Some are sweet ones that make you happy while others are sad and you don't want to remember them often. There are some moments in life that really scare you when they happen. You are afraid at the time, but years later when you think about the event seems normal. Here I am going to talk about an incident where I learned to drive a four wheeler, a car - that was 5 years ago when I started driving on my own, but initially I just had a student's license. One fine my cousin who is older than me visited us, and we decided to go to the market to bring some products. I was allowed to drive with the driver. I was happy to show that how I can negotiate through thick traffic too. I parked my car smoothly in front of the mall next to my house. The terrible incident happened only when we got back in the car and stuck the trunk with all the bags. We both sat inside the car, but as soon as I let out the handbrake the car slid back and hit something. I immediately went to the back of the car to inspect and to my disappointment I saw barbed wire stuck in the back of the car. There were small scratches on the back of the car - it made me scared to death, as I was sure my father would be furious with me because he loved the car more than anything. I drove the car very carefully on the way back and parked quietly in the garage of my house. makkariELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking theme www.facebook.com/makkarielts 6. Dr. Kiranpreet Kaur www.makkarielts.com - Buy Books 6 - I went straight to my mother and trusted her. I told her how it happened. She gave me the best advice of my life. She told me that if I told the truth, I wouldn't have to remember later what I said. To hide one lie, I have to make up so much more. So the next moment I went to my father and told him what had happened, and to my surprise, he laughed and said it was part of the learning process. He added that he was proud of my honesty. Part 3 - Follow the questions 1. Is it ok to scare others? I don't think it's ok to scare others because sometimes it can harm others as if we scare the elderly, it can have serious consequences like a heart attack. Children may also be frightened, and it will be difficult to make them understand or comfort them. 2. How do people usually get scared? It depends on the person to the person. Some people are afraid when they play dolls as if we scare the elderly, it can have serious consequences like a heart attack. Children may also be frightened, and it will be difficult to make them understand or comfort them. 3. Do children like to frighten others? Yes, children like to frighten others. When they play Hide and Look they want to give up their playmates. Children are very innocent, they feel very strong when they frighten others. So it's good to encourage them when they scare you, it builds their trust. 4. Why is it easy to scare some people? It's easy to scare some people because they lack confidence. Also, there may be some others who have had a bitter experience in their lives, so they are afraid of every small incident. 5. What should people do when they are afraid? Well frankly, I think you scream when you feel scared because if there is someone who is trying to intimidate, if you raise the alarm the nearest person who can help you will work for help. But my mother says you should always remember God Almighty whenever you are afraid. makkariELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking theme www.facebook.com/makkarielts 7. Dr. Kiranpreet Kaur www.makkarielts.com - Buy Books 7 2. Describe a good law in your country. What is Law b. How did you learn about this law c. Who does it affect D. Why is it good (makkariELTS) - Laws passed by the government for the smooth operation of society. Without these laws, we would live in total chaos and anarchy. There are many laws worth mentioning, such as a ban on smoking in public places, wearing a helmet while riding a two-wheeled carriage, a law against female fetuses and against cutting down trees - but here I'm going to talk about a law banning the use of plastic carry bags - I learned about this law from television news. This law affects every person on Earth. In 2016, India banned the use of portable bags less than 50 microns thick, but this could not be achieved well, due to the lack of alternatives. However, in June 2018, on World Environment Day, the theme was Beat Plastic Pollution and so the government planned to be strict in implementing the law. In fact, this year India was the global host of World Environment Day. Thus, our Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Modi, has asked all states and the territory's union to launch a massive campaign against the use of plastics. Plastic in all forms such as carry bags, drinking straws and plastic bottles have been banned and strict fines are imposed on violators of this law. Plastic doesn't go down and fills our landfills. If burned, it emits harmful fumes in the air. So I think it's a good law, and we should all work with the government to comply with that law. We have to make it a habit to carry our tote bags with us when we go shopping and refuse to accept plastic bags. makkariELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking topics www.facebook.com/makkarielts 8. Dr. Kiranpreet Kaur www.makkarielts.com - Buy Books 8 Part 3 - Follow Matters 1. Yes, I think this law was well received by the people of India. There is a growing awareness of environmental issues, and Indians are also working to preserve and preserve the environment. 2. Is there a situation in which people may not obey the law? Yes, there are situations when people do not obey this law. The main reasons why such laws do not follow people are personal profit/benefits and convenience, which they may have to give up. 3. Do people like to be a police officer in your country? Yes, a lot of people in my country like being a cop. Every year there are several people who will run tests to become a policeman. The competition that exists for such exams is a clear indication that many people aspire to become police officers and serve their country. 4. What qualities should a police officer have? A police officer must have many qualities. He/she must be physically healthy and active and have a passion to serve the people and the nation. Some other qualities are honesty, a desire to seek truth and bring justice to people, some skills like martial arts or other similar fighting skills to fight criminals, courage, fearlessness, determination, and many other such qualities. 5. Why do some people prefer to be a lawyer? Some people prefer to be a lawyer because they want everyone to get justice and be treated fairly by law. They may have the desire to fight for the rights of others and give everyone a chance to justify their actions. Some people choose this profession because of the prospects to earn money and fame. 6. Should people be punished when they use mobile phones while driving? makkariELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking topics www.facebook.com/makkarielts 9. Is kindness the most important quality of a police officer? No, kindness is not the best quality of a policeman. A police officer must be honest, understandable and very curious when doing his duty. Unfortunately, we cannot afford to be very kind, as criminals can take advantage of situation 8. Do you think men and women can be police officers? Today we live in an egalitarian society, so gender biases do not take up space in any profession. Every man and every woman deserves any profession. Thus, both men and women are equally capable of serving in The Police Department 9. Do you think police officers are paid too much? I think that in the Western world police officers are well paid according to their responsibilities, but in developing countries their wages do not correspond to the work they perform, they deserve higher salaries. But I do not agree that they pay too much because they face too many dangers of life and limbs when performing their services. 10. Do all Indians obey the law? Human psychology is the same everywhere in the world, when citizens know that they will be caught, punished, put behind bars, they will obey the law. A well-implemented law is well respected. I think Indian people know that they can find loopholes to save themselves they disobey the law. I came across very honest Indians and very dishonest people from other countries, so there is a system that needs to get strict. makkariELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking topics www.facebook.com/makkarielts 10. tourism. 3. What are the environmental impacts of tourism taking its toll and the underlying impact on the environment. The use of different modes of transport used by tourists causes all kinds of pollution. There is a lot of pressure on natural resources such as water, forests. It is noted that there is more debris in the tourist area, which can lead to soil or land contamination if the waste is not disposed of properly. makkarIELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking theme www.facebook.com/makkarielts 35. In addition, some tourists believe that it is the responsibility of the government or local population to keep the city clean. Sometimes there can be no good waste disposal facilities provided by local authorities. 5. Do people in your country want longer vacations? Why? I believe that it depends on the schedule of people. These days people are busy working and making more money for their family and for leading a comfortable life. However, many people who have children go on longer vacations, especially during the summer holidays, or other such long vacations that their children have during their school years. Mostly other workers prefer to take short breaks, like on a long weekend. 6. Why do people like to stay at home? People like to stay home when they get free time so they can spend some time with their family members as well as get some relaxation. For them, going out or traveling can mean stress and fatigue, so they prefer to spend their free time or weekends at home with their family. 7. What kinds of activities do people do during the holidays? There are many activities that people like to do during the holidays. Some people stay at home and spend time with their family, or watch TV or movies. Some people like to go on holiday with their friends or family. Dr. Kiranpreet Kaur www.makkarielts.com - Buy books 36 14. Talk about the recent activity that has made you happy (what has happened recently that has made you happy) a. What happened b. When it happened c. I believe that happiness or sadness is just a state of mind. A poor person can find happiness in the little things while rich people can still be sad, even after they have it all. But sometimes in life there are situations when something happens, and the person feels happy or joyful, despite their origin. Today I would like to talk about one such situation where my happiness had no limits (or limits). First of all, I love doing social work like public service in temples or teaching children from weak economic backgrounds (poor kids) - This activity of educating young children brings me eternal (great) happiness as I teach them for free. When these kids feel good in school and score well, I feel very happy that I have contributed something back to society - Recently, my student, his name is Ramesh, and he lives in our area, headed the exam. • Ramesh's father is working and barely has time to send his children to school. When I first met Ramesh, I found that he was a bright child, but he wasn't serious about studying, so I decided to help him by teaching him after school. I spent 23 hours with him every day and he loved studying with me. At first I was worried that he would not be able to clear the exam due to lack of interest, but I never gave hope and always motivated him to continue working hard. makkarIELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking themes www.facebook.com/makkarielts 37. Dr. Kiranpreet Kaur www.makkarielts.com - Buy books 37 - I helped him a lot in improving his math skills by making it more practical and interesting for him. Finally, when the results came and I found out that he was headed into his class, I was very pleased. Ramesh also won a scholarship the following year at the school. It made me realize that the happiness we receive in helping others can never be compared to any other form of happiness. Part 3 - Follow the questions 1. How important is money? I think money is very important. This helps meet our daily and basic needs. We can lead a comfortable life if we have money. However, I also feel that this is not the only and most important thing that it takes to be happy or lead a full life. 2. Can money bring happiness? Yes, to some extent money brings happiness, in the form of reducing our worries and stresses of paying our bills and meeting our basic needs for food, clothing and housing. However, when money matters more than relationships and feelings, it brings more stress, worries and unhappiness. 3. Why people earn money People earn money so they can lead a comfortable life and/or to meet the needs of their family, like providing better education or health care for their children. 4. What type of happiness people earn from relationships and money Happiness earned from a good relationship with family is a lengthy and more fulfilling/satisfying/pleasant. Money can happiness when it has not made the top most priority in life. This should only be earned to facilitate a more comfortable and happy life, which is only possible when we are on good terms with the people around us. makkarIELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking theme www.facebook.com/makkarielts 38. Dr. Kiranpreet Kaur www.makkarielts.com - Buy books 38 15. Talk about a foreign language that you want to learn (except English) a. Which language you would like to learn b. Where will you learn this language c. Why do you want to learn this language d. As you will learn this language - a language that I would like to learn, besides English, it is French - there are many reasons for this - the first and main reason is that I want to visit my uncle and aunt who live in France - They told me that if you want to communicate with Franco's phones, it is very important to know some French, there very few people know English - my uncle also offered to sponsor my fees for higher education. In this case, if I choose to study there, then learning French will be a necessity - another reason is that my parents plan to move to Canada. my knowledge of French will come in handy there - It can help me in getting a job - French is spoken in 33 countries - This is the second most frequently taught language after English - Even in my country, if I know a foreign language, then I can get a good job in the tourism industry - everyone knows tourists from all parts of the world flock to India - Those who are multilingual definitely have a better chance of the job market. Fortunately, in my hometown opened the Institute of Language Training called Aroma Language Centre - they teach French, German and Italian. Their next batch starts soon. I would like to register with this party. Two of my friends started learning French there. They told me the teacher was very good. makkarIELTS Sep-DEC 2018 Speaking Topics www.facebook.com/makkarielts makkar ielts speaking pdf may to august 2018. makkar ielts speaking topics may to august 2018. makkar ielts speaking pdf 2018 free download may to august
