6th grade daily oral language

In this section you will find the last warm-up associated with the file when we finish the four sets. You should write down the answers and help them. I gave each of you a special envelope. To keep it for that purpose by coming here means you may lose your copy. If this is the case, You can print out these copies and use them for practice. In this way, you can check out the different types of information we have mentioned. Anyway, I did not give you an answer here. If you check these early enough, you can come to me before school at halsakah (if I'm at school) or during a break in class (if any) or after school. I'm happy to check any information you need.
