

The Binman: A Horror-Comedy-Parody

Homicidal zombies, an accidental side-effect of the aged albino scientist PROFESSOR VON KNOBENDE's deadly new anti-alien virus, massacre their way out of the secret VITAFEX laboratory in New Mexico, and annihilate the populace of the nearby town of Malade Muerte.

Incredibly, some survive; the pale Professor; his demure assistant, ADINA VARALICA; hot blonde PARKER CUMMINGS a headstrong vice cop; nerdy teen NO NOB CHENLOM, his ass-whooping granny TITTYPORN CHELOM; chest-heavy sex-on-legs brunette JOHNNIE-WAINE COCKINGS and foul-mouthed gun-store owner TRACEY LANCE WANKER III.

Estranged from long-suffering wife KAREN and ill son RODNEY, London binman and 80s action-film fanatic GORDON BENNETT living in a bed-sit full of 80s action-movie stuff, drives into town for an 80s action-hero convention early having misread the date on a flyer.

Gruesome decaying entrails stop Gordon in his tracks but his sharp exit is thwarted. Parker takes him by surprise, commandeers his car and introduces him to the cock-teasing Johnnie. On the litter-strewn road to Wanker's gun-store they pick up the gore-soaked zombie butcher Porn and petrified No Nob; the fearful bin-bag bungler reveals his mania for action-film ads.

The hefty-hootered pair mock but the hard-as-nails matriarch, exposing the kid's bite marks, warns of infection. The binman's banger stalls. The stranded motley crew quarrel. A zombie attacks. Spunky Parker guns it down but the hapless garbage groper is scratched and infected.

At the gun store, old Wanker refuses to help but the buxom femme fatale flashes her tanned tits, and persuades the lame hunchback to arm them. Thousands of zombies launch an assault; drag the old-codger to his death; just his hand remains clutching the key to his Humvee. They flee, but in a brutal mêlée, Parker is torn apart. Unable to leave town, they return to the store.

They call the flesh-eaters to battle; a massacre ensues but a victory at last also for bin-toting Gordon who resists the urge to listen to action-film trailers. Zombies engage in yet another offensive. This time Gordon surrenders to his action-hero fantasy and slaughters the un-dead.

Johnnie, with Nob, hotwires a getaway car. Nob begs Porn to help Gordon. She bravely slays zombies but is overcome. Hearing her ghastly shrieks, Johnnie and Nob Rush to save her but witness her grisly demise. Johnnie shoots the trash-tosser and speeds off to the lab to meet von Knobende - her 'father'. A test reveals Nob's resistance is due to a fatal genetic illness.

The waste-warrior lives. In a garbage truck he rams into the lab. Meeting Adina and telling his story, she proclaims Nob's antibodies will kill the zombies. In a daring rescue in which they slay the fiendish family, Gordon admits he's a binman, not a soldier, and slew Porn.

Nob cracks the code to the Professor's work, and discovers he'd adopted Johnnie, a secret service agent, as a child and Adina, who'd been killed by zombies, is a shape-shifting alien. The virus can kill it, but the antibodies are its protection. Gordon stops their release. Adina's true form manifests. In a fierce clash, Gordon infects the hideous alien by biting its neck.

Nob saves Gordon with a dose of his blood. Antibodies release; zombies die off. The Army, alerted when Nob broke the code, arrives. Nob tells Gordon to flee fearing the military will kill them. SALVATORE bombs the lab but saves Nob. Back home, Gordon vows to change.
