Montenegro

A sample 5 day incentive programme

The HAPPY Prize Company

5 days UNESCO old towns 240 sunny days a year

Montenegro

Why Montenegro, and day 1

Montenegro fits a fjord on the Adriatic, UNESCO protected old towns, 5 national parks and 293 km of coastline into a country you can cross in a morning. This sample programme shows how 5 days can work for an incentive group. Everything can be tailored to your group, your objectives and your budget.

Why Montenegro

- 5 unique national parks
- UNESCO protected old towns
- The second deepest canyon in the world, the Tara river
- The biggest lake in the Balkans, Skadar lake
- A rare fjord on the Adriatic coast, Boka Bay
- Varied cuisine and high quality wines
- 240 sunny days and 185 bathing days a year
- North and south both within reach in a short trip

Day 1, welcome to Montenegro

Arrive on the bay, settle in, and meet the country gently on the first afternoon.

- Arrival at Tivat airport, or Dubrovnik airport as an alternative
- Option of a speed boat transfer from the pier to the hotel
- Check in and welcome drink, then lunch at the hotel
- Electric tuk tuk tour to a hilltop village, welcomed by a local family
- Dinner beside the marina

Montenegro

Day 2, the road of King Nikola

A day inland, driving yourselves through the mountains to the old royal capital, with a long lunch in a national park and a famous road home.

Lipa Cave

One of the country's largest cave monuments, with over 2.5 km of passages and a constant 8 to 12 degrees.

- Self drive 4x4 through the mountains, or with a driver
- A small train ride to the cave entrance
- Guided tour along the cave paths
- Wine tasting at the cave bar, with a tasting of local products
- Option of a classical concert, played to the cave acoustics

Cetinje, the old royal capital

Founded in the 15th century and still the cultural heart of Montenegro, lined with former consulate buildings.

- Visit King Nikola's residence, built in the 1860s
- The museum of the last Montenegrin ruler, founded in 1926
- Time to walk the old capital

Lunch in Lovćen National Park

A long picnic in the open, with traditional dishes cooked fresh on site and Montenegrin wines.

- Buffet menu of traditional dishes, for up to 300 guests
- Folklore performance in traditional costume
- Ham slicing competition, coffee making and a doughnut class
- Optional archery, paintball, yoga or the adventure park

Home by the 25 serpentines

The road from Kotor to Njeguši, built in 1884 and still a source of national pride.

- 25 hairpin bends, with a photo stop over Boka Bay
- Dinner at a monastery complex to finish the day

Montenegro

Day 3, sailing the Bay of Kotor

A day on the water, through the only fjord on the Adriatic, with 2 old towns and music in unexpected places.

Through the bay by speed boat

Board at the hotel pier and sail the length of Boka Bay, with up to 255 guests moved at once.

- Small boats of 10 to 25 guests, so the group stays together
- The bay from the water, which is how it is best seen

Kotor, a UNESCO protected old town

Well preserved medieval streets below the mountain, with a cathedral consecrated in 1166.

- Guided tour of the cathedral, maritime museum and churches
- Option of a tasting trail through the town, stopping for local products
- Option of a 5 senses challenge, taste, touch, smell, sight and hearing
- A surprise private choir performance in an orthodox church

Perast and Our Lady of the Rocks

An artificial islet begun in 1452 by sinking old ships, with a church of 1632 holding 68 paintings.

- Lunch in a seafood restaurant in baroque Perast, with a live band
- Visit the island church and its silver votive tablets
- Music on the island, from a guitar duo, an opera singer or a violinist

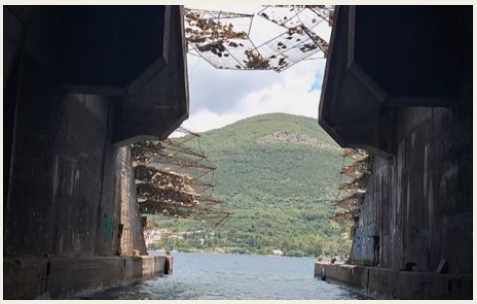

Dinner above Budva

Back across the bay for dinner looking over the old town of Budva.

- Panoramic terrace above the old town
- Classic dishes alongside newer Montenegrin cooking

Montenegro

Days 4 and 5

Day 4, the Luštica peninsula

The wildest stretch of the coast, undeveloped and reachable by sea, with wartime tunnels cut into the rock.

- Speed boats from the hotel to Luštica
- Inside the submarine tunnels, 100 m long and 10 m deep, built under occupation and used for 50 years
- Swimming, or an a cappella performance sung to the tunnel echo

Picked up by vintage cars

Collected from the beach by a fleet of cars between 30 and 56 years old, then lunch at a family estate.

- Cabriolets and vintage limousines, 37 seats in total
- Lunch at a family estate, then back to the hotel

Or choose your own afternoon

Where a group wants to split, 5 options run in parallel.

- Biking in Kotor, or hiking the Vrmac ridge to a hilltop fort
- Porto Montenegro, with its naval museum and submarine
- Kayaking, stand up paddling or a via ferrata above the old town
- Budva city tour, the oldest settlement on this coast

Dinner above the clouds, then day 5

The cable car climbs from sea level to 1,350 m in 11 minutes, for dinner with the bay below.

- Dinner in the mountains, reached by cable car
- Day 5, breakfast, check out and transfer to the airport

Tell us your group size, dates and objectives, and we will build a tailored programme with costs.

The Happy Prize Company

B Corp certified. ABTA and ATOL bonded.

hello@thehappyprizeco.com thehappyprizecompany.com