A simple path for your team

You do not need to train everyone at once. Start with the roles and priorities that matter most to your church.

1 Choose a point person

Name a pastor, ministry leader, or safety coordinator to guide enrollment and encourage participation.

2 Identify priority teams

Start with leaders, safety volunteers, children's ministry, and those who regularly welcome guests.

3 Select the first courses

Choose training that matches your church's needs. A team can begin with Foundations, then add topic-specific learning.

4 Turn lessons into practice

Discuss roles, communication, and the next action after each course. Document a few changes your team will make.

A useful first meeting: ask "Who needs to know what, and what would we do differently next month?"

How enrollment works

1 Purchase the annual church license

One $497 annual license provides your church with 12 months of access to eligible online training for its pastors, ministry leaders, staff, and volunteers.

2 Receive enrollment instructions

After your purchase is confirmed, Palmetto Safe Solutions sends the information your church needs to access the training.

3 Share training with your people

Give the instructions to your team and select courses that fit each ministry role. The training is online and self-paced.
