/ If you're interested in helping out with computer graphics and animation at your home school, here is the link for the NCSDA. Okay, I'm done with the Friday content. We've got some time left until Christmas. I'd like to do a new site, so all you need to do is send me an e-mail at druggysabre@hotmail.com and let me know if you'd like me to do a site for you and me to get started! It doesn't have to be elaborate, it just has to be interesting. Friday, December 5, 2010 Hey everyone! Welcome back to the Friday Farm. I haven't had much time to do any computer stuff, other than my sites, which I will talk about later. So I decided I would start up a writer's page for me, where I could put all my writing. I would like to read your comments, good or bad. I'm not much of a poet, but I am learning. For today, I'll post some things I have written. My book My most recent publication was a fairytale called The Daughter of Light. The main characters are a young maiden, named Victoria and a fairy that was slain on Christmas Eve, only to be brought back by Victoria's mother. The story goes back to when Victoria was still a young girl. Her mother was a strong, faith-filled Christian and taught her to look for good in all things. The Daughter of Light is about forgiveness and redemption. It deals with the joy of giving and receiving forgiveness and the tragic feeling of revenge. As the story unfolds, Victoria learns to stand on her own two feet and look to the future rather than obsessing about the past. She learns that forgiveness doesn't mean forgetting what happened, but it does mean letting go and trusting in the fact that you will move forward. As she learns to forgive, she learns to love. Another blog I started another blog to practice writing. It is called Dragon's Gaze. I am doing this with the help of two other writers. I am hoping to get the feel for blogging and writing together, and get some critiques. I have a few ideas for this blog, but I need some help. I need a name for my blog, the title, etc. I know that it will have some structure, meaning it won't be just a random blog, but I want to give it a 520fdb1ae7
