[Verse 1]

In the year of '39 assembled here the Volunteers
In the days when lands were few
Here the ship sailed out into the blue and sunny morn
Sweetest sight ever seen
And the night followed day and the story tellers say
That the score brave souls inside
For many a lonely day sailed across the milky seas
Ne'er looked back, never feared, never cried

[Chorus]

Don't you hear my call though you're many years
away?
Don't you hear me calling you?
Write your letters in the sand for the day I take your hand
In the land that our grandchildren knew

[Verse 2]

In the year of '39 came a ship in from the blue
The volunteers came home that day
And they bring good news of a world so newly born Though their hearts so heavily weigh
For the Earth is old and grey, little darlin', wellaway
But my love, this cannot be
For so many years are gone though I'm older but a year
Your mother's eyes from your eyes cry to me

[Chorus]

Don't you hear my call though you're many years
away?
Don't you hear me calling you?
Write your letters in the sand for the day I take your
hand
In the land that our grandchildren knew

[Outro]

Don't you hear my call though you're many years
away?
Don't you hear me calling you?
All your letters in the sand cannot heal me like your hand
For my life, still ahead, pity me
