I saw this recipe online some time ago, and I just had to do it. Everyone loves PINAPPLE! But.. it makes a great pound of cake. I halved the recipe, and it turned out to be great! He got 10 of my friends ripped over there wild dreams! And.. I still have it! (only when you're done, don't forget to freeze it! It takes about 1 minute to defrost on the counter, and so you can save it for a month or more) 1 can (20 ounces) crushed pineapple, undrained, separated by 1/2 cup vegetable reduction 1 cup cannibutter (2 sticks) 2 cups granulated sugar, 6 large eggs and 3 cups sifted all-purpose flour 1 teaspoon baking powder 1/4 cup milk 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, real things come on people! 1/4 cup butter or margarine - 1 1/2 cups of confectioner's sugar (just advice. PREPARATION: Put 3/4 cup of inextricable pineapple with its juice in a small bowl; Select. Drain the remaining pineapple and measure 1 cup; Select. Cream reduction, butter and sugar. Add the eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. 1 large spoon at a time, alternately with milk. Add vanilla; Stir in 3/4 cup undrained pineapple with juice and mix well. Pour the dough into a well-oiled and floured 10-inch pan of tube. Place in a cold oven. Turn the oven to 325 and bake for 1 1/2 hours, or until the top springs back when touched lightly with your finger. Let the pineapple pound cake stand for a few minutes in the pan. You run the knife around the edges to loosen and remove the pineapple cake thoroughly to the rack. Mix butter, confectioner sugar and about 1 cup of drained pineapple. Pour the pineapple sauce on the cake while the heat is hot. That's great! It takes about an hour, up to an hour and a half, to kick an inch 2 inch slice... F'ed me. More than 10 hours!
