LAMENTATIONS

A devotional performance of the Lamentations of Jeremiah set by Alonso Lobo (1555-1617), within a service of evening prayer. With thanks to Emma Caroe for convening the singers.

The Old Testament Lamentations of Jeremiah are heart-wrenching texts of sorrow and desolation, grieving the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC. They have inspired composers throughout history to write deeply emotive musical settings of these words. In this season of Lent, may this music allow us to connect with our present griefs, fears, and pains, and to offer them into God's hands.

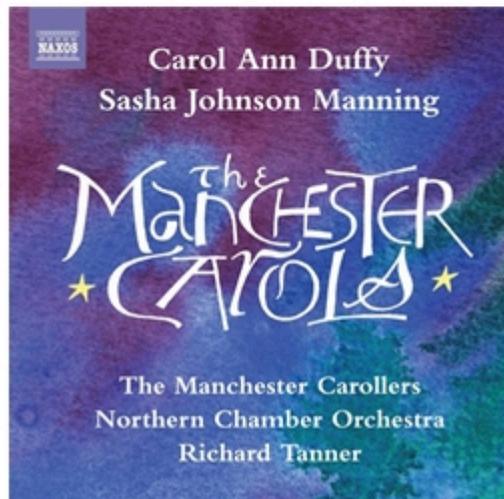

The PCC is pleased to announce a new community arts project for 2026, a performance of The Manchester Carols, 29th November at 6pm.

We would like to invite singers to join our Community Choir for the performance. This is a creative retelling of the Christmas Story with music by Sasha Johnson Manning and words by Carol Ann Duffy. The Manchester Carols is scored for adult (SATB) voices, a children's choir and small chamber ensemble.

The rehearsal schedule for the adult choir will be:

- Thursday evenings 7:30 - 9:30pm, starting 3rd September up to the performance date.
- Sundays 2-5pm on 15th and 22nd November – with children's choir & musicians.
- The day of the performance a short rehearsal in the afternoon – Sun – 29th November.
