

Dr. Woodrow (Woody) Myers is a nationally recognized leader in the development of medical quality initiatives and advanced healthcare management programs. As Managing Director of Myers Ventures LLC, he has coupled his passion for the highest standards of patient care and management, with leadership roles in several of our largest and most innovative healthcare enterprises. Today he serves as Advisor of Public and Political Affairs, Sera Prognostics Inc., The Pregnancy Company (NASDAQ: SERA) and on the boards of Personalis, Inc. (NASDAQ: PNL), Freespira Inc., and on the Public Health Policy Committee of eHealth Inc. (NASDAQ: EHTH)

Through Myers Ventures LLC, Dr. Myers has served as Chief Medical Officer and Chief Healthcare Strategist for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Arizona, CEO for Valità Health Services (Corizon Health) and as consultant to the California Endowment. He has served on multiple public, private, and nonprofit boards including Express Scripts, Genomic Health, LipoScience, and SynGen. In higher education he served on the Board of Trustees of Stanford University and Board of Overseers of Harvard University and the Board of Trustees of the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science.

In November 2020 Dr. Myers was the Democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana. And in 2008 Dr. Myers was a candidate in the Democratic primary election for the Indiana 7th Congressional district.

He is the former executive vice president and chief medical officer of WellPoint, Inc., where he established the Healthcare Quality Assurance Division. Dr. Myers also served as the director of healthcare management at the Ford Motor Company where he initiated quality assurance metrics for Ford healthcare vendors and established new global health and safety policies to benefit Ford and its employees. Prior to Ford, he was Corporate Medical Director for The Associated Group (now Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield). He is a former health commissioner for New York City and the state of Indiana.

He is deeply committed to improving the quality, availability, and efficiency of healthcare around the globe. He is passionate about innovation and technology upgrades that will improve healthcare delivery and human longevity.

A third generation “Hoosier”, he is also a physician, business owner, husband, father, and grandfather. An Indianapolis Indiana native, Woody is a proud product of the Indianapolis Public Schools and a graduate of Indianapolis Shortridge High School. He completed his undergraduate studies at Stanford University (Honors in Biological Sciences) and his medical degree (MD) from Harvard University, and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Stanford University. Early in his medical career he worked as an emergency room physician and as a critical care intensivist and in both roles as a clinical teacher.

Woody lives in Indianapolis with his wife Stacy. Together, they have five children and three grandchildren.