dearest, best little woman! –

friday at half past ten at night.

I have just got back from the opera; it was as full as ever. –
As for my own activities: – immediately after you’d sailed away, I played 2 games of billiards with Herr von Mozart (he’s the one who wrote the opera for Schickaneder). – I then sold my nag for 14 ducats. Then I got Joseph to call Primus and fetch some black coffee, while I smoked a wonderful pipe of tobacco; then I arranged almost all of Stadtler’s Rondo.*

Letter sent to Constanze in Baden from 7th October 1791
