

Bible Studying Mindset

I take it one step at a time.

I use tools (notes, commentaries, devotionals).

I ask God to guide my understanding.

VS

Bible Struggling Mindset

I feel like I have to understand everything right away.

I think real Bible study is only for pastors or scholars.

I rely only on myself to make sense of the text.

I get discouraged if I don't "get it" on the first try.

I quit when it doesn't feel productive.
