It's probably true that kids shouldn't keep expensive smartphones or tablets. They have a penchant for destroying these things. However, if you are brave, your mobile device can be a small window into the world that can entertain your kids for hours and sometimes it can even help educate them! Here are the best Android children's games, AndrobabyApp/yz children's gameFisher-Price gameFooFoo KidsGoKidsPrice: Free / Options (usually about $1.99)Androbaby is a developer on Google Play. They did quite a few children's games. Some of them are ideal for young children. Some of the games include First Words for Babies, Baby Farm Games, Baby Flashcards, Animal Sounds, and Color Training for Babies. They have games for the elderly too, such as 2048. Most games are free with advertising. You can usually remove ads at a nominal price. Those who subscribe to Google Play Pass can get most Androbaby games for free. App's Child GamesPrice: Free/Options (usually about $1.99-$2.99) App quiz is another developer on Google Play. They also have a decent amount of good children's games. Some of the titles include Baby Puzzles, Baby Musical Instruments, Baby Balls, Toddler and Baby Games, Car Wash for Kids, and a few more. The games are simple, colorful and noisy. They are essentially just mobile versions of real life children's toy games. Every game is free to download. There is an advertisement if you stick to the free version. Paid versions remove ads. Fisher-Price Child GamesPrice: Free/$2.99 EachFisher-Price is a huge name in children's entertainment. They make a lot of toys that you've probably seen before. They also have a bunch of children's games on their mobile phone. Most games range in price from free to $2.99. This makes them easily accessible, even for those with a tighter budget. Free, usually, have no advertising either. There are games that have nursery rhymes, hide and look, counting, and sound games. Several games contain multiple games in one. They don't all work at home. However, most of them have to work very well. FooFoo KidsPrice: Free/Options (usually about $0.99)FooFoo Kids is another app developer on Google Play with a bunch of children's games and games for older kids too. It may take some searching to find the child's appropriate games. However, they have super simple things like a balloon popping and coloring app that should require virtually no effort for kids to play. All FooFoo Kids apps are free. Some are in the app purchases, but we haven't found one that cost more than $0.99. This is a worthy generic option for children's games. GoKidsPrice: Free / VariesGoKids is another developer who lots of children's games. Most of them are not educational. You can find some educational things thrown out as well. Their biggest games include Animal Farm, Baby piano zoo, learning form, and Ocean Bubbles Pop. Most games are free for With advertising. Usually you can pay to remove this ad. Some are for older children. It's just something to keep in mind if you run into one that's too hard for your child. GunjanApps StudiosPrice: Free/Options (usually $1.99-$3.99) is another developer on Google Play who makes children's games. There aren't as many as some other studios. However, they seem to be doing very well. Some of the best games include balloon pop, preschool kids, alphabet for kids, baby shapes, and Baby First Words. Some of them work very well. Others have several errors that can affect the gaming experience. We recommend checking user reviews to see what is what. Most are free to download, but the free version may have advertisements. The premium version of these children's games is usually relatively inexpensive. KidloLandPrice: Free with in-app purchases/$4.99 per month/$39.99 per yearKidloLand is actually one of the best mobile children's games available right now. It boasts over 300 mini-games, interactive videos, nursery rhymes, stories and more. Most things can be downloaded for offline use. In addition, no version of this app has advertising. However, it has many different ways of paying. You can buy things as individual purchases in the app. There is also a subscription service that gives you access to all of this. The app is fairly good with a lot of things to do. We understand if this subscription price seems like a bad idea, however. We're definitely not fans of it, either. However, this one offers more than some developers offer throughout its catalog, so it's worth looking at. Lively Mind is another developer on Google Play with a bunch of children's games. They now have about half a dozen titles. They cover topics such as singing songs, simple puzzles, rhymes, music, and some common things like animal sounds, fireworks, balloon popping, and more. The games are relatively simple and most kids should have no problem with them. Apps also work without too much trouble. Unfortunately, the free version contains ads. However, premium versions are inexpensive and they remove advertising. Magic Joy DoodlePrice: Free /0.99Magic Joy Doodle is a simple drawing app for kids and adults. You draw things in bright, neon colors on a black background. Then you can play the whole sequence back and re-watch what you have drawn. There are several different color variations, different doodle drawings, and you can save images to share on social media later if you want to brag. The color of randomization and Use to make great for younger children and the premium version is also pretty cheap. Talking Tom GamesPrice: Free Top PlayOutfit7 is one of the most popular developers on Google Play. They do Talking Volume series games. Some of them are their include my talking Tom, my talking Angela, and many others. Each game is a little different from what it was before. Their latest name, My Talking Hank, is actually a sim where you take care of a puppy named Hank. It's all very charming. It may be too much for some kids. However, they are free to download.
