

Harry Whitney – Bible Horsemanship Clinics
With Cowboy Chaplain Ronnie Moyer

"Change is possible"
2nd Corinthians 5:17

Harry teams up with Cowboy Chaplain (and good friend) Ronnie Moyer to offer clinics that bring a unique approach to sharing the Gospel. Many people accept conformity for submission in their horses and confuse religion for a relationship with Jesus Christ. These clinics help a person recognize the difference and settle for nothing less than true relationship

Harry's view of horses and how he communicates with them are influenced by principles he uses in all aspect of his life. His intuitive and respectful way of sharing information spring from his core Christian belief. Moments that arise during the horsemanship work become powerful illustrative moments which dovetail with the Bible studies.

Ronnie Moyer is a popular speaker, author, singer/songwriter, worship leader, and recording artist. His Biblical teachings have been encompassing the uncompromised truth of God with the unconditional love of God for over 25 years, and his compassion (and keen sense of humor!) make him a favorite of students of all ages. Music and horses figure prominently in his ministry.

Regardless of you or your horse's age, discipline or "baggage", foundational truths can help get things on track to build better relationships. These clinics may be either regular or intensive formats and are offered twice a year in two locations—Virginia, hosted by Tom Moates in Floyd, Virginia and in California, hosted by Steve and Kim Bolewine at On The Way Ranch in Copperopolis (Northern California). Contact the hosts for more information and/or reservations. Expect amazing horsemanship, music, great food and wonderful fellowship.
