

Kaitlin grew up in Charles County and began dancing at the age of 5. She competed with GJ Dance Studio in Waldorf, MD. While at GJs, Kaitlin was trained in ballet, tap, jazz, lyrical, contemporary, hip hop, and musical theater. The GJ show-troupe was accredited with many championships, titles, scholarships and more while Kaitlin was a part of the team. Throughout the years, Kaitlin has trained under many industry professionals such as Laura Edwards, Monica Warr, Neo Lynch, etc. In high school, Kaitlin also joined the Port Tobacco Players in La Plata, MD. She performed in shows such as Annie, Sister Act, Crazy For You, Guys & Dolls, and more. After high school, Kaitlin attended Virginia Tech where she was a member of the Dance Company of Virginia Tech all four years. She choreographed for the team, and even served as president of the company her final year on the team. Now that she has graduated with her degree in residential design, Kaitlin is so excited to be back, and to teach at a hometown studio where she can continue to share her love for dance!
