PathBrite Admin Definitions mean that your employees (i.e. teachers, faculty, and/or administrators) have access to PathBrite in connection with the provision of your educational services and operations to student users. Student users mean individual students who are enrolled in your educational program (s) and who have accounts to use the PathBrite service due to these conditions. Users mean collectively, Administrator users and student users. Using PathBrite in accordance with terms of use, including these additional conditions, and during the lifetime of your Order (Term). Cengage grants you permission to allow Admin users to access and use The PathBrite Service solely in connection with your educational operations and coursework for student users, and it is understood that the use of PathBrite by student users depends on the use of PathBrite by student users, such student users have terms of use, including these additional conditions. Administrator users can access additional PathBrite features designed to make it easier for student users to administer PathBrite. Each admin user will be you must have an account and password, and you will be fully responsible for all actions in the PathBrite Service that occur in the administrator's user account, including user content. Provided that you comply with the terms of use of Cengage, including these additional conditions, including the payment of all applicable fees, Cengage will provide support services and use commercially reasonable efforts to meet the service level obligations outlined below. The submissions and guarantees that you submit, the warrant and covenant of Cengage that you must, and that it is your only responsibility to obtain any and all necessary consent to authorize you to release applicable student users of educational records (as such a term is defined in the Family Education and Privacy Rights Act (FERPA) in Cengage with the aim of providing PathBrite services to users at present (any such covered educational records) Cengage's support and level of service will provide the support services described in this Section. Full responsibility for supporting its users. Main Support Contacts and Watch: Technical Support Contact Email (support@pathbrite.com) Phone (415-766-4505) East Support Hours 9am-8pm , Monday-Friday except for U.S. federal holidays (Business Hours). If PathBrite does not work substantially in accordance with the Documentation (Problem), your assigned support contact should, as reasonably feasible, contact Cengage by email at the address specified by Cengage and provide a detailed description of the nature of the problem, as well as all other technical data (including any applicable error codes or messages) so that Cengage can analyze and correct the problem. Cengage will use commercially reasonable efforts during working hours to provide workarounds and solutions to properly reported problems. If necessary, Cengage can disable access to PathBrite to maintain and upgrade the system, usually between 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 P.M. Pacific time, except in cases of immediate security or similar need (e.g., security patches, etc.) (Service). Cengage will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide you with advance notice of such service. PathBrite will be available to administrator and student users 99.5% of the time, 7 days a week and 24 hours a day (Commitment), as calculated during the calendar month (unforgivable deviation from the Commitment). The downtime obligation does not apply to service interruptions that are the result or caused: 1) 1) 2) IT or network infrastructure that is not controlled by Cengage; 3) any user or other third party, do not reward under the control of Cengage. If Cengage fails to meet its Uptime obligations in any given month as your only and exclusive remedy, and Cengage's sole and all liability, Cengage will provide you with a loan for use solely for professional services or a subscription fee paid at a subsequent extension (Service Loans) amounting to a percentage of the applicable subscription fee per month during which Cengage has not complied with the Uptime Obligation. Read: #of hours of monthly downtime/credits for service qtr; 4 hours / 5% of the 4 hours to 24 hours / 8% qgt; 24 hours / 10% For example, if subscription The fee is $100,000 /yr., the service loan for 3 hours of monthly downtime is 5% of ($100,000 / 12), or $416.66. To get a service loan, you must request a service loan from your designated Cengage representative or Cengage support team. To be eligible, the request must (i) include the dates and times of each Downtime incident in the previous month; and (ii) be obtained by Cengage within 30 days of the end of the billing cycle for which downtime occurred. After receiving a request for a service loan in accordance with the above requirements, Cengage must have 30 days to review the request and verify the information provided. If Cengage faithfully determines that PathBrite has not complied with the uptime obligation, as stated in such a request, Cengage will apply the Service Credit to your account for your use, as described above. Unused service loans do not survive the termination or expiration date, and will not be refunded or repaid after any termination or expiration date. WebAssign WebAssign, a Cengage service available in www.webassign.com, includes online homework delivery, classification and functionality evaluation, and is available to instructors through a paid subscription, for certain classes and time. The primary goal of WebAssign Service is to provide teachers with a safe, accessible platform for assignment and evaluation of homework and assessments in order to assess student performance and understanding. WebAssign can also be used for quizzes, tests, labs, and self-training, depending on the instructor's use of WebAssign Service. In The WebAssign Service, educational materials, including textbooks, questions, answers, multimedia files and e-books, are available to students between the beginning and end of the date set by the instructor, courses for which access has been purchased. This is a limitation access to one semester, multi-day access and access to Lifetime Of Edition means that the student has access to the course materials whenever that student is enrolled in the course within the same where the same edition of such materials is used). WebAssign can only be used in conjunction with the educational course you are enrolled in or in which you teach or administer, if necessary, WebAssign IDs Student usernames and passwords can be provided by WebAssign for use with a WebAssign Service instructor (or, if the instructor chooses and, if any, by self-registration feature). WebAssign identifies any applicable agency code. You need to change your password before you start using WebAssign to prevent unauthorized access to your destinations. To facilitate communication between WebAssign and WebAssign Service users, as well as to find login information, we use email addresses. If your WebAssign Services account has been set up by your instructor or other administrator, your instructor or administrator can access or disable your account. WebAssign is not responsible for any actions or omissions of your instructor or other administrator. Shared content You can specify that shared content is generally available for use by all other WebAssign Service users, or only for WebAssign Service users who specifically allow to use shared content. The quest for a Lifetime Subscription, Cengage Service, offers lifelong subscriptions that will remain active for the life of the person who has purchased the subscription, or in the case of buying a gift, for the life of the person for whom the subscription was purchased. Lifetime subscriptions may be subject to additional terms set out in this Section. In accordance with the early termination clauses outlined below, lifelong subscribers will be granted access to the quest for at least 5 years (60 months). However, in the event that questa ceases service or stops doing business, or in the case of the acquisition of Kvestia, a terminate of control over Kvestia, a significant merger or other legal reorganization, questa can terminate lifetime subscriptions, returning your purchase price for a smaller amount calculated by multiplying the purchase price per share, the number of which is a full month from the time of purchase of a lifetime subscription and the denominator of which is 60. The quest has the right to change your account if you violate the terms of use of Cengage, including these additional conditions. If the quest stops your account due to a violation of Cengage's terms and conditions, including these additional terms, the quest will not refund a portion of your subscription price. The questa may occasionally introduce additional services that may be excluded from an existing lifetime subscription without Cost. If your lifetime subscription account has not been active for 5 years, we will assume that the account is down and will be online access to data. We will then store the data for an additional year before deleting your data. The action is defined as a login to the kvestia service. You can cancel your lifelong subscription on notification to questa, however, cancelling a lifetime quest subscription will not result in a refund. Subscriptions purchased for you by others, if your subscription has been purchased by someone else, you will not be billed by us. If you want to cancel your subscription, please contact customer service. Cancellation will not result in a refund. Plagiarism and Commercial Use Prohibited You agree not to abuse our research service by plagiarism or to present the work of others as your own. You cannot use this service in commercial terms, including charging other fees for accessing or selling collections of materials collected from our website. You are not allowed to copy any part of our site for distribution to others other than in the normal course of your personal or academic research. The quality and accuracy of the digitized titles we strive to ensure that electronic versions of the names in our Service fully reflect their original printed versions. While we are vigilant about ensuring the highest level of integrity of digitized titles, we do not guarantee the quality or accuracy of any information provided by the Service. Cengage Unlimited Cengage Unlimited gives you access to Cengage e-books, training programs, tutorials, and other resources on supported devices. The following conditions apply to Cengage Unlimited, and in addition to the basic conditions of Cengage use. Cengage Unlimited users are only available to users who are registered in institutions located in the United States. Cengage Unlimited is only used for personal use. You can access Cengage Unlimited on no more than two devices or sessions at the same time. Term you can purchase Cengage Unlimited for a one semester term, one year or two year term. A one-semester subscription lasts 4 months from the date of registration, unless Cengage has another deadline (for example, Cengage may choose to specify a longer period if you receive a subscription substantially before the start of the semester, or in connection with other one-time promotions). The annual subscription lasts 12 months from the start date of the subscription, and the two-year subscription lasts 24 months from the start date of the subscription. If you have purchased a one-semester subscription and are enrolled in many semester-course programs assigned over several semesters, you can continue to access and use the assigned many semester course programs at no additional cost. However, if you don't renew your Cengage Unlimited subscription, other Cengage Unlimited features (except the digital locker described below will not be available after the Cengage Unlimited subscription expires. If you enroll in one semester of coursework, during the term of your Cengage Unlimited subscription, and Cengage Unlimited subscription expires before the end of the course, you will no longer have access to your coursework, without buying an extension of your Cengage Unlimited subscription, or buying coursework separately. If you want to go to a longer term of Cengage Unlimited and get a prepayment credit, you must do so within the first 14 days of the start of the Cengage Unlimited paid subscription, as part of Cengage Unlimited, you have online access to the Cengage library of digital e-books. e-books are available in a variety of electronic formats. Some formats may not be fully available for viewing on your device. Courseware Your access to Cengage courseware (e.g. MindTap, WebAssign and OWL2) is limited to the educational offers of the course in which you are enrolled and for which you have received a valid course key from your instructor. Some courses may require items (such as workbooks and a third-party program and materials) that are not available for digitization into an e-book or Cengage courseware. Your instructor may require you to purchase such items and they are not included in the Cengage Unlimited subscription. Cengage courseware updates, e-books, tutorials, third-party products, and other resources included in Cengage Unlimited can be removed, added, replaced and updated from time to time by Cengage on your own, without notifying you. For example, in some cases, older editions of the e-book will not be available or removed. Auxiliary e-books and training programs in the Cengage library may not include supporting products and materials included in or complete with the relevant printed textbook (e.g. access to software, workbooks, tutorials, additional questions, etc., included in the printed textbook). Digital Locker users who have activated Cengage Unlimited subscriptions until February 1, 2020, may be eligible for a digital locker allowance. This advantage allows you to save up to 6 e-books as part of your Cengage Unlimited subscription and continue to access them for 1 year after the end of the paid Cengage Unlimited subscription. It's called your digital locker. After this one-year access period expires, you will no longer have access to stored e-books in your digital locker (unless you receive a new Cengage Unlimited subscription from the same account before the end of this annual period). Users who activate the Cengage Unlimited subscription after January 2020 will not have Digital Locker. Free trial: Non-refundable Cengage may, at its discretion, offer free trials of Cengage Unlimate's Circumstances. Once any free trial is completed, you must pay for a full Cengage Unlimited subscription or your Cengage Unlimited rights will be terminated. All fees paid for Cengage Unlimited are not refundable. Rent a tutorial If your instructor has assigned the use of Cengage courseware, which is included in the Cengage Unlimited, then you can get one free print tutorial rental associated with such a course, for use throughout the course if possible. You only need to pay the current shipping fee (the current shipping fee is listed on the Cengage Unlimited website). Printing textbooks are not available in all countries. At the discretion of Cengage, the rental of textbooks can be processed by a third-party service provider. You agree to any terms related to the textbook rental provided by a third-party Cengage service provider. Credits for previous purchases If you purchased a standalone Cengage courseware product prior to receiving a Cengage Unlimited subscription and for the same semester, Cengage will save you the amount paid for such a product to the Cengage Unlimited subscription fee. The maximum credit available to you is the amount of the Cengage Unlimited subscription fee. No refund is provided. Untransferable Cengage Unlimited subscriptions are personal to you and your current school. You can't transfer your subscription to any other person, and you can't use your Cengage Unlimited subscription if you move to another school. Ed2Go Ed2Go, a Cengage service available in www.ed2go.com, is an online provider of continuing education. Some Ed2Go courses offer certification to complete the course. You should get this certification directly from your instructor, after receiving the class. Career Online High School is a division of SHCOE (Smart Horizons Career Online Education), which has been granted district accreditation from the AdvancED/Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) Accreditation Commission. AdvancED/SACS District accreditation means that online schools and all affiliated partner schools can offer an accredited AdvancED/SACS high school diploma. The program requires that you complete a pre-certification high school optional course before enrolling in a full-time Career Online High School program to earn a diploma. After enrollment you will have eighteen (18) months to complete the coursework for your United States high school diploma. Cengage unlimited subscription 1 term (4 months) 1st edition.
