Questions For You & Your Partner

Consider all the questions below, then compare side-by-side with the Family Interview Checklist.

Logistics

RESPONSES

- When do you need care to start?
- Do you and your partner both commute?
- Do you or your partner work from home on a regular basis?
- What do your commutes look like? (trains, buses, driving route, etc)
- What is your regular schedule? Is it flexible?
- What range of times can you start care in the morning? (ex: 7:30 - 9:00am)
- What range of times can you end care in the evening? (ex: 5:30 - 7:00pm)
- How many days per week do you need childcare?
- How many hours per day do you need childcare?

CozyKin Pro-Tip: Be really honest with yourself on what you're willing to do and not do. A nanny share will only be successful if it works for everyone's real schedule.

Hosting vs. Dropping Off

RESPONSES

- What's your preference for hosting?
- Would you be open to alternating hosting and dropping off?
- Do you or your partner work from home?
- If so, do you have an appropriate workspace in your home to ensure you can focus and the nanny has space to provide quality care?
- Do you have pets?
- If so, will you be able to provide a pet-free sleeping space for the little ones?
- Is there public transit close to your home? Do you have parking available for your nanny and partner family?
- Are you a smoker? Do you prefer a non-smoking partner family?

CozyKin Pro-Tip: If you have a strong preference for hosting versus dropping off, it's best to be very clear in your initial conversations with potential share families.

Childcare Preferences

RESPONSES

- What is your child's current sleep schedule?
- What are your nap preferences?
(white noise machine, binky or no binky, etc)
- How do you want your child to sleep?
(For example, most childcare experts recommend that little ones sleep on their backs, but some parents prefer on the stomach with supervision)

Childcare Preferences (cont.)

RESPONSES

- What are your medical preferences?
(For example, if your baby has a diaper rash, do you let it heal itself or do you use ointment? If the child has a mild fever, do you use any medication?)
- What are your dietary preferences?
- Outside of childcare, what other duties do you expect from a nanny?
(Light cleaning, meal prep for the little ones, etc.)
- What are your views or rules around screen time?
- What are your preferences for your little one when it comes to getting outdoors for walks and play?
- What are your views on discipline? What do you think the nanny's role should be?

Communication

RESPONSES

- How do you prefer to communicate?
- What are your expectations from the nanny during the day?
- How would you make sure you're checking in with the nanny and your partner family on a regular basis?
- If you had a concern or something you'd like to discuss with your partner family and/or nanny, how would you go about doing so?
