

HISTORIC STONE WEIGHTS

Inver Stone @ 120kg

- Lift this great stone & have your name in the book of successful lifts & read about all those who have triumphed over the years.

Barevan Stone @ 105kg

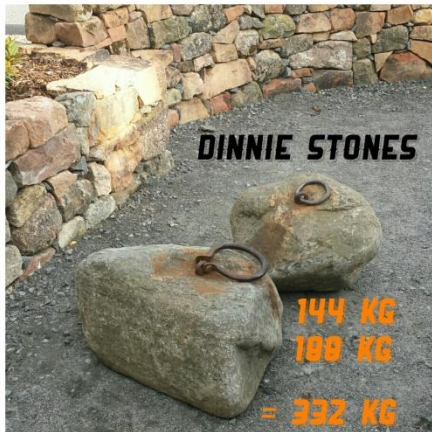

- This stone sits in a very picturesque area within the ruins of the old Barevan Church yard by an old stone coffin.

Dalwhinnie Stone @ 102kg

- A lighter version of the Inver Stone but still with its very own characteristics & this stone makes for a strong lift.

HISTORIC STONE WEIGHTS

Dinnie Stones @ 144kg & 188kg

- Lift both of these stones together & have your name in history with the great Donald Dinnie himself.

Glen Roy Stones @ 133kg & 137kg

- Two stones, Big Red & Sister Grey. Lifting either one is a great achievement in strength with the Historic Stones.

Testing Stone Of The Fianna @ 127kg

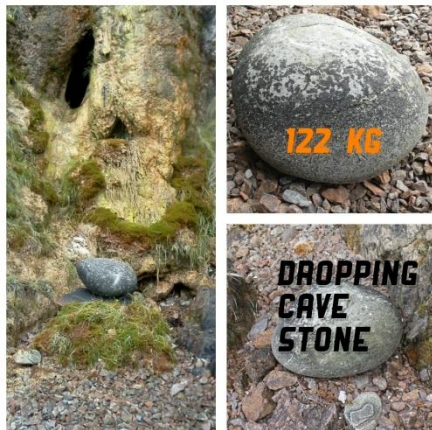

- Lift this stone & see what it took to become a Fianna Warrior, achieving the honour to protect the clan.

HISTORIC STONE WEIGHTS

Sadlin Mare Stone @ 99kg

- The test here is to saddle the mare. The 'Mare' being the plinth stone & the 'Saddle' being the loading stone.

Dropping Cave Stone @ 122kg

- This stone sits outside of a cave & next to the sea. Watch out for high tide when visiting this stone.

Castle Menzies Stone @ 115kg

- This stone sits out front of Castle Menzies & is a very smooth stone making it an even harder challenge to pick up.

HISTORIC STONE WEIGHTS

Newtonmore Stone @ 101kg

- This stone sits under the watchful eye & shadow of a large tree while waiting to be lifted from the ground.

Wallace Putting Stone @ 125kg

- This stone is surrounded by history & named after Scotland's Highlander & warrior 'William Wallace'.

Ardvorlich Stone @ 152kg

- This stone sits on Ardvorlich Estate & next to a path for hill walkers & is a very strong lift to break it from the ground.

Clach Neart Glenlivet Stone @ 130kg

- This stone sits on an old coffin road & when lifted the test is to place it on top of the plinth & balanced.

Auchernach Stones @ 100kg & 130kg

- These two stones sit on Auchernack Farm & were once used within the Highland Games & lifted over a bar.
