“The Difference Between Winners And Losers Is That The Former Believes In Things The Latter Doesn’t.” ~ Leo Leonelli.

Welcome to “Winner’s Mindset Activator.” This short PDF booklet is your insider connection for quickly and naturally establishing a Winner’s Mindset, no matter your age, gender, or education-level. So without further delay, let’s start with the preface:

PREFACE:

Life can be as complicated as we want it to be. For instance, if we believe life is a struggle, then it will be, due to this self-fulfilling prophecy; and conversely, if we believe that life is a wonder to experience, then this will be, due to this self-fulfilling prophecy, as well.

This may seem overly simplistic, but we all can have vastly improved life experiences, just by adopting self-empowering beliefs about ourselves and the world we live in. Our chosen beliefs influence what we will think is true and what we will value, as an individual, as a family, as a group, and as a society, where life will act in accordance to that.

Hence, the metaphysical maxim: “What the mind conceives and believes, it achieves.”

Thus, we live in a subjective world energized with subjective truths, which is spurred on by societal indoctrination, group-think mentality, personal life experience interpretations, and so on.

So, in essence, to create a better world for ourselves and future generations, the goal is to change our beliefs to change our lives; to change how we see things, so to witness what we see change.

To that end, we live in a thought world, where all experiences stem from, to then expand and grow, forming a ripple effect. Thus, you are more powerful than what you were led to believe.

As a result, my intention is to enlighten you to realize who you really are, why you are more in control of your life experiences than you realize, and what it takes to manifest what you desire to be, do, and have.

What follows next is what you came here to discover: The Panacea designed to ultimately remedy our world challenges, one paradigm-shift at a time. So, from this point on, please continue reading this short book, with an open mind; for, the mind is like a parachute, in that they both work best, when open.

So, let us begin with chapter 1...

CHAPTER 1:

Imagine in the near future that you were now living life on your terms:

You make more money than you need, doing something you were meant to do, using the natural talent you were born with, and using it to achieve something you are most passion about, which enables you to make your greatest contribution to society, that only you can.

You no longer get stressed out, angry, jealous, greedy, impatient, lonely, or worry.

You are more confident, relaxed, peaceful, understanding, helpful, and energetic.

You don't feel the need to overeat, smoke, drink liquor, take drugs, and steal.

You naturally exercise more, eat more nutritiously, dress and present yourself better.

You finally realize that there is virtually nothing that you cannot be, do, and have when you got your mind made up.

You know that all you require is already within you, making you feel independent and in control of your life.

You recognize that all that you experience benefits you in some way; thus, only good things happen to you.

You perceive your world as something beautiful and magical that is supporting everything you do.

You see other people as equals, where no one is better or lesser than you, and that we are all here to assist each other in some way.

You trust others more as a default, omitting the need to be defensive and cautious.

Now ask yourself, "What would the world be like, if everyone in it had these same positive beliefs forming their mindset?"

Would criminal behavior still thrive? Would we still need as many prisons or police officers, as we have currently? Would wars of any kind still exist? Would we still need as many soldiers, as we do today?

Would we still have corrupted political leaders and runaway inflation, like we have now? Would hospitals, drugs, and rehab centers still be in demand, as it is presently?

The answer to the above questions is, of course, "NO."

In fact, crimes, wars, corruption, inflation, and medical care would be drastically cut down to single-digit percentages, when societies, in general, have instilled in its people the beneficial and positive beliefs stated above.

But is it really possible to experience living in an ideal society like that? I say, "Yes!"

The problem I see, is that the majority of the masses has been insidiously indoctrinated, by "the powers that be", to harbor disempowering beliefs about themselves and their world. They are taught that they are not good enough, to be dependent, to play small, to walk in lock-step with everyone else, and that we live in a dangerous, dog-eat-dog world.

Note: People need to be careful about what they choose to believe about themselves and their world, since they will experience in their reality what is relative to those beliefs.

The panacea for this mindset fallacy, is to override it with the divine truth that they are more than good enough, can very much be independent when playing to their strengths, has the ability to play big, even bigger, and the innate power to travel the unbeaten path and make their own unique contribution.

This panacea, entails using the same ancient method emperors used, to instill leadership traits into their heirs to the throne. And also by capitalizing on the fact that, if a person hears something long enough, that person will believe it at a subconscious-level, and in turn influence their behavior at a conscious-level.

Our "Winners Mindset Activator" is considered the modern day version, that causes paradigm shifts for a person to achieve their greatest potential, relative to their strengths, to perform under their terms, and not as a fish out of water.

We all live two lives: The one we learn from, and the one we live after that. Going thru the "Winners Mindset Activation" process, will place you in the latter.

Believe it or not, there are no coincidences. You were divinely guided here, or you would not be here. Period. If you disagree, that's good because it signifies that you aren't gullible and easily convinced. But in either case, please don't take my word for it; instead, try to prove me wrong. If you do, you will be traveling in my shoes, per say, since I was once a "naysayer" too.

So, read on because your time to shine has finally come, or I say again: You wouldn't be here. Period.

Welcome and hello. My name is Leo Leonelli. I believe I have uncovered the panacea for eliminating most of the main problems that plague our world today; such as crime, corruption, lies, sadness, suffering, jealousy, and more.

This panacea, I call the “Winning Mindset Activator,” is what I believe to be a monumental, problem-solving solution that, at its foundation, involves a secret, and ancient, method used by China Emperors to instill the “Ruler’s Mindset” in their heirs, who would be next in line to govern all of China.

It has been utilized for thousands of years, generation to generation, because it works unlike no other method for establishing and solidifying paradigm shifts. It also incorporates the use of carefully-worded, winning-belief affirmations, virtually unknown by the “have-nots.”

I am convinced, via anecdotal and empirical evidence, that after you hear these divine-centered, self-empowering, and life-changing affirmations, thru a method used by royalty for thousands of years, you will intuitively know why it will undoubtedly work for you, too.

What’s more is that, the Winner’s Mindset Activator process will, as a byproduct, increase your EQ, emotional intelligence, score, naturally. Your EQ score is much more important than your IQ, intelligence quotient, score.

This is so since the former will determine, what one does under pressure in real life situations, where the latter helps determine how well one can do in school, for example. So which would you rather be if you had to choose: Street smart or book smart? Need I say more?

Next, in Chapter 2, I’ll discuss in further detail the “Winner’s Mindset Activator” program. Enjoy.

CHAPTER 2:

Congratulations, you are about to experience a secret and ancient method, used by China Emperors, to instill the “Ruler’s Mindset” in their heirs, who would be next in line to govern all of China. It has been utilized for thousands of years, generation to generation, because it works unlike no other, for establishing paradigm shifts.

But please, again, don’t take my word for it; instead, try to prove me wrong, with an open mind, by following the instructions below. In you doing so, don’t be surprised when you discover, how easy it is, to develop the Winner’s Mindset, by just listening to the Winner’s Mindset Activator.

After you hear these divine-centered, self-empowering, and life-changing affirmations, thru a method used by royalty for thousands of years, you will intuitively know why it will undoubtedly work for you, too.

And once you’ve advanced your foundational thinking, and made your paradigm-shift, to the Winner’s Mindset, then you can ask yourself this question:

What would the world be like, if everyone in it, thought just like me?

My answer is that it would be Heaven on Earth, the panacea, if you will, since there would be no cause, or motivation, for negativity to gain traction, such as crimes, corruption, lies, sadness, suffering, jealousy, greed, and more. And instead, everyone would live with integrity, on a physical, mental, and spiritual level.

Moreover, people would be naturally steered to, potentially, develop the best version of themselves, on varying levels, making their greatest contribution to society, as only each one can. Just as you probably would, in time, once you have been exposed to the Winner’s Mindset Activator.

But please, again, don’t take my word for it; instead, try to prove me wrong, with an open mind, by following the instructions below. In you doing so, don’t be surprised when you discover, how effortless it is to make the paradigm shift into the winner’s mindset, just by participating in the “Winner’s Mindset Activation” process.

So, to that end, here are the instructions:

Play the Winner’s Mindset Activator,” on repeat, as you sleep throughout the night, for up to 90 days or more. While you are sleeping, the Winner’s Mindset Activator, will bypass your conscious mind, then, through repetition, become fully absorbed by your subconscious mind. Thereby, giving it new instructions to form the Winner’s Mindset, that will guide you, as a byproduct, to optimize your life physically, mentally, and spiritually, like never before.

To that end, if you didn’t know it yet, your reality is directly influenced by your subconscious mind, which has been influenced by your chosen beliefs about yourself and your world, which, in turn, has been influenced by your conscious mind's interpretation of your life experiences up until now.

In contrast, the "Winner's Mindset Activator" program is designed to side-step your conscious mind, to go straight to where it matters the most for life-changing results: Your subconscious mind.

So overwriting your old beliefs with new, and empowering ones, using our "Winners Mindset Activator," is key.

WARNING: When using the Winner's Mindset Activator, don't be surprised when you discover, how effortless it is to develop the Winner's Mindset, just using the Winner's Mindset Activator.

Also, remember that the difference between winners and losers is that the former believes in things the latter doesn't. So if you are not winning yet, do you know why? Could it be that your current beliefs about yourself and your world are holding you back? Not sure? Then why don't you find out once and for all? The secret solution that 95% of the population is unaware of, is just an "earshot" away from you now. You are blessed!

The Winner's Mindset Activator Program utilizes advanced affirmation-embedding, force-multiplier techniques, that, along with repeated listening, are proven to solidify paradigm shifts, faster than thru ordinary means.

Hence, the script is spoken in the 1st and 2nd place, in a male's voice, female's voice, and a child's voice. The success rate is over 90%, with transition time varying from person to person, typically from 3- to 90-days or more. However, the life-changing results is worth the wait, hands down.

So now let's move on to Chapter 3 of the "Winner's Mindset Activator" program, where the actual main listening script is revealed.

CHAPTER 3:

As stated previously, in the WMA Program, the foregoing script is spoken in a male's voice, a woman's voice, then a child's voice, upon which, they are all said in the first and second place.

This setup, as a whole, is comprised of advanced affirmation-embedding, force-multiplier techniques, that, along with repeated listening, are proven to solidify paradigm shifts, faster than thru ordinary means.

So on to the script below, which is the heart of the Winner's Mindset Activator Program. Enjoy.

As Quantum physics has already proven, I (you) believe that the only thing real is conscious thought, where everything else is just an illusion. Therefore, there is only consciousness, where my (your) thoughts derive from. And consciousness is God. Therefore, God plays all roles, including my (your) role.

Thus, God and I (you) are one. So much so, that God experiences as me (you), with his love, wisdom, and power, radiating within me (you), thru me (you), and beyond me (you). Thus, by the grace of God, there is virtually nothing I (you) cannot be, do, or have, since God performs as me (you), doing all the work, whilst I (you) let go and let God guide me (you) on my (your) destiny's path.

Destiny exist, since physics proclaims that past, present, and future exists and occurs on different plains, at the same time; thus, it's correct to say that my (your) future has already happened.

Hence, there is nothing new under the sun, only the histories I (you) was (were) never told.

I (You) believe that I (you) am (are) really a spiritual being, having a human experience, performing as an instrument of God. Thus, accordingly, my (your) life is akin to an actor playing a role, led by a divine script called "My (Your) Destiny," with Earth as my (your) stage, and God as my (your) Director.

Therefore, by the grace of God, I (you) am (are) divinely guided each and every day, to perform everything I (you) do, better, each and every way.

As such, I (you) am (are) a microcosm of God, fortified with the creative powers of God, where my (your) mind is a center of divine intervention, that is always for expansion and further expression.

Hence, what I (you) choose to think about, I (you) bring about. What I (you) choose to focus on, expands into being. Where my (your) chosen attention goes, energy flows. And what I (you) choose my (your) mind to conceive and believe in, I (you) inevitably achieve.

Thus, I (you) realize my (your) reality always reflect my (your) chosen beliefs. So, what I (you) choose to believe about myself (yourself), and my (your) world, will be my (your) personal truth that will manifest itself, since my (your) chosen beliefs will mirror into my (your) reality.

Thus, I (you) believe that I (you) can be, do, and have, virtually anything I (you) desire, by the grace of God.

I (You) believe that all my (your) non-ego-based, divined desires, are God's desires, seeking manifestation thru me (you); therefore, every such desire I (you) manifest, is a joint venture with God, so I (you), by the will of God, naturally cannot fail to achieve them.

I (You) believe that God is my (your) reason for being, and that all my (your) life experiences will always lead me (you) to, inevitable, freedom, abundance, and joy.

I (You) believe that my (your) positive self-talk is a telltale sign of what my (your) future will unfold.

I (You) believe my (your) non-ego-based, divine desires, take form thru my (your) inspired actions taken, and due to converting my (your) such desires into expectations that it is God's will.

I (You) believe that all my (your) worthy goals will come to past, when I (you) always focus my (your) eyes on the ball to completion.

I (You) believe that success and risk go hand-in-hand. Hence, the more calculated risks I (you) take, the more successes I (you) will enjoy.

I (You) believe that losing is part of winning, and that every loss brings me (you) closer to winning, and winning "BIG," by the grace of God.

I (You) also believe that, what others think of me (you), is none of my (your) business, and that what I (you) think of myself (yourself), is to be kept between God and I (you).

I (You) believe that my (your) world is operating exactly as it should, according to God's plan; hence, I (you) make no judgments, and have no complaints, or worries.

I (You) believe that by being born, I (you) am (are) blessed by God; and hence, is a blessing to others. For, as an instrument of God, I (you) strive to be an asset to society, by making my (your) greatest contribution to society, in accordance to God's will.

I (You) believe that I (you) can achieve anything I (you) desire, to be, do, and have, since everything I (you) commit to, is a joint venture with God; thus, I (you) am (are) virtually guaranteed to succeed in all that I (you) persist upon, relentlessly.

I (You) believe that success is the progressive realization of a worthy goal, and not in its actual achievement, since I'm (you're) only in control of the process, and not the result, for the latter is dependent on the will of God.

I (You) believe that every decision I (you) make is an attempt to be better off, based on my (your) current level of awareness; but I (you) always remember that any wrong decision I (you) make, is almost always due to, not so much what I (you) didn't know, but what I (you) "knew" to be true, that really wasn't. It's the same for everyone else.

I (You) believe my (your) life is blessed by God, since he already gave me (you), from the start, a life of divine abundance, where all I (you) need to do is just choose to accept health, wealth, and wisdom into my (your) life. And simply discard, from my (your) mind, the opposite.

Thus, it is so, that my (your) reality always reflects my (your) beliefs.

I (You) believe that all I (you) have control over, are my (your) attitude and effort, so I (you) choose to only focus on them to achieve my (your) goals.

Therefore, I (you) choose to love my (your) life, so I (you) approach each day with joy and enthusiasm.

I (You) choose to remain neutral, so I (you) perceive all my (your) experiences thru the impartial eyes of my (your) God-self, rather than the judgmental eyes of my (your) ego-self.

I (You) choose to apply my (your) endeavors from abundance, and not from scarcity.

I (You) choose to focus on big dreams, since what I (you) focus on always expands into my (your) life.

I (You) choose to be steadfast to finishing what I (you) start, or I (you) do not start it at all.

I (You) choose to talk about ideas, not about people.

I (You) choose to think of solutions, instead of complaining.

I (You) choose to treat fear like a paper wall, that I (you) easily rip right thru, since I (you) know that fear is but an illusion I (you) subconsciously attached to a given situation. After all, I (you) know that "fear" is an acronym for "false-evidence-appearing-real." So my (your) solution is to always face any fear, until they inevitably disappear.

I (You) choose to place my (your) experiences on the third side of a coin, and thus, treat them as neither good nor bad, but just is. Thus, I (you) never judge them, but always accept, and let go of them into my (your) life. In this way, I (you) virtually eliminate all emotional ups and downs in my (your) life, and is able to better maintain emotional balance, and reduce stress, as I

(you) experience my (your) life.

Life has no meaning, until I (you) give it one; thus, I (you) choose to be grateful for everything I (you) encounter in life, since I (you) believe they will be either lessons to be learned, a manifestation underway, or a manifestation's arrival.

I (You) choose to see all my (your), seemingly, negative events as steppingstones to success, as well as serving as polarities to help me (you) to better appreciate my (your) successes, and to make my (your) future successes more rewarding for me (you) to behold.

I (You) choose to compete only with myself (yourself), and not others, by improving on my (your) own scores, with the goal of developing greater versions of myself (yourself), by so much as God has destined for me (you).

I (You) choose to not make "fad" decisions. That's F-A-D. Meaning, "F" for fear, "A" for Anger, And "D" for Doubt. So I (you) never make a decision out of fear, anger, or doubt, because it will be a disempowering choice, virtually every time. But, if I (you) do consider a "fad" decision, I (you) will, with discipline, do the opposite, to better choose empowering choices, practically every time.

I (You) choose to never reveal my (your) goal to anyone until I (you) achieve it first, since I (you) don't want to leak out its energetic manifesting potential, needlessly.

I (You) choose to dwell only on positive and empowering thoughts, never negative, since what I (you) think about, I (you) bring about. And what I (you) focus on expands.

I (You) choose to always break down my (your) big goals into manageable steps. Then make progressive, step-by-step achievements. So my (your) aim, is to, first, plan my (your) work, then work my (your) plan, to fruition.

I (You) believe that my (your) happiness and success, are choices I (you) choose to make happen in my (your) life; therefore making it a self-fulfilling prophecy.

And since I (you) choose to believe, that the only thing that can stop me (you) from achieving happiness and success, is me (you), I (you) am (are) virtually guaranteed happiness and success throughout my (your) life.

Especially, when I (you) abide by the secret, that, Success, is having what I (you) want, whereas, Happiness, is wanting what I (you) have. Thus, when I (you) strive for Happiness first, then Success will naturally follow suit, then multiply over time.

To increase happiness and to reduce stress in my (your) life, I (you) believe that I (you) must have the patience to accept the things I (you) can't change, but have the courage to change the things I (you) can, and backed by the wisdom to know the difference.

The two monumental days of my (your) life is the day I (you) was (were) born and the day I (you) found out why. Thus, my (your) ultimate achievement is to realize God's will, for me (you) to satisfy my (your) divine reason for being born, by aspiring to live a truly fulfilling life with integrity.

So I (you) believe that to achieve this, is to naturally live my (your) life purpose, by synergizing my (your) innate talents with my (your) passions, then benefit the world with it through inspired action, thereby fulfilling my (your) destiny, according to God's will.

After all, this is why I (you) was (were) gifted with my (your) specific talents and passions from birth, to begin with. And no other reason.

To that end, if you desire to find out, or confirm, what your innate talents and passions are thru numerology, you can opt for us to create your own numerology profile that will detail a lot about you, including your innate talents and passions. Just let me know if you are interested, by leaving me a message, via the contact form at WinnersMindsetActivator.com. Then I will give you the details for its procurement via email, during office hours in the order it was received.

In closing, God exists and performs as me (you), which is why I (you) am (are) a spiritual being having a human experience, performing as an instrument of God, and all that implies. Thus, by divine right, I (you) am (are) part of the greatest story ever to unfold in my (your) lifetime.

CONCLUSION:

You have before you a proven, simple, and solid solution to remedy the negativity of our world, one paradigm-shift at a time. It does not need billions of dollars for it to work. In fact, it's a metaphysical and integrated solution that people can unite with, devoid of governmental oversight.

It's a proactive endeavor we the people can begin to initiate. And it's done IN OUR SLEEP, so it doesn't get any easier than this. What's more is that we don't need motives, such as profit and power, but rather just a desire to proactively improve our society's ill conditions on many levels, which is the moral and humane thing to do.

This includes the fact that we all would be better off opting for it than not, which begs the question: Would you be better off? Every decision you make stems from a belief you'll be better off; hence, do you believe you are better off utilizing Winner's Mindset Activator as a spearhead for change, or do you believe you are better off doing nothing and just accept the status quo?

I will conclude with these two applicable and profound quotes below:

"Your beliefs become your thoughts, your thoughts become your words, your words become your actions, your actions become your habits, your habits become your values, and your values become your destiny." ~ Mahatma Ghandi

"You become what you believe, and it can be based on self-empowering beliefs or disempowering beliefs. And it's your choice. So choose wisely, since it will determine the quality of your life experience." ~ Leo Leonelli
