

OBEYING THE GREAT COMMISSION

Going – Discipling – Baptizing - Teaching

Matthew 28:19-20

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

A note from the Pastor:

I share with you the blessings that have unfolded in November. Our small church witnessed the gentle hand of God weaving connections among our members. It fills our hearts with joy to welcome a new member into our congregation—a cherished addition after completing the membership class.

Over three nights, I had the privilege of participating in the International Gospel Music Festival at our local mall. In the spirit of sharing the gospel, we diligently distributed tracts and information about our church. Miraculously, a man has connected with the church, expressing a genuine interest in deepening his understanding of Christ.

Outreach activities have been scheduled throughout December. The first will take place on the 16th in Samrong Village, and the second on the 23rd at our church. Pray that the eyes of the lost will be opened by God so that they may come to know Him. I was notified by the House of Mercy orphanage wishing to donate mattresses, clothing, and numerous stuffed animals. It was the answer to our prayers. We have already helped get some of the mattresses to less fortunate people. Pastor Martin will bring us 300 stockings, and we want to put gifts in them. Every child who comes to the outreaches will get a stocking and a stuffed animal, and we also have clothes to give away. As we approach the season of giving, I humbly invite you to consider a financial donation this Christmas. Your support will enable us to radiate the love of Christ, touching the lives of those we serve. May your generosity reflect the profound love we hold for our Savior.

Your servant in Christ,
Curt Mathis
