Many special effects for painting and lighting new year: for those who love fireworks and light games there is an opportunity to shop and have tips on ensuring safety and compliance with national laws, as well as local regulations. Among the experts in the sector there are those who lay out cardinal points of security: here are the tips of the Rockets Shop, which should follow during purchase and even once at home. TIPS: BEFORE BUYING. Make sure that the trick label contains the Home Office classification, the name of the manufacturer or importer, and the instructions for use. Make sure your product is in good conservation condition. There is no sign of moisture or damage. AFTER THE PURCHASE. Never keep pyrotechnic items in your pocket or backpacks, especially with ignition friction, as they can self-invigor down with body movement. Instead, use cardboard boxes or bags. Keep products purchased in safe places away from free sources of flame and heat. Also remember that humidity jeopardizes its operation and safety. MYSTERY FOR BOLOGNA. A municipal ordinance that regulates the use of fires annually must be issued every day. Last year, from December 12, 24, 2018 to 7am on January 7, 2019, owners of pyrotechnic materials (unlicensed or authorized) were prohibited from carrying and blowing firecrackers, mortars and similar tricks and all kinds of pyrotechnic fire in public place or in public use and in private places from which you can reach or directly affected areas and spaces for public use (HERE ORDER OF BOLOGNA COMUNE) Here are 5 shops where you can buy fireworks and games in Bologna and its surroundings: 1. Razzi Store is a company that has been working in the pyrotechnics industry for many years and with its show animates any event, including, of course, New Year's Eve. The choice here is really extensive and the staff are very helpful, also to give information to act in complete safety. Opening hours December: Morning 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the afternoon from 3 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Open daily, including sundays, 29, 30 and 31 December clocks can vary Bologna: Via Emilia Ponente 78/a , Tel 051312476 San Lazarus: Via Emilia 570 C/D, Tel 0516256250 2. PIROTECNICA BENASSI The official date for the creation of Benassi pyrotechnics is 1865. Documents and building methods return much older origins. Party fascists probably moved during the 700s to the courtyards of Europe, where they learned the secrets of building artificial fire and were designed to create large baroque shows for royal celebrations. Heirs to the formidable Bologna school of Rogers (famous pyrotechnic brothers, in the service of the kings of France), Benassi have kept intact the artistic tradition of lights of joy, modernizing the technique, to be the perfect spectacular machine that simultaneously uses all the different effects: fixed fires, tables and aerial fires.
