work on the Spiratron tube at General Electric Company.

This collection contains audio cassettes, posters, fliers, documents, and other material regarding Dot Harris and her career at UCR. The Elihu M. Harris Papers consist of reports, photographs, subject files, and administrative and financial records documenting Harris' political career as the mayor of Oakland, California from and as co-owner of KDIA radio station from The Elihu Harris Papers consist of 19 cubic feet of records reflecting Harris's activities during his Assembly career. Harris, one of the first women in the U. Marine Corps. The Ellen Stern Harris papers document the efforts and accomplishments of a California environmental activist whose concerns ranged from protecting the California coastline to cleaning up campaign finances. Harris established herself as a leading activist through exhaustive correspondence, editorials, committee Erna P.

Harris Papers consists of photographs of family and friends of Erna P. Reports, memoranda, and correspondence relating to the Russian Civil War in Siberia, the Czechoslovak Legion, political and economic conditions in Siberia, and American policy in Siberia. This finding aid describes the Clark Library's collection of material created by and related to Frank Harris, and includes correspondence, manuscripts, news clippings, typescripts and proofs.

George Harris was a barister and judge with strong interests in anthropology and psychology. During , George Harris solicited comments and suggestions from many eminent philosophers, theologians and naturalists concerning the ideas and language of his planned treatise on The Gladys Knight Harris Papers document Harris's personal interest in domestic science, household affairs, child rearing, or what could be characterized as "women's work" in a harsh, unspoiled environment. Depicts the headquarters of the American Expeditionary Forces in Siberia, and officers of the Japanese and Czechoslovak forces in Vladivostok. Writings, correspondence, reports, memoranda, printed matter, computer disks, and photographs, relating to Panama, American-Panamanian relations, the American invasion of Panama, Manuel Noriega, and the Foreign Policy Association of Panama.

Includes research material for the book by David S The Harwell Hamilton Harris drawings and model span 8 linear feet and date from to The collection is composed of three flat file folders, each contain drawings for different projects. Includes manuscripts, typescripts for Dr. Harris' book, California's Medical Story , and on medical history in California, and musical compositions. The latter are songs, some orchestrated, with words by Harris and others: Louis B. Jacobs, S. Brenner, Edward M. Papers of a theosophist and member of the Theosophical Society in Point Loma, California, dating chiefly from the early foundation of Lomaland to the Society's relocation in to Covina, California. Included are descriptions of the Theosophical Society's Raja Yoga The collection is available The diary contains entries for virtually every day of the trip.

The collection has been processed to the Collection level and is open for use. This scrapbook was the property of L. The first few pages of this book shows data on the construction work on the second track between Yampai, Arizona and Topock, Arizona. Writings, correspondence, photographs, maps, and memorabilia, relating to U. File contains 2 handwritten letters regarding Lewis Birdsall Harris' death, one written by his son Lewis B. Harris, Jr. Briscole on July 7th, Photographs, legal documents, manuscripts, personal and business correspondence, lecture notes, videotapes, audiotapes, clippings, scrapbooks, floppy disks, memorabilia and other material from actor, lecturer and intersex person, Lynn Edward Harris Born intersexed, Harris was raised female despite being born Mabel C.

The collection is comprised of business papers with equipment specifications and blueprints , newspaper and journal articles, and photographs. Koster, plus a photocopy of The history of Harris combined header and thresher The consists of Harris's working papers from the library regarding staff, long range planning, budgeting, publicity and working documents for programs. It includes detailed information about events and speakers, including guest registers, newspaper clippings and press releases. General program information, A collection of photographs compiled or created by Philip B. Harris of railroad construction and survey work in the Los Angeles area, s, and photographs of soldiers, ruins, and other scenes in World War I France.

Robert E. Harris b. The collection consists of copies of newspaper articles The Robert H. Harris papers span the years bulk and encompass 1. The collection consists of clippings, scripts, programs, correspondence, scrapbooks, and photographs Correspondence between Roy Harris and Hans Barkan concerning the commissioning of Harris to write an orchestral work for Stanford's 50th anniversary celebration Harris describes the process of composition and decisions made at every step. Also includes articles and photographs Writings, correspondence, photocopies of government documents, photographs, sound recordings, video tapes, and printed matter, of an American historian relating mainly to biological warfare, especially as conducted by Japan in China before and during World War II. Includes research material used Relates to the history of the Monarkhicheskaia Organizatsiia Tsentral'noi Rossii, known as the Trust, and its control by the Soviet secret police for purposes of penetration and manipulation of anti-communist Russian groups in exile, from to Master's thesis, In , he was appointed U.

Consul General to Japan. He negotiated commercial treaties with Siam in and Japan in After the election of Abraham Lincoln in , The collection includes a small number of family papers, letters, and materials relating to Weinstock's business ventures and Weinstock's work on agricultural cooperatives. The collection consists primarily of Harris Weinstock's diaries and photographs.

Aside from two small general diaries from The William Torrey Harris papers, , consists of letters, manuscripts, typescripts, notes, and leaflets collected and created by noted 19th century educator, philosopher and lexicographer William Torrey Harris. In addition to letters from major philosophers of the period, including John Includes interviews The materials consist of of printed ephemera from President Benjamin Harrison's epic cross-country railroad journey, from the papers of E.

Tibbott, Harrison's private secretary who accompanied him on the trip. The President's train left Washington and proceeded to make a Benjamin Harrison was a lawyer and Democratic Party leader in California. He served as city attorney for Needles , was appointed U. President Harrison's speech-making tour in was, at that time, the longest journey ever undertaken by any President while in office. The 9, mile rail trip lasted one month and three days. The trip was partly planned and largely financed The are comprised of 17 personal letters written primarily between Mr. Harrison and his wife, Julia E.

Dante Alighieri - Wikipedia

No dust jacket. Green cloth boards with gilt lettering and contains pictorial plate Make an Enquiry. Green cloth boards with gilt lettering and contains pictorial plates. Pages are slightly tanned with rough cut edges, moderate foxing to text block edge and endpapers. Binding is firm with moderate corner bumping and light markings to boards. Spine is tanned with light shelf wear and staining. Sku TMB. Author Arthur Clement Hilton. Condition Used - Good. Binding type Hardback. Dust jacket condition No Jacket. Pagination Cover note Book image taken of actual book. Note This is a used book. We do our best to provide good quality books for you to read, but there is no escaping the fact that it has been owned and read by someone else previously. Publisher: Macmillan and Bowes, Cambridge. Illustrator: Portrait Frontispiece. Visit Seller's Storefront.

If needed, our Illinois Business Registration Number is Books will be held two weeks upon receipt of order by client. All books are returnable in 30 business days for full refund if not as described, and if Orders usually ship within 2 business days. Shipping costs are based on books weighing an average of 2. If your book order is heavy, oversized, or in multiple volumes, contact us so we can let you know what extra shipping charge is required. List this Seller's Books. Payment Methods accepted by seller. AbeBooks Bookseller Since: August 14,

Lets do Handwriting 5-6 free pdf, epub, mobi

Spirit of 76 : London Punk Eyewitness free ebook

Paris, Baby! download book

Astronomy free book

Reunions: Visionary Encounters download epub

Geography for Common Entrance 13+ Exam Practice Questions download ebook

Outlaw Tales of Utah : True Stories Of The Beehive States Most Infamous Crooks, Culprits, And Cutthr free ebook