The Rs. 99,950 front disc option, and the Rs. 103,500 dual disc option. All prices - ex-showroom, Delhi. The Hero Xtreme 160R was first demonstrated in February 2020 at the Hero World 2020 event. The Hero Xtreme 160R is inspired by the Hero 1.R concept motorcycle, which was demonstrated at the 2019 EICMA motorcycle shows. The motorcycle was listed on the company's website for a while. In fact, interested customers can sign up online for test motorcycle trips as well. The Hero Xtreme 160R gets a 160 cm3 single-cylinder engine that is equipped with air cooling and is BS6-compatible. It gets Xsens Hero technology and programmed fuel injection. It is 15 hp at 8500 rpm, and the peak point is estimated at 14 Nm, which fully reaches 6,500rpm. The engine is paired with a 5 fast transmission. The hero claims a 0-60 km/h sprinting time of 4.7 seconds. The Xtreme 160R has a kerb weight of 138.6kg, making it one of the lighter models in the segment. The bike is suspended on 37 mm telescopic forks in front and a 7-speed adjustable monoshock at the rear. The front part receives a standard disc of 276 mm, and the rear receives an additional disc of 220 mm. The motorcycle gets a single-channel ABS as a standard landing. Some features include a full LED lighting package that is segmented first. In addition, the full digital display is upside down. The bike also gets the function of cutting off the side engine. It will be available in кольорових комбінаціях Pearl Silver White, Vibrant Blue і Sports Red. Герой Xtreme 160R стильно стильно with sharp, vortex lines and a minimalist theme. The sculptural fuel tank, along with the blacked-out engine and frame, add a sporty look. It will go against Apache RTR 160 4V and Suzuki Gixxer 155 TVs.
