All the news series Watch all the news series It's time: Season 9 of The Walking Dead will mark a farewell to Rick Grimes, the character that Andrew Lincoln has played since the first season of the series, which premiered in 2010. In case you're not ready to say goodbye to the survivor who has led all the other characters so far, it's good to know that new episodes have been planned to create the perfect farewell. As part of September's IGN First, IGN USA interviewed showrunner Angela Kahn on what we can expect from season 9 as well as Rick's final episodes. She is quick to ensure that the loss of the character will have an incredible emotional impact that will reflect on the fantastic work of the entire cast of the series. For us, this is a new territory. Obviously we've said goodbye to a lot of characters over the years, but Rick is the man who carried the series, explains Kahn. But we have such a strong cast and such beautiful scenes among these different central characters that we have been following for years. Rick has an interesting and deep relationship with these other survivors and you really feel like he has been influenced by these lives. So I think Andrew is amazing in these episodes and I think our directors have done a great job. I am glad that people see the result of this journey. Kang says he understands the expectations of fans and hopes not to disappoint anyone. We expect people to enter this new phase, but I think it's an incredibly exciting journey and the performances and work of the actors have done it all wonderfully. She also talks about Negan, who will return as Rick's prisoner in season 9. While still maintaining typical arrogance, Kahn promises that we will see a very different side to Negan's new episodes. Sure, Negan is still Negan - he can't help but say sarcastic or rude things, but we'll see some different feelings in him. He's, in fact, been in solitary confinement for a year and a half from the end of last season, and one of the stories we explore is what happens to him. So it all really changes the nature of the interactions that he has. I'm also excited because we'll have conversations between other characters and Negan, with interactions that will be different and surprising than Rick and Negan. It's safe to say that one of these interactions will be with Maggie, who missed her chance even when Rick decided to spare Negan's life in Season 8, even promising that the villain would pay for the murder of Glenn and Abraham. At that time, Rick made this decision, mainly because of the grief he was in after the loss of Carl and his son's desire to see the return of civilization. At this point he that saving Negan's life was the right decision. Now we will see the good and bad consequences of this choice. We'll see that, in a way, it provided peace between communities, which was what Rick wanted; allowed them to move on, but it also became a trigger for suffering and misunderstanding among the philosophies of some communities. This is one of the great stories we are going to explore, and of course Maggie's involvement is very important in all of this. In addition to the fact that actress Lauren Cohan will only be in a few episodes of the season, Kahn admits that she is very excited about Maggie's story, and points out that the end of the character is not around. Lauren arrived at the show at the same time as I did, so I really enjoyed writing about her character and working with her. Plan for your story to continue. We really see that she is ready to go her own way as a leader, just like Rick, she is human and intelligent. The Walking Dead returns on October 7. In Brazil, the series is broadcast on Fox Brasil. With the weight of the wagon part of the glass floor is broken, as a result of which Ezekiel hangs on a rope, where he is almost caught by zombies. The team discovers that the bridge connecting the communities fell due to the storm and decided to go the other way. Carol is surprised by the suggestion of Ezekiel's hand and heart, but will not accept it. The wagon is mired in mud and, with the horses already exhausted, the group is going to get it until a bunch of zombies approach. Rick asks the group to abandon the van and horse, but Ken contradicts the idea and returns to free the animal when he is bitten by a zombie. Rick and others decide to pull out the zombies and get the wagon. In Hilltop, Maggie tells Earl and Tammy, Ken's parents, that their son is dead. Earl seems to take it easier, while Tammy blames Maggie for the event and forbids her from attending Ken's wake. At the Sanctuary, Daryl is the new leader of the place, against his will, and Michonne begins to worry when he finds messages of support for Negan stung on the wall. Carol asks Daryl to let her lead the Sanctuary, and he agrees. Gregory gets drunk Earl and Tammy, and makes Earl attack Maggie, lie to her that Glenn's grave was raped. Maggie decides to settle for Gregory, who tries to kill her, but can not. In the morning Rick, Daryl and Michonne arrive in Hilltop, and Rick asks Maggie to provide more supplies to the Sanctuary because the community is unable to keep up. However, without accepting the fact that Negan was not killed and having to work with the Saviors, Maggie is rude in her response, but seems to agree when Rick invites the surviving sanctuaries to work on the construction of the fallen bridge in exchange for supplies. At night, Maggie gathers the inhabitants of the hill and hangs Gregory to punish him in front of everyone. 1172 Bridge (Bridge) Daisy von Sherler MayerDavid Leslie Johnson-McGoldrickOcto14 (2018-10-14)4.95.28 Camp is next to the collapsed bridge. Henry brings water to the workers, and Justin, the Savior, does not take a small amount of water and fights Henry. To avoid a wider discussion between the boy and Daryl intervenes and attacks Justin, being separated by Rick. In camp, Daryl misbehaves with Rick because of Justin and claims that it is impossible to live with the Saviors. To prevent zombies from getting in the way of building a bridge, detours are mounted by survivors such as horn sounds and explosions. At Hilltop, Michonne tells Maggie that The Saviors should bring ethanol into the community, but something happened and they didn't arrive with the product. Tammy begs to see her husband Earl, who is in prison, and after talking about sobriety with Maggie, he goes free, but under supervision. Kiss Anna and Gabriel's father. Alden tells Rick that the rescuers who disappeared with the ethanol did not escape because many had a family in the sanctuary. Tara warns Rick that one of the horns, which must be provoked by Justin, does not shoot, and the zombies begin to go to the camp. The wooden torus, which will be used in the building, falls under Aaron's arm. Rick and the others arrive and fight the dead. Enid amputated Aaron's arm. Rick shoots and releases a rope that held traps against zombies, crushing them all. Daryl again quarrels with Justin, whom Rick kicked out of the camp because of his failure. At night, Rick tells Negan in his cell about the events of the day, and Negan

says that Rick is just preparing the world for him. On the observation deck, Anne sees a helicopter. Along the way, Maggie and Jay lash out at the sanctuary when they encounter a group of Saviors after Justin. After the band leaves, Maggie sees Justin on the road. In Alexandria, Rick decides to take a break and spend a family day with Michonne and Judith when Scott warns them that the Savior has been found dead. In the camp, Justin's body is taken away, and there is a riot when the Saviors threaten other groups, accusing Daryl of entering into a relationship with Justin and Ann for revenge after Simon killed his former band. Rick appears and avoids a more intense conflict, talking to Daryl, who denies killing Justin. At Rick's request, Gabriel follows Ann to the dump, where he hears her talking to someone on the lynx. Ann says there is another place and that both should go undercover, but Gabriel denies it, says he will tell Rick and knocked out Anne. After eliminating some zombies, Rick, Maggie, Daryl and Cindy discover from Beatrice that Arat is also missing. Rick and Carol are searching at night, when they are attacked by two Saviors. Carol is caught, and Jed stabs her in the neck, but she manages to fight back and hurt him. Maggie and Daryl arrive elsewhere and encounter Ocean-side women trying arata. Cindy says that in front of the beach, it was her group's camp when the Saviors came and killed all the men, including Arata, who killed her younger brother. She asks for help, but Maggie and Daryl turn away and Cindy executes Arata. In the camp, groups are beginning to return to their communities. Eugene says that the bridge built can not last long with flooding. Jerry warns Rick that Maggie is going to Alexandria, and Rick, in turn, speaks through the lynx to prevent Maggie from entering the community. Michonne reports that Negan refuses to feed and decides to find out what is going on. In a conversation involving even Michonne's dead son, Negan asks to see Lucille, but Michonne says he doesn't know the location of the baton and Negan rages. Rick is preparing to return to Alexandria and Daryl offers him a ride, but the distraction of his itinerary causes controversy between them. Rick and Daryl fight and end up falling into a huge hole, where Daryl says that Rick should let Maggie kill Negan and that the Saviors were killed by the Ocean-side group. In the landfill, Gabriel wakes up and finds a farewell letter from Anna. Back in the camp, a new confusion between Jed and Carol forces the Saviors and other groups to argue with each other, causing a firefight. The zombies are lured to the camp, and Rick and Daryl manage to escape. While Daryl returns to camp, Rick decides to lure the dead with the help of a horse. As the pack gets bigger and bigger, the horse scares, knocking Rick into the fixture that runs through his body. Rick loses consciousness as the zombies get closer and closer. 1205 What will be afterGreg NicoteroStory by : Scott M. Maggie arrives in Alexandria and after an altercation with the name Glenn, Michonne allows her entry. Negan says he lied, saying he doesn't like killing people and pleads with Maggie to kill him so he can join his wife Lucille and as revenge for Glenn's death, but Maggie saves his life, saying negan is worse than dead. Along the way, Rick faints again, this time stopping at Green's farm, where he finds Hershel and apologizes for losing Maggie. In another hallucination, Rick finds himself in a hospital where he woke up from a coma, finding the bodies of all his friends and Sasha, who says his family is not missing. Rick comes to mind, realizes that he is in camp and that his horse ran away. A new vision of Michonne and her friends ensures that Rick has the strength to fight and escape from the oncoming zombies by luring them to the bridge. While the real group seems to save Rick and prevent the hordes from approaching, the sheriff has the idea of blowing up a bridge with dynamite that was there, allegedly killing him as well. A helicopter arrives to rescue Ann, who finds Rick unconscious by the river, and both are taken by plane. Michonne intervenes, saying that Magna was an inmate because she has prison tattoos on her arm, in addition to carrying a knife hidden in her belt, and becoming an even more suspicious group. Daryl now lives alone in the woods, away from everyone. Carol and Henry were on the road when they were ambushed by some Saviors who were stealing their belongings. Henry attacks them and annoys that Carol does not take any action. Gabriel begins to secretly work on the radio communication apparatus to find out if there are still survivors, but the frequency is low, so Eugene and Rosita take the device to the top of the free tower. Upon learning that Rosita was taken to Hilltop, Michonne decides not to return to Alexandria and continue the journey with the rest of the group. After a night of fun with his new friends, Gage, Addy and Rodney, Henry is arrested at Hilltop for non-compliance, leaving Earl disappointed. Rosita regains consciousness and tells Michonne and Siddique that she needs to help Eugene, because the group of zombies from which they fled, it is not just some gang. While Aaron and Jesus support Eugene, Daryl is left behind to try to distract the dead with firecrackers and even barking his dog, but the gang just ignores them. Arriving at the cemetery, the three are cornered dead, and Aaron and Jesus decide to fight. Michonne appears with Magna and Yumiko to rescue Eugene, who together manages to open the gates that are stuck. Daryl, Michonne, Carol and Yumiko follow in the tracks, while the rest of the band goes to Hilltop. Alpha goes undercover to the fair and finds Lydia, who refuses to return with her mother. At night, Daryl and the others are surrounded and surrendered in Whispers. Alpha says that this place is his group's new camp and takes Daryl to meet a large herd of dead who are under their control, and threatens, saying that if they re-enter their territory, he will release the dead to destroy their communities. The group is released and finds Siddique, wounded and frightened, showing them the sequence of stakes to distinguish territory between the Whispers and other communities. However, each of the stakes has the head of ten former survivors, namely Ozzy, Alec, D.J., Frankie, Tammy Rose, Addy, Rodney, Enid, Tara and Henry. Back in the Kingdom, Siddique reveals that all of them were kidnapped by Alpha, and that he survived to tell of the massacre of his friends. Meanwhile, the outside begins snow. 13116 Storm(Storm)Greg NicoteroAngela Kang and Matthew NegreteApril 1, 2019 (2019-04-01)5.02 Kingdom fell. The community no longer has the resources to survive, and its residents are preparing to move to Hilltop. Ezekiel talks to Daryl, implying that he was to blame for Henry's death. As a severe blizzard approaches, the survivors take refuge in the once sanctuary. In Alexandria, residents head to Aaron's house to keep warm, thanks to a still active fireplace and chimney when Judith, hearing Daryl's dog barking, rushes to look for him in the middle of a blizzard and follows Negan. Without supplies, the Kingdom group decides to leave at night, opposing Alpha and crossing its border to get the label. Lydia blames herself for Henry's death and asks Carol to kill her, who does nothing. Faced with zombies and crossing a frozen lake, the survivors arrive at the top of the hill. Nagan finds Judith with the dog. Carol decides to end his relationship with Ezekiel and goes to Alexandria with Daryl, Michonne and another group. Michonne thanks Negan for saving Judith. Meanwhile, the girl talks to Ezekiel on the radio, but interrupts the conversation, saying that she will do his homework. Ezekiel leaves the room when an unknown voice calls him on the radio.
