Aptis checks your English proficiency to meet your requirements. This allows the organization/institution to evaluate all four English skills - reading, writing, listening and speaking along with the main mandatory component (grammar and vocabulary) or to test only one skill, such as listening. What is the Aptis listening test? The audition test consists of 25 questions and takes up to 55 minutes. There are a number of things to remember about listening to the test: All 25 questions use four options with multiple format choices. Each listening entry has one question. You can listen to the question a second time if you like, but you don't have to. Here are three types of questions: In the test, these types of questions may not appear in this sequence. Recognize words and numbers (in these questions you listen to a short phone message, and you need to identify specific information such as a number (such as phone number, time) or a word. What do they want to buy?) Conclusion (In these matters you again listen to short conversations with two speakers or a monologue. You to obtain results based on the Common European Countdown System (CEFR). They will indicate your CEFR (A1-C2) level for each skill tested. If you take all 4 skills, you will get a total CEFR level and a scalable score (0-50) showing your level for each skill level test. If you want to use the Aptis listening test to evaluate candidates/teachers/students in your organization/institutions, contact the Aptis team that will guide you through the process. If you're taking the Aptis test, it's important to review the test format and task types to show your best performance on test day. How long does the Aptis test take? The total duration of the Aptis test depends on the components you are taking. Maximum allowable time for each component for aptis General test: Grammar and vocabulary: 25 minutes Talking: 12 minutes Writing: 50 minutes Reading: 35 minutes Listening: 40 minutes. The timing for some components may vary if you take other variants such as Aptis Advanced, Aptis for Teachers or Aptis for teens. Please check the pages for each component for more information. Preparatory materials Watch introductory videos for each of the components and check out the preparation tips. You can also take a demo test, download Aptis General and Aptis Advanced Candidate Guide. For more general training and useful exercises, we have many free resources on our Learn English website where you can practice and improve your English skills. The grammar and vocabulary component is a key element of the Aptis test. It consists of two parts and you will have 25 minutes to complete it. The first part tests your knowledge of English grammar, and the second part is dedicated to your knowledge of the English dictionary. The grammar and vocabulary test is marked on a scale of 0 to 50. The CEFR level is not awarded for this component, but the score is used to assign the correct CEFR level to other skill components. Part 1: Grammar In the Grammar section, you will be presented with 25 multiple selection questions where you must complete the sentence by choosing the right option. Read the full sentence before choosing the answer. You can mark the questions that you find difficult and come back to complete them later in the test. Part 2: Vocabulary Vocabulary part also has 25 questions. There are several types of questions: the definition of a word corresponds to a word with its definition. A couple of words - soy word to another word of a very similar meaning. Use the word - select a word to be used in the context of a sentence. Word combinations - combine words that are often used together. Top tips for grammar and vocabulary test Read all the options before you choose Once you've chosen the option, read the sentence again to check your response before moving on. Don't waste too much time any of the questions. Remember that you have to answer 50 questions within 25 minutes. If you can't think about the answer right away, it's best to continue the test and then go back to it later. Improve your vocabulary with hands-on games and activities on the LearnEnglish website. Aptis checks your English proficiency to meet your requirements. This allows the organization/institution to evaluate all four English skills - reading, writing, listening and speaking along with the main mandatory component (grammar and vocabulary) or to test only one skill, such as reading. What is an Aptis reading test? The Aptis reading test takes 30 minutes and is divided into 4 tasks. Tasks become more difficult as the test progresses understanding the sentence (in this part, you need to choose a word (choice of three) to complete the sentence. which means that there is no need to understand all sentences to execute individual sentences. This piece assesses your ability to read the sentence and complete the sentence with the appropriate word.) Text cohesion (In this part, you will see seven sentences. that show how he refers to other sentences.) A brief understanding of the text (in this part you will need to read the text (about 150 words). The challenge is to match the headlines with the paragraphs in the text (there are seven that need to be made). There is always an additional title that doesn't fit into any paragraph. , sometimes similar ideas, or by sharing the theme). What does aptis score mean?
