HERINK

EARLY RECORDS IN THE BOHEMIAN SETTLEMENTS OF OUR ANCESTORS SEVENTEENTH CENTURY ONWARD

RESEARCH BY

MILDRED ROSE HERINK BUETHE

OUR ANCESTRAL HISTORY

According to Legend, our ancestors were Slavic Tribes, and one tribe in particular settled on the banks of the Vlatava River, led by a man called Czech, in 291 A.D. From this man the Bohemian Province deriv-ed their name. Archaeological discoveries found there indicate that the land had been inhabited since the Stone Age, nearly 900 years before the arrival of the Slavs in the 4th Century B.C. Celtic Tribes had dwelled there, one of which was the Boii, hence the name Bohemia.

Many of the Slavic tribes of central Europe were united early in the seventh century under one leader, Samo, whose state seemed to have been located in Moravia. With the death of Samo in 658, his empire, the first distinctive Slavic state, disintegrated. In the ninth century, another powerful leader, Mojir I, succeeded in uniting several Slavic tribes. This became known as the Great Moravian Empire, which included not only Moravia, but Slovakia and Austria, all of Bohemia, Lusatia (a portion of East Germany and part of Poland.

From 923 to 929 A.D. Bohemia was ruled by Prince Vaclav (Wenceslas), who was known as "Good King Wenceslas", a patron saint associated with the arrival of Christianity. He was a member of the Premyslides Sect. There was a struggle for power in those times between the various Tribes and Prince Vaclav was killed by his own brother. (a note of interest - our great grandfather was named Wenceslas, and his son as well).

In 1140 A.D. the first ties to Germany were evidenced by the ascendancy of Sobeslav to the Bohemian throne. He had grown up in the court of the German Hohenstaufens in Bavaria and claimed his seat from the German Emperor.

The Bohemian King Otokar, who ruled from 1197 to 1230 invited the German people to colonize the land, including that area of his brother, Vladislav, the Margrave of Moravia. Bohemia had rich deposits of iron, silver and copper. The Germans introduced the iron plow and the three field cultivation which quickly transformed the land. He also granted them the right to ownership of any land they cleared of forest and made into farmland. There was consequently a great flood of Germans into the area. This caused much resentment with the local people and even resulted in some Germans being killed over property.

Here, I must pause and put forth some speculation regarding the name "Herink". The name was most probably a German name spelled "Hering", meaning "fish". The German people with that name, upon settling in Bohemia and encountering hostility, doubtless changed the spelling substituting the "g" for a "k" making it sound Czech and escaping the stigma of being German. Therefore, we might surmise that our true ancestry may not have been Slavic.

The 13th Century was a period of great expansion for the Czech kingdom and several new Royal Towns were added, plus many castle fortresses for maintaining their royal power. The second half of the 14th Century was dominated by the rule of Charles IV, and is the most famous period of Czech History. Charles strengthened the political position of the country, as he was not only the King of Bohemia, but also the Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire. In the town of Ceske Krumlov can be seen today the golden chariot that he rode in on his excursions between Bohemia and Rome.

In 1348 he founded the Charles University, the oldest in Central Europe, and still functioning. He inaugerated the building of Nove Mesto (New Town) in Prague, with a vast bustling Square and an Astronomical Clock of world wide fame. He ordered to be built the Charles Bridge spanning the Vlatava River, which is a landmark for tourists of today, as well as it was during that era. All the Kings and Queens of Europe travelled over the road that led to that Bridge and they built Palaces in the city. The road became know as the "Royal Mile".

In 1402, Jan Hus appeared as the religious leader of the Czech Reformers. He was burned at the stake in 1415, and there followed a period of civil wars called the Hussite Wars. After that the people of Bohemia adopted a mild Protestant form of religion, but in 1526 the country fell under the rule of the Catholic Hapsburgs, who repressed Protestantism. They ruled from 1526 to 1918 over the area of Bohemia and

EARLIEST HERINK ANCESTOR KARL HERINK

KARL HERINK lived in Zavidov and we know that because he was listed as a land owner in the list of residents of the village. When he was born or where we do not know. but recorded in the registry of births in the Roman Catholic parish register we see that he and his wife, Katerina, had a son, ONDREJ HERINK born October 30,1644. Another birth is recorded : Mandelena Herink April 7, 1652. There may have been more children, but the names did not appear in that registry. We do not know Katerina's maiden name. It seems strange but the mother's name was not thought to be important enough to record.

ONDREJ HERINK married Dorota (?) year unknown. Dorota died in April 1, 1725 at the age of 92, which was considered a very, very old age in those times. They were both interred at Vsesulov, markers no longer there.

Their children were JAKUB HERINK born July 16, 1678, witnesses were Adam Lorenc, Jan Mares and Anna Pacholik. VACLAV HERINK, born September 17,1679 in Zavidov and witnesses for his baptism were Vaclav Pacholik, Dorota Lorenc, Jan Mares and Anna Eolbrova.

KATERINA HERINK was the 3rd child, born October 17, 1680. Godparents Jan Mares, Anna Folbrova, Dorota Lorenc and Mikulas Fiser. 4th child, MATEJE HERINK, born May 16, 1683. Witnesses were Michael Mertz of Petrovice, a brewer; Anna Folbrova of Zavidov, housewife; Jan Mares, Dorota Lorenc, and Mikulas Fiser. The last child, ANNA HERINK, born August 24, 1684. Witnesses were Anna Folbrova, Anna Fiser, Dorota Lorenc and Jan Mares.

EARLIEST RECORDED MENTION OF FAMILY ANCESTORS

ADAM LORENC, born April 30, 1646. to Adam Lorenc and his wife Katerina. of Zavidov. It is recorded that his godparents were Jan Mares and Anna Pacholik.

ADAM married DOROTA (?) about 1676 , and they had 3 children; Katerina, born October 9, 1678; Anny born, July 7, 1681; and Anna Marie, March 11, 1685. Godparents for Anna were Anna Flobrava, Matj Mertz, and Anna Fiser.

Anna Marie Lorenc married JAKUB HERINK April 10, 1709.

We have only one other record for this family and that is that DOROTA lived to a great old age which was noted as May 9, 1720. She was interred at Sesulov in the area around the church. However, when we searched for her stone it was not there; probably having long since crumbled.

Below are images of the church and area.

Kostel sv. Martina ve Všesulově

Již v první polovině 14. století byl tu farní kostel, jehož patrony byli držitelé hradu Krakovce. Za války husitské byl kostel odpolu pobořen, roku 1460 opraven. Jsou zde pohřbeni všichni Kolovratové a Šlikové - páni z Krakovce. Té doby byly ke Všesulovu přifařeny vsi Krakov, Křekovice, Šípy, Václavy, Zdeslav a Zavidov. Za války třicetileté byla ves spálena a kostel pobořen až do základu, v r. 1663 se v popise far uvádí jako pustý. V roce 1676 byl postaven nový kostel barokní a od roku 1694 sloužil jako farní.

Zavidov náležel vždy ke kolatuře všesulovské, která v 16. století byla osazena pastory luteránskými. Po spálení fary všesulovské byl Zavidov přidělen k Čisté; v letech 1693 - 1702 byli ve Všesulově administrátory karmelitáni. Ve Všesulově byl kostel sv. Martina, filiální k Čisté. Vzhledem k tomu, že v Zavidově nebyl kostel ani hřbitov, byli zesnulí ze Zavidova pohřbíváni v 17. a z části v 18. století na všesulovském hřbitově - v "záduší".

CRADLE OF HERINK FAMILY

ZAVIDOV CZECH REPUBLIC, CENTRAL BOHEMIA

The history of this tiny hamlet goes back to 1350 when it was owned by the lords of Krivoklat castle. The land was eventually deeded to the inhabitants who were farmers and sheep herders; the sheep herders taking precedence as being more important in those times. Coat of Arms was granted to the village : a white lion with black claws and red tongue on a blue field. Horizontal stripe halved in white and red. Our earliest recorded HERINK ancestry began here.

BOHEMIA CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Moravia. King Ferdinand was elected in 1617. In 1618 the thirty years war started when two of Ferdinand's councilors were in Prague and angered the Czech leaders to the point where they threw the men out the Palace window. The Battle of the White Mountain followed with the Hapsburgs defeating the Czechs, and many Czech people losing their castles and land.

In 1781, Emperor Josef II of Austria, put forth the Edict of Toleration, which allowed the practice of the Evangelic religion with certain restrictions. In the 18th and 19th centuries Bohemia and Moravia were swept by nationalistic sentiments and they joined in the 1848 revolutions sweeping Europe. Prague was the first city in the Austrian Empire to rise in favor of reforms. Liberation from the Austro-Hungarian Empire finally came as a result of the First World War. An independent Czech Reublic with Tomas Masaryk as President was founded. The progress was halted by the German occupation and thereafter by the installation of a Communist regime. After World War II, the Communist Party became the only political entity. A few other parties were allowed to exist but they had no real power. After the events of November 1989, which brought about the downfall of the Communist Regime, the country faced the task of building a democratic political system. A peaceful system of division came in 1993 when the Czech Republic and Slovakia split and Vaclav Havel became President of the Czech Republic.

EPILOGUE

This ends the Herink history begining with our earliest known ancestor, Karl Herink of Zavidov, Bohemia in the 17th century and ending with my marriage in 1947, that changed my name to Buethe.

At this writing there are only two male descendants who carry the Herink name and they are both single. Blane Miles Herink of Wichita, Kansas, grandson of Melvin (my brother), and David Herink of California, grandson of Louis Herink (my father's brother). They would be the only descendants of the Vencil and Frances Svolba Herink family who came from Europe in 1867. The above descend from Joseph Herink,Sr; their son.

Joseph's elder brother, Frank and Anna Fisher Herink, have one male descendant,Scott, who lives in Kansas. At this writing he is the father of two daughters. He would be the only possibility of the name being carried on.

I hope there are no errors, but, that would be unlikely. The material was translated from Bohemian, Latin, German....and from hand written text which was difficult to decipher. Further, there may be typing errors, but, I hope on the whole it is reasonably accurate.

LEO STEPHAN HERINK, second child of Joseph and Rose Mae Stepan Herink, was born April 25, 1922, in Pawnee County Nebraska. He attended rural school and graduated from High School in 1940 with an Agricultural Degree. He was employed by the Soil Conservation Service as a Soil Technician until his retirement. He married Alma Marie Krofta June 9, 1946, and they lived in Pawnee City the remainder of their lives. They had no children due to Alma having Epilepsy and they were afraid of it being hereditary. Leo was afflicted with Bronchial issues which kept him from joining the service during WW II. He was very sensitive about that. He and Alma loved to dance and went to most of the small town dances around the area. They also enjoyed trips to Colorado and other areas. Photos show Leo's graduation photo, their wedding picture, house in Pawnee and gravestone in Pawnee cemetery.

Jean (Wilcox) Herink

Jean Isabel (Wilcox) Herink, 91, of Pawnee City, Nebraska passed away on September 11, 2010 at Pawnee City, Nebraska. She was born on March 6, 1919 to Ernest and Addie (Wiar) Wilcox in Table Rock, Nebraska. She graduated from Table Rock High School.

She lived on several farms in Pawnee County. She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Pawnee City and a member of the Methodist Ladies Group.

Jean and Melvin were long time farming residents of Pawnee County and moved to town for their retirement. For a very short time, Jean was a resident of the Pawnee Village. She was accustomed to seeing which way the wind blows by looking at the windmill on the farm and another smaller version in town. She ordered and had installed in the village center, a miniature replica of their farming windmill. She always knew which way the wind was blowing.

During the years she was in residence at the Pawnee Manor, family would pop in for unannounced visits to always find her in good spirits, and as healthy as her condition allowed. There could not have been a better place for Jean to live in her last few years.

Mom & Dad, the wind is blowing with you.

Jean was preceded in death by her parents Ernest and Addie Wilcox; husband Melvin in November 1999; brothers Chancey, Herald, Lawrence, David, Richard and Robert Wilcox; sisters, Lucille Ingwerson and Doris Morehead.

She is survived by son Larry Herink and wife Patricia of Haysville, Kan.; grandson, Blane, of Wichita, Kan.; granddaughter, Suzanne & Danny Patterson, Peck, Kan.; great-granddaughters, Corbin & Dally, Peck, Kan.; daughter Carol Jean Turnbull and husband Irvin of Georgetown, Texas; granddaughter, Laura & Terry Skinner, California, Md.; great-granddaughters, Bailey & Madison, California, Md.; grandson, Dean Turnbull, Culp Creek, Ore.; and great-grandchildren, Jeremy & Emma Turnbull, Culp Creek, Ore.; daughter Barbara Shaw and husband Robert of Vacaville, Calif.; Tom & Stephanie Shaw; great granddaughters, Tabetha & Summer; Lisa & David Reyes; great grandchildren, Daniel & Gabrille, all of Vacaville, Calif.; sisters Ruth Anderson of Kearney, Neb., and Dorothy Hanna of Table Rock, Neb.; brother Lyle Wilcox and wife June of Springfield, Ore.; and many nieces, nephews, grand nieces and grand nephews.

Auto Accident.

Another auto accident, which might easily have cost one or more lives, happened one mile north of town last Thursday evening, when Ed McKenna, of Haddam, who was on his way home from Gilead, Nebr., and Joe Herink, who was coming to town, had a head-on collision. Mr. Herink was accompanied by his wife and baby at the time, and while Mrs. Herink received some very severe, but not serious bruises, Joe and the baby escaped without injury. We did not learn just how Mr. McKenna and his companion fared, but the cars were pretty badly wrecked. North Kans.

MY PARENTS , JOE AND ROSE

JOSEPH HERINK, second child of Joseph and Mary Novotny Herink was born April 10, 1889, Gage County , Nebraska, and married Rose Mae Stepan Herink, October 16, 1912, of DuBois. Their marriage took place in the new courthouse in Pawnee City, Nebraska. (They were the first couple to be married there) . There was a small difficulty when they went to the photo studio for pictures, they discovered they did not have their flowers which the bride and her sisters had handmade. They found out later that her father, seeing the package in their buggy before they left for the courthouse, removed it not realizing it was their wedding flowers. They had to puchase flowers at the studio for their photo. Then, they left for the bride's home where a meal of noodle soup, home made breads, pies and kolaches was served. She did not say this in her memoirs she wrote, but, I would assume that there was home made beer for all. They removed the rugs from the rooms and danced to accordian music played by Henry and Frank, Rose's brothers.

MY UNCLE , BROTHER OF MY FATHER

FRED JOY HERINK, eldest son of six children, born to Joseph and Mary Novotny Herink was born February 22, 1887, Gage County Nebraska. He was united in marriage to Frances Chermak, daughter of Frank and Mary Kadlec Chermak, on June 26, 1911 in Munden, Kansas, the birthplace of Frances, July 26, 1889.

Fred gave himself the middle name of Joy, as none of the boys in the family were given middle names. There were 2 daughters and they both had middle names so it is a little odd, but no records have appeared to counteract this. Three children were born to them: Glen Alvin, Sylvia Marie, and Elgie Mae. Photos are of Fred when young taken at Kral studio in Beatrice; and a wedding photo taken by J Jennings of Scandia, Kansas.

GREAT AUNT - DIED YOUNG

Frances Herink, daughter of Vencil and Frances , was the 8th and last child to their union. She was born in Richmond, Iowa, later moving with her parents to Kansas and then Nebraska. She was single, but, there is a story that she was engaged to be married to a John Maliky, and she had her wedding gown made, however, something happened and the ceremony did not take place. She was an accomplished seamstress and was much admired as to her talents. She was loved especially by the children in the family. In 1900 she appeared in the census as living with the Leo Bohner family. In the 1920 census she is listed as living with her Mother, Frances, in Barneston. A photo of the dwelling appears below.

Frances died on August 30, 1921, with burial in the Barneston cemetery next to her brother, James, on September 1st. Cause of death on her death certificate was Pernicious Anemia and Enlargement of the Spleen. She was 41 years old. Soon after that her mother died on November 3, 1921. Age 84.

MY GREAT UNCLE - COMMITTED SUICIDE

June 14, 1893, was a sad day for the Vencil Herink family as their son, Vencil, also called James, died by his own hand at his farm home near Wymore, Nebraska. The following is a newspaper account of the tragic event and his grave marker in the Barneston cemetery. Other than census records, this is all I found about him.

Geo.J. Kral Studio,Beatrice,Neb

A YOUNG FARMER ENDS HIS LIFE
Wymore, Neb, June 14,1893.

Complained of a headache, went to his room, and shot himself
Coroner's Inquest: Failed to uncover the cause for his rash act.

Special - Venul Herink, a well known and popular young man living with his parents on a farm fifteen miles southeast of here, committed suicide about 11 o'clock this forenoon. He was twenty years old. About 9 o'clock he came in from the field where he had been working and complained of a severe headache. His mother applied some liniment and after removing his shoes he went to his room on the upper floor of the house.

Not long after, his parents were attracted to the house by a heavy noise and on entering detected a smell of burning powder. Hurrying to their son's room they found him lying on the bed, dead, with blood flowing from a gaping wound in his left side. His clothing was on fire, but was quickly extinguished. The wound was inflicted by a shot gun, the charge passing through the left lung. How the gun was discharged was not discovered but presumably, with his toe.

Coroner Albright and Deputy Sheriff Kyd left Beatrice for the scene at 2:30 pm. The foregoing facts were alone brought out at the inquest. There was no apparent or discoverable motive for the act. The jury returned a verdict of suicide committed during a temporary derangement of the mind, probably brought on by overheating. He was the only son in the family and was well thought of in the community.

MY COUSIN TWICE REMOVED

News Article from Marysville, Kansas, Newspaper, Regarding New Community Hospital

MISS ANNA CHERNY RECALLS "FIRST" BEGINNING, "I love life". Those are the sentiments of Miss Anna Cherny, 72, who started as a nurse, when the now old hospital first got its start. Actually, Miss Cherny is still an employee of the hospital, although she officially retired in 1951, she still orders the food for the hospital and is still on payroll. Originally , from Barneston, Miss Cherny entered the nursing profession in 1912, after study at Sabetha Training School, now St. Anthony's. She went to work for Dr. J. W. Randall in 1921, and became superintendent of the hospital when it was established and together they planned the new hospital in Marysville. Miss Cherny has played an important part in the development of the hospital and its standing. In fact, then there wasn't a single job there that she couldn't handle. She said that "I have been in on so many surgeries and baby deliveries that its impossible to remember them all".Many people have credited her with saving lives. Miss Cherny now lives with her Mother, Mary, and her dog, Ginger, at 311 No. 8th, in a neat well kept house. She still drives her car and does her own house work. She raised a nephew, Pearl Hines, who came to her home when he was eleven. He is now married and superintendent of schools at Wallace, Nebraska. Miss Cherny and her mother are close companions; her father died in 1944 at the age of 81. She will be remembered for her dedication and service in caring for people in the area.

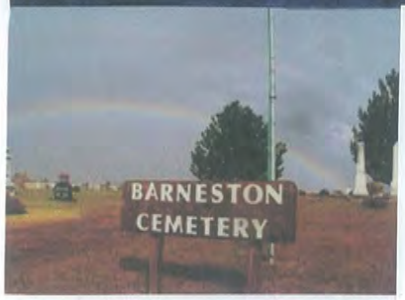

LEFT; MY GREAT AUNT. THEY SAID SHE WAS 94 WHEN SHE DIED, BUT MY RECORDS FROM EUROPE TELL ME SHE WAS 84.

MARY HERINK , second daughter and fourth child of Vencil and Frances Svolba Herink has some mystery surrounding her as does her sister who was born in Horni stupno Bohemia in February 1867. The 1870 census says her age was one year old in August of that year. Her family descendants say her birth date is April 15, 1868. I have already mentioned that there is no record of her being baptised in Iowa, as their succeeding children were, and, on her marriage certificate she gives her age as 19 on May 14, 1885. She married Vencil James Cherny. He was born September 27, 1863. They purchased a farm on the Otoe Indian Reservation near Barneston and lived there until 1926. They had 9 children pictured below:

James, Joe, Lewis; Mary, Anna, Frances, Josephine; Vencil, George, Nettie and Mary. Other photo is the same studio where Aloise's picture was taken and is Mary , about the age she was when she got married.

MY GRANDPARENTS

JOSEPH AND MARY NOVOTNY HERINK , had mysterious deaths. Joseph died in Omaha in a hotel room October 24, 1916, where he was on a cattle buying trip and had been gone from home several weeks. He was found by the hotel manager when he failed to appear for breakfast. All attempts to obtain a death certificate from Nebraska or Kansas have been unsuccessful.

Mary Novotny Herink predicted her own death according to her daughters' account of the day she died. The morning started as usual but as they sat for breakfast an owl landed on an open window. Mary said "That means there will be a death in the family today". They went about their morning chores, the girls going to the barn to milk the cows. Upon returning as they approached the house they heard a loud crash and they saw a large tree next to the house fall to the ground. There lay their mother 's lifeless body. She passed away August 27, 1924. Mary was interred beside Joseph in the National Cemetery, Narka, Kansas.

MY GREAT GRANDPARENTS

FRANK AND MARIE VOSTRA (Y) NOVOTNY , my great grandparents, shown below with their family. They are the parents of my great grandmother , Marie, who married Joeseph Herink, Sr. Frank was born in Pritoky, house no. 3, Czechoslavakia, April 6, 1838. He married Marie, (born December 23, 1837) January 11, 1858, of Kostomlaty, house no. 30. Nine children were born to them there; two more after they came to the U. S. in 1876. They lived in Pawnee County; sometime around 1881 to 1901 they moved to Oklahoma City, where Frank passed away September 6, 1901. Marie passed away November 24, 1904. They were interred in the Czech National cemetery located near downtown Oklahoma City. The land was part of a farm belonging to their daughter, Katherina and husband Anton Blecha. Their small daughter passed away in infancy so they started the cemetery for her. It eventually grew to include the resting place for many of their relatives, while the city continued to grow around it. Marie was not in the family photo so she appears in the inset.

Elsie Herink, third child of Frank and Anna Fisher Herink was born March 4, 1893, and was married to Joseph Bazant January 15, 1915 in Munden, Kansas. They did not have any children and were interred in the Narka cemetery right next to the front gate. Their graves have a cement cover with their pictures encased.

There is a story from the family that they had a quarrel over farms and land that Frank had owned. When he died Charles got the inheritance as Elsie had gotten a farm when she got married. Anyway, they did not get along after that; so, when I asked if they had family pictures they could share, the answer was "Elsie had them". So, since she had no children, she apparently did not keep the family photos. Elsie died in 1970 and Joseph in 1951. Frank died November 28, 1933.

CHARLES HERINK, JR., son of Charles and Anna Kopsa Herink, Sr., was born July 15,1 1915. He married Tyra Lahodny in 1934 at Beloit, Kansas. Charles passed away January 13, 2009, and Tyra passed away May 20, 2013.

He started school at Tabor Country School. He and his parents later moved to Cuba, where they had a dairy. Every morning and evening, he would deliver milk to their customers. Sometimes he would be late for school, but being a good student, he was excused. They moved to Concordia, where Charles was employed by the State Highway Department and later took a job with List and Clark Construction. In 1939, Charles, Tyra and small son Jim moved to Clyde, where he began farming. He was one of the first farmers in the area to have a mounted corn picker and plant soybeans. Besides his own work, Charles did a lot of custom work. In the winter, he would haul hay with Bernard Chavey and help his good friend Arvid Detrixhe working on vacuvators and making deliveries. When he retired from farming, Charles worked for Joe Detrixhe until his health began to fail. He liked to hunt, fish, play pool, attend auto races and work in the garden in his spare time.

FRANK HERINK IS DEAD

Frank Herink, pioneer resident of the community of Cuba, is dead, having passed away at the State Hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska, following a severe paralytic stroke.

Funeral services will be held at the Tabor cemetery at 2:30, Thursday afternoon, conducted by Stanley Zakostelsky of Narka.

Frank Herink was born at Pelzen, Czeckoslovakia, July 15, 1858, and died at Lincoln, Nebraska, November 28, 1933 at the age of 75 years, four months and 13 days.

At seven years of age he came with his parents to America and the family settled near Richmond, Iowa, where he grew to manhood. In 1884 he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Fisher of Odell. To this union were born three children. One son, Albert, and their mother preceded their father in death.

The family moved to this community in 1892 from Barnston, Nebr., and made their home here until the death of the mother in 1914.

In addition to the two living children Mrs. Elsie Bazant of Narka and Charles of Cuba, Mr. Herink is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Leo Bohner of Lincoln, Nebr., and Mrs. James Cerny of Barnston, Nebr; one grandson, Charles Herink of Cuba; and a host of other relatives and friends.

MY COUSIN ONCE REMOVED

ALBERT HERINK, eldest son of Frank and Anna, had a short and rather tragic life. His early years were uneventful and he served in the National Guard ; owned his own farm and livestock. He was well respected for his accomplishments in the community. He evidently fell in love with the wrong woman and that led to his demise. Below is an excerpt from the local newspaper detailing the story. Also shown is his grave marker in the Tabor cemetery.

On April 3 ,1928, Albert was questioned by deputy fire marshals at the courthouse. Albert confessed to setting fire to the opera house in Cuba, Kansas on February 26, 1928, and signed a confession that he wrote to Joe Barton of Cuba, who is in charge of renting the Odd Fellows Hall and making threats against his renting to the Sokoi Lodge, depriving them of meeting there. Albert Herink, a bachelor, lived on his farm five miles northwest of Cuba. He was keeping company with a widow who liked to dance at the Sokol Society meetings. He did not dance, did not want her to do so, and wanted to get rid of the places where dances were held. Albert confessed to burning down the dance pavilion on May 12, 1927. While the county attorney was preparing papers for his arrest, he walked away, went to a drug store,bought some poison, and committed suicide.

A SUICIDE IN THE FAMILY

Frank and Anna farmed one mile east and one half mile south of Tabor, Kansas, and owned several acres plus livestock. Life was not easy and on June 9, 1914; Anna took her own life, the following is an exerpt from the Belleville Telescope newspaper.

Mrs. Anna Herink, wife of a prominent farmer, living near Tabor and 8 miles northeast of Bellville, committed suicide early Tuesday morning by hanging herself with a piece of binding twine in the cob shed. No cause was given for this rash deed and the family believes she became temporarily insane.

Mrs Herink was 56 years old, retired as usual Monday evening and sometime Tuesday Morning she secured an old piece of binding twine and going to the cob shed fastened it to a nail , then around her neck, strangling herself to death.Mr. Herink not missing his wife got up early and went to the barn to do his chores. He missed several turkeys and started to search for them, going to the cob shed for his boots, where he discovered the body of his wife. She had been dead for some time.She and her husband had been living near Tabor for a good many years and are highly respected members of the community. Three children survive their mother. Burial will be held Thursday, June 11, 1914.

Below is the entrance of the Tabor cemetery and the Herink stone. There are stones on the sides saying: Otec Frantisek Herink 1858 - 1933 and Matka Anna Herink 1858 - 1914.

MY GREAT UNCLE FRANK, BROTHER OF MY GREAT GRANDFATHER

There are again gaps in our records for the Vencil and Frances Herink family. The only happening after they appeared on the 1800 census in Kansas appears to be the marriage of Frank, the eldest son, at the age of 24. His bride was Anna Fisher age 20, and her parents were Frank Fisher and Barbara Chapek, both born in Austria/Bohemia. The certificate was dated Febuary 28, 1884 and took place in Beatrice, Gage county, Nebraska. They had three children, Albert, born Jan. 1885; Charles, 21 April 1886; and Elsie, 4 May, 1894. Appearing below is a wedding photo of Frank and Anna; and the children Albert, Charles and Elsie. Anna's wedding dress is in color. White dresses were not tradionally used until Queen Victoria was married in white in England. She is credited with introducing the custom.

VENCIL AND FRANCES SVOLBA HERINK WERE INTERRED IN BARNESTON, NEBRASKA. Their death certificate appear below. The dates are not correct as to birthdays; but at least the death date should be. In the Belleville Telescope an article appeared as follows: "Mrs Frances Herink, 94, mother of Frank Herink of Cuba, died a the home of her daughter, Mrs Vencil Cherny in Center Township near Marysville after 42 years in America. She came first to Iowa,then with her husband, Vencil, to Barneston, where her body was taken for burial. Mrs. Leo Bohner, daughter of the diseased, lives in Barneston." She was not 94 years old, having been born in 1937, instead of 1927 as the certificate indicates. I received her birth date from the archives in Bohemia.

Below is a copy of the 1885 census of Nebraska showing the Vencil Herink and also the Frank and Anna Herink famlies. A huge surprise here, as Aloise (Eliza) is missing. In a diary of my Mother's , she mentioned that Eliza ran away from home and was never heard from again. She was never talked about either, unless in whispered tones. My theory is that she may have gone back to Iowa where there could have been a boy friend from her early days waiting for her. She would have been around 18 years old. I have posted inqueries on the internet but in vain since if she married her name would have been changed.

Mrs. Frances Herink, 94, mother of Frank Herink of Cuba , died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vencil Cherney in Center Township near Marysville, after 42 years in America. She came first to Iowa, then, moved with her husband, Vencil to Barneston, where her body was taken for burial. Mrs. Leo Bohner, daughter of the diseased, lives in Barneston.

Records are sparse for this family after the 1870 census and the baptisms of their children in Richland. Vencil did apply for citizenship. The children attended a one room schoolhouse in their area. After they completed eight grades they worked at home. In 1880 they appear in the census for Hanover Township in Washington county state of Kansas. (Copy Below)

PHOTOS SHOW THE SOUKUP FAMILY AND HOLY TRINITY CHURCH IN RICHMOND

County, English River Township, the same area where their cousins live.

We have a surprise here, as another child, Mary appears and her age is one. No records were kept for births in Iowa until 1900, so there is nothing giving us her actual birth date, except handed down family dates. Her baptism is not recorded at the Holy Trinity church in Richmond, as the succeeding children were. I do have an explanation for that. It seems that the old church was torn down in 1868 and a new one constructed but not finished until 1875. Therefore, her baptism may not have taken place in the church.

JOURNEY FROM HORNI STUPNO NEAR PLSEN, CZECHOSLOVAKIA TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Extensive research has been conducted but no record has been found regarding the Vencil and Frances Herink family reaching America. It was in 1867 after the birth of their daughter, Aloise, that they must have sold their house and somehow made their way to Iowa. The next record of them is on the 1870 census of Washington county, English River township, Iowa. Ellis Island was not open at that time and they did not appear in the records of other ports known to receive immigrants. It has been suggested that they may have come in from Canada and journeyed down the St Lawrence River, taking a train to Iowa. We do know that cousins , Venceslaus and Josephine Soukup, were already established there having made the journey in 1857. Reviewing the family history of the Soukup family written by Jean Sage, a descendant, the birth dates of the children are not recorded except for one, Joseph , who was born in 1849 in Beroun, Bohemia. The only dates for other children appear on the census records and according to that he was the only one born in Bohemia (it says Austria, which was technically true at the time).

Joseph Soukup and Antonia Korous, Joseph being a cousin to our Vencil Herink , through the maternal line, came to the United States in 1857 with their parents and eventually married each other in Iowa. Joseph's parents purchased land in Washington County, English River Township and built two log cabins there. They prospered and were able to purchase more land later. They may have been in contact with our Vencil and upon learning that the Soukups were doing well , he decided to uproot his family and seek his fortune too.

When Vencil and Frances Herink arrived in 1867, with their children: Frank, Joseph and Eliza they drop out of sight in records . They appear on the August 1870 census for Washington

They moved to Horni Stupno after that , a village south of Brezany and in the district of Rokycany. Vencil was a journeyman carpenter (that term may mean licensed) and he was employed in a factory in Plzen. He built their home in Stupno, house #6, and it is located across the road from the railway station. The house is large and is cement or stucco taking the whole corner of the lot and an enclosure surrounding it.

Below is the view outside the village and the railway station.

JAKUB SVOLBA (October 15, 1798) in Brezany house #42, lived all his life there and it is recorded that he passed away in that same place, February 17, 1844 at age 45, due to Tuberculosis. His parents were FRANZ SVOLBA, living at Brezany, house 42, and Katerina Kosta, daughter of Peter Kosta living in the village of Belbovice, house # 16.

photos: views of Trimany; and Belbovice house #16. This was an assumption as there was no number but the house next door was no. 15 so it may or may not be the right house. We asked some ladies but couldn't understand them...they tried hard to talk to us. They didn't understand "16". As I recall I think we wrote it down and they nodded. So maybe??

Descendents of this family came to the US and settled in Iowa prior to our Vencelaus and Frances Herink moving there and were sponsers for the children born there. They were Joseph and Antonia Soukup. Below are photos of the church and the Beroun river looking towards Liblin. The house has been demolished and a manufacturing plant stands there next to the church.

ST MARGARET CHURCH ,MAIN STREET ,VILLAGE OF BREZANY

Pictured is the church in early times and today. Gravestones have our names but , relationship is unknown, Graves are inside fence around the church.

ANNA PETRASEK , WIFE OF JOSEF HERINK, was born July 6, 1797, in Brezany, house #4, and died March 10, 1828,in Brezany, house #48. Her parents were: Josef Petrasek, farmer, born August 1, 1772, and Anna Kraus. They married in 1827 in Brezany, house #4.

JOSEPH PETRASEK'S parents were: Vaclav Petrasek, born August 2, 1740 in Brezany, #4; and Veronika Pittner, no birth date; on January 30, 1770, in Zavidov. The bride was from Sipy.

We know very little about Anna Kraus's parents. Only that her father was Vaclav Kraus, and her mother was Veronika. They lived in Malinova, house #12. Below are images of the house, which would have been the 12th house to be built in the village.

MATERNAL GRANDMOTHERS FAMILY

JOSEPH PETRASEK and his spouse Anna Kraus, married about 1794, had six children all born in Brezany, house #4. Veronika, September 16, 1795; ANNA PETRASEK(our line), born July 6, 1797, who married JOSEF HERINK, Frantisek Petrasek, born April 16, 1799, Petr Petrasek, born June 28, 1801; (passed away December 22, 1803, at the age of 2 years, 6 months;) Maria Petrasek born May 8, 1803 (passed away December 12, 1803, at 6 months of age) Maria Petrasek, born January 1, 1805 (passed away July 16, 1808 at 3 years due to Smallpox)

This is the house #4 in Brezany. It is situated on the main street of the town square and when we visited was occupied by the Svolba family, who could be a descendant of my great grandmother, Frantiska Svolba Herink. The house includes a large lot, fenced, and a large enclosure in the back with other buildings.

TRAGIC INFANT DEATHS

MY GREAT GREAT GRANDPARENTS

JOSEPH HERINK,son of JOHANN HERINK and wife Veronika, was born February 5, 1793 in Sipy ,house # 14, and he married Anna Petrasek daughter of Joseph and Anna Kraus Petrasek. They went to live in Brezany #4. They moved to house #48 in 1834. JOSEPH died February 26, 1846 at age 53, at Brezany #6. The cause of death was recorded as "stickfluss", a term unknown to other researchers, but rather descriptive. It seems that there may have been some bronchial disease as evidenced by their first child (see below).

JOSEPH HERINK was a master carpenter by trade, and also was in the military service. His lung condition did not keep him out of the service, or it contributed to it.

Their children: Vaclav Herink- August 10, 1827; died March 30,1828, of what was written as a Glottal Spasm; and buried in Brezany. (could this be Asthma?)

Josef Herink, April 10, 1830, Brezany #4; and VACLAV HERINK, our direct ancestor; August 16, 1834, at Brezany #4.

DEATH OF FATHER AND CHILD

JOHANN MICHAEL HERINK moved to Sipy, house no. 14, sometime in 1790, with his family and was awarded a position of prestige connected with the fortress there. It is not understood what that was and may have been a military one. His death is recorded as occurring February 10, 1793, a few days after the birth of his 4th child, Joseph. This is conjecture, but, he could have died in some uprising in the area, as those were tumultuous times. Photos are scenes from the village and the Fortress or Stronghold.

JOHANN MICHAEL HERINK and Veronika were blessed with a child named Josepha Herink on June 19, 1787, baptized the 20th. Katerina Herink arrived March 5, 1790, and was christened the same day. Sadly, their third child, Johann, born February 13,1792, perished on the 18th. He was baptized on the 14th; laid to rest in the Cista cemetery. JOSEPH HERINK, 2nd boy, 4th child; was born February 5, 1793,

The family moved from Cista, house #61, sometime after the birth of their 2nd child as JOHANN and JOSEPH HERINK were born in the village of Sipy, house #14.

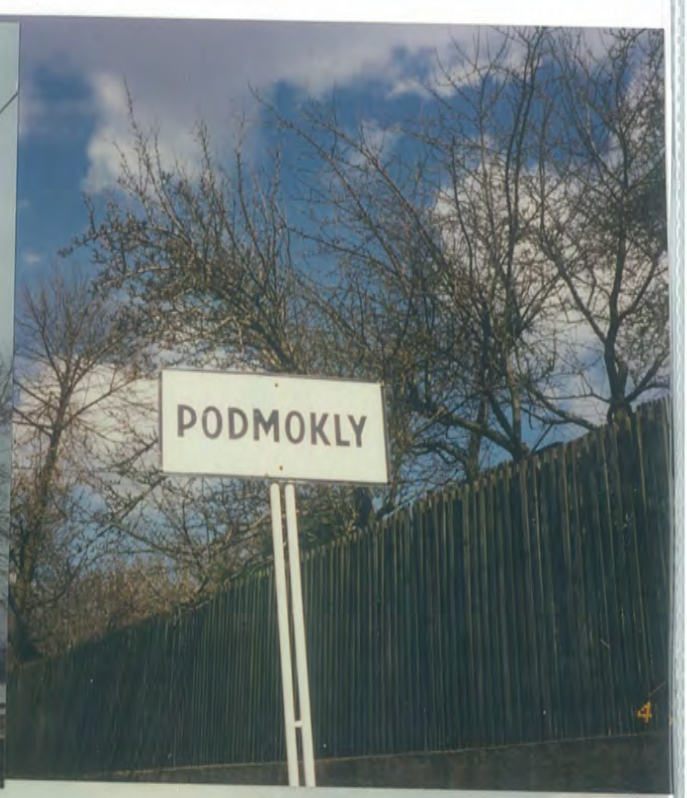

MATERNAL FAMILY - HULA

VERONIKA HULA, wife of JOHANN MICHAEL HERINK, was born to Venceslaus Vaclav Hula and his spouse Maria Magdalena. in Podmokly, the fourth child, on August 2, 1764. Her siblings were:

OPS FIELDS USED IN BEER MAKING

MY GREAT GREAT GREAT GRANDPARENTS

JOHANN MICHAEL HERINK, son of Vaclav and Catherina was united in marriage to Veronika Hula of Podmokly on May 6, 1787. They moved to Cista, not far from Zavidov, still in the Rakovnik district. It is recorded that they resided in House no 61. A picture of it appears below, vacant , but possibly due for renovation. It was in the typical style with a large enclosed lot and other buildings inside the enclosure. Shown is the Town Hall, Church, and House no. 61. The history of this village dates to the middle of the 11th century when the intercolonization of Bohemia under Duke Bretislav I ,took place. In 1039 it was besieged and the residents of the village along with their cattle fled to the forest. They were then taken into the protection of Krivoklat Castle under the Bretislavs. Later we find mention that they settled along the river Cistecky.

KRAKOVEK CASTLE NEAR THE VILLAGES OF OUR ANCESTORS

This castle was built in 1381, finished in 1383, in Gothic style with a wooden bridge over a moat. It was under siege during the Thirty Year War in the 17th century, rebuilt, but in 1783 it was struck by lightening and burned so it is now a ruin. The stone walls remain. It is within a few miles of our ancestral villages and is interesting because beside the castle is a Monument to World War I naming the local boys that perished. On the photo, the last name listed is ANTONIN HERINK age 21.
