MIXED NUTS appeared on the music scene somewhat unpromised in March 2009 at spring fling sponsored by LDS Ward in southern Jordan. From this quiet beginning, this five-member ensemble exploded to the forefront and pleased the countless residents of senior centers and retirement facilities in the Salt Lake Valley. Playing the music of the big band era, they reconnected in the minds of those who lived in that time the great memories of Glenn Miller, Benny Goodman, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, and countless other entertainers of that time. Today, they are one of the busiest bands in the valley, averaging 7 engagements a week and accepting awards whenever they perform. Bob Footy, the ensemble leader, answered a question about their amazing success. It's pretty simple. We play what people want to hear, and we play it well. And in the process, they have fun and we have fun! This is the most important part – we are all having fun! What could be better than this? What could be better? We can't wait to play at our upcoming wedding! Great job and so much fun during reception. You'll never leave the dance floor. Sent on 09/06/2015 Colleen - Married 05/25/2014 Quality of Service: Sensitivity: Value: Flexibility: Professionalism: We had an amazing experience with Mixed Nuts! Chuck was fantastic for the job - he answered our many questions in a thorough and timely way and really helped us make the decision. We had a goal wedding and all our planning from Minnesota, so we were nervous that we didn't get a chance to hear nuts play live. Mixed nuts made our second line and our reception and both shook them up! Our guests kept talking (a month later) about how amazing they were and we couldn't be happier. I highly recommend (and I recommend including the horns and their singer - she was amazing!).
