[Verse 1: John Gourley]

From the time I was born
Through all of my days
Try to catch my breath
Out of the womb and into the flames
Searching for the neon path

[Pre-Chorus]

I've been waiting my whole life
In the crossfire, yeah
I've been hiding my whole life
In the crossfire, yeah the crossfire
Every time I move
Every step that I take
Everywhere I look
It's right in front of my face
One foot in the shadows
One foot on the brakes

One foot towards the gallows
Where it's quiet and safe

[Chorus: John Gourley]

Every step that I take
Every step that I take
Every step that I take
Step that I take
Every step that I take

[Verse 2: John Gourley]

Lost in the motions
Locked in the safe
Trying to forget the key
And I know where I lost it
But I'll never say
One day it was taken from me

[Pre-Chorus]

I've been waiting my whole life
In the crossfire, yeah
I've been hiding my whole life
In the crossfire, yeah the crossfire
Every time I move
Every step that I take

Everywhere I look
It's right in front of my face
One foot in the shadows
One foot on the brakes
One foot towards the gallows
Where it's quiet and safe

[Chorus: John Gourley]

Every step that I take
Every step that I take
Every step that I take
Step that I take
Every step that I take
Step that I take
Every step that I take

[Guitar Solo]

[Bridge]

Every step that I take, take, take, take (Take, take, take, take)
Every step that I take

[Pre-Chorus]

Every time I move

Every step that I take
Everywhere I look
It's right in front of my face
One foot in the shadows
One foot on the brakes
Can't shake this force that
Keeps calling my name

[Chorus: John Gourley]

Every step that I take
Every step that I take
Every step that I take
Every step that I take
