

ACACIA QUILT GUILD

SMALL AND MIGHTY!

NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

VOLUME 23
ISSUE 6

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy Holidays to Home & Community of Orange County!

This is the time of year when we count our blessings and give thanks for all that we have.

Special thanks to Barbra Riley, 1st Vice-President, for handling meetings so capably while I was travelling in Europe.

All gratitude goes to my friends in Acacia who contribute time, treasure, and talent to Acacia Philanthropy. We have had many successful projects from these generous quilters. Over 120 Halloween Bags were made for the special needs students at the George Key School in Placentia.

Per the City's request (via Mark Saucedo), Acacia will have a display of quilts made by guild members at the Buena Park City Council Chambers for the next few weeks. I hope that many guild members will be able to visit and see the beautiful quilts.

In December, we will have our wonderful annual Holiday Party. Come and celebrate with your Acacia friends!

I wish all of you a Happy Thanksgiving this year. May we enjoy time with our friends and family as we give thanks!

Sonia

Quotes of the Month

“Don’t wait until the fourth Thursday in November to sit with family and friends to give thanks.” — Charmaine J. Forde

Hospitality by Michelle Smith, Hospitality Chair

“Start each day with an attitude of gratitude.”

It’s a Potato Bar Feast! The Hospitality team invites guild members to bring your “Baked Potato Bar Toppings” to our November 5th meeting. Hospitality thanks everyone for their generosity at our potlucks with some special door prizes this month. Come hungry, happy, and with hearts filled with gratitude this Thanksgiving season. Blessings!

FUNDRAISING by Shar Taira

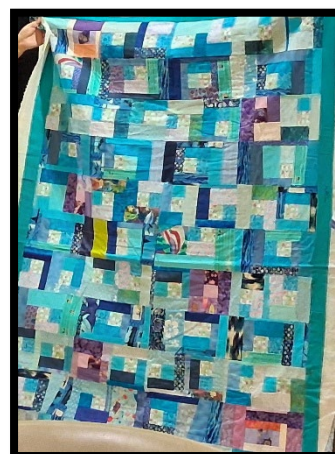

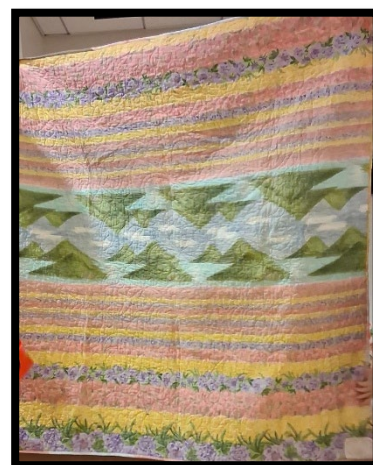

The fundraiser at Rubio’s Coastal Grill is happening November 19th all day at 7063 Katella Avenue, Stanton. The attached ad on this newsletter and on our website is a reminder to all our members to bring your family and friends all day for our fundraiser!

We need everyone to come out a support this fundraiser. Here’s a suggestion to Board Members: Since November 19th is a board meeting evening, to all board members: please consider eating dinner at Rubio’s, then head to the board meeting afterwards! Thank you!

The poster features the Rubio's logo at the top, followed by the headline "MAKE AN IMPACT. ONE TACO AT A TIME." Below this is a row of five different tacos. The text continues: "RUBIO'S FUNDRAISER FOR ACACIA QUILT GUILD OF ORANGE COUNTY". The event details are listed: "THURSDAY NOVEMBER 19, 2026 ALL DAY" at "7063 KATELLA AVENUE STANTON, CA 90680". A yellow circle highlights "30% OF EVENT SALES DONATED*". At the bottom, it says "Recommended ORDER FOR PICKUP OR DELIVERY ON THE RUBIO'S APP OR RUBIO'S.COM" with a note to "Enter coupon code 'DONATE' during checkout." and "IN-RESTAURANT ORDERS" with a note to "Present flyer and scan the QR code at the register." A QR code is located in the bottom right corner.

Arizona. Bev was an active member of Acacia from 2010 until 2021 when her health deteriorated to a point that she could no longer attend meetings.

Bev taught quilting at ABC Unified School District and gave several workshops for Acacia, including the “Presents” workshop in 2016. (Many of us still have that fabric among our UFOs, but here’s a photo of a completed one.)

PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS by Amy Estrada & Isabel Cervantes

November 2026 Workshop—Melanie Hays

Outdoor Holiday Wreath Double Sided Garden Flag - November 7, 2026

Melanie will be teaching us how to make an outdoor flag. There are items required for this class that you may already have. Your fabrics need to be pre-washed and pressed. I have the supply list, and please allow time to order a couple items on the list if you do not have them already. This workshop does not require a kit purchase. One of the items on the supply list is "Therm-O Web." It's on sale now at the Fat Quarter Shop. Call me and I will send you the link and/or supply list.

January 2027—Brown Bag; No speaker. I haven't secured a workshop for that month yet, but I'm working on it.

FREE SEW DAYS by Barbra Riley

The plastic bins with scraps will be available at all Free Sew Days in November. Come to look for that perfect color to add to the scrap quilt you are doing for the Scrap Quilt Challenge. The finished challenge quilt is due at January 2027 guild meeting. A sign-up sheet for the challenge has been started and will be available at the November meeting.

There are currently 14 members who signed up for the challenge. Everybody has scraps! Don't miss this chance to show what you can do with what is available for free! Think of it as part of the ecology movement. Reduce waste!

In November the Free Sew Saturdays will be on the 14th and the 21st. The Picasso room will be open at 9:00am if you want to bring your machine and sew. Or, just come to visit. Free advice is always available.

PHILANTHROPY by Barbra Riley

Acacia is making progress on many of our goals in philanthropy. The 100 Halloween bags for the students at George Key School were completed and presented to them at our October 15th Board meeting.

The 250 Patriotic items project is progressing. So far, 42 items have been turned in; six quilts, 34 pillowcases, one shirt saver, and one table runner. (Some of the scrap quilts might also go towards this project.)

Since October is almost over, we need to start thinking about the stockings and stocking stuffers that we give to Thomas House at Christmas. Martha Figueroa has been contacted regarding a preliminary number of children living there this year, but she has not given us a total number yet because they are installing a new family this week. Sonia will be accepting donations at the November meeting toward the purchase of stocking stuffers to fill in any gaps in our supply of stocking stuffers.

Phil's Place by Barbra Riley

In October Phil's Place will be on October 27th. We will probably still be going through the latest donation of fabric. Donations tend to have scrap fabric, UFOs and miscellaneous left-over blocks.

More pillowcases with juvenile themes are needed for the stockings going to Thomas House, so kits for another 10 to 15 will need to be made up.

Phil's place starts at 2:00pm at Phyllis Victor's house. This is the meeting time for the Philanthropy Committee, but everyone is welcome. This is also the place to bring any ideas for a new philanthropy. Phyllis has much of Acacia's supply of donated fabrics, so if you need backing for a philanthropy quilt, this is a good place to find it without going to the storage unit.

✓ Quilts on Display

Mark Saucedo invited AQG to provide quilts for the city council chamber's display. The quilts will be on display NOV 4 – DEC 10. We will arrange a date for a tour of the display. All are welcome to attend to view the quilts. A date will be announced in the e-mail blast.

✓ Treasurer's Report

Our financial status was reviewed at our board meeting. Reports have been printed at each general meeting for review by the membership. It was approved to move a portion of the money earned from the Tea & Quilt Auction from our checking account into an interest earning savings account or short-term CD. We are still researching the correct location to establish this new account.

We have the audit team members, but we have not conducted the annual audit for 2025-2026. We should conduct the audit before the end of fiscal year. It is my hope to have this done by January 2027. I would like to thank Isabel Cervantes and Susan Fisher in advance for offering their time to complete this task. Results will be shared once the audit is completed.

Detailed financial reports are available upon request at any time. Should you have any questions regarding our finances, please contact Helene Born 714 504-2614 or email treasurer@acaciaquiltguild.org.

✓ Opportunity Quilt: Enchanted Kaleidoscope

We need volunteers to take the quilt out to other guild meetings and scheduled events.

Showing of our opportunity quilt is an important part of raising awareness of our guild and providing funds for our speakers and workshops. Please contact Helene Born to assist with this endeavor.

Our annual goal is $2,500 and we have made a total of $837.00 in ticket sales YTD.
Tickets are $1.00 each or six for $5.00.
Winner Drawn June 3, 2027

Below is the current schedule for October through February 2027. When you travel with the quilt you get to attend another guild meeting at no charge. It's a wonderful way to hear the speaker and meet others with your quilting interest!

You can work any day of the show (1/20/2027 - 1/23/2027) and will get free entry on the day you volunteer.

✓ Silverado Days Raffle Ticket Sales

AQG assisted the Lions Club of Buena Park by selling Silverado Days raffle tickets. This was a remarkably successful endeavor. We sold $246.00 and AQG split this 50% with the Lions Club of BP so our net was $124.00.

✓ CAPS FOR KIDS

Several Ronald McDonald House Chapters in the U.S. still collect CAPS FOR KIDS (bottle caps and pull tabs) to help raise funds for their programs that provide family-centered care to families and children. Joan Sento collects the caps so please save them for her and bring them to the meeting. Your support is appreciated!

✓ Guilds Offering Workshops

Members of the following guilds can attend AQG workshops for our Member Price: $35. Local guilds have agreed to allow our members to attend their workshops for their member price.
