

Educator Program

Otto DIY is edtech robotic product where you build your own robot.

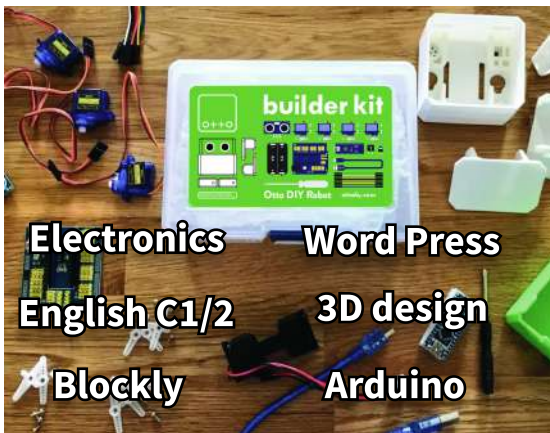

The Educator Program is for the EU Commission program called Otto At Home where we will be sending hundreds of Otto's to families and educators around the EU.

We are looking for Otto Educators that can help make online course content to be used for personalized learning. This is a paid position.

What are we Looking for in Otto Educators?

expertise in:

passion in:

accountable in:

enthusiast in:

Engaging in Community Forum:

- Answer Questions
- Initiate Discussions
- Share Know How

Developing Course Material/content

- Develop topics under engineering, coding & design categories
- Create course materials using Dash learning software

Developing video Tutorials

- come up with video and content script
- Use video software to record & edit course tutorials

Apply to be a Otto Educator Today!

If you would like to become an Otto Educator, please send your CV and Cover Letter to: ethan@ottodiy.com

If you qualify, we will be scheduling a call for us to learn more about you, and about us!

We look forward to hearing from you.

Feel free to check out www.ottodiy.com & Otto Academy at www.ottoschool.com.

