A day to remember begins with serenity – celebrate lovely and happy at the Green Reed Spa today! Anna Lee M wrote a report Dec 2019Rio Rancho, New Mexico1 postextremely extreme and angry! I booked a massage for my friend and myself almost 2 months ago. My parents gave me an hour and a half of massage including a tip for my 40th birthday. I received a confirmation call yesterday and promptly confirmed it. Today I received a call that my friend's appointment would be cancelled because his therapist had a family emergency. Things happen, but nothing was offered, except a 30% discount on a day when it would be 20% off anyway. I was promised that I would get a call for some kind of solution before the end of business hours. It is now 8:57 and according to their website they closed at 7 p.m. I have now left a voicemail for Sandia Casino General Manager and for the green reed spa. Our New Year's Eve plans are ruined, and no one has stretched out!!! I'm so angry. They didn't even bother to call back today at the end of the deal, as the deputy manager promised. This is totally unacceptable. ... Date of Experience: December 2019Sandra W wrote a review Nov 2019Upper Marlboro, Maryland6 posts2 helpful voicesFabulous Mother-Daughter OutingMy Daughter and I had a great visit to the Green Reed Spa. It was difficult to pull my daughter away from the facility. We were in the area and took part in the annual Albuquerque Balloon Fiesta. We got half of the prize coupons and thought it was worth a try. We were not disappointed. We both had amazing facials and were treated like princesses. We wish they were closer so we could go regularly. But we live in Maryland, so that's not possible. Nevertheless, if we are ever within a 100-mile radius, we will return DEFINITELY. Fabulous experience.... Date of Experience: October 2019310SassyTraveler wrote a review Jul 201929 posts8 helpful voicesExcellent pedicure and spa. Fun! Booked mother-daughter pedicure, 2 at the same time, and loved the décor and view, except current construction. We had the 1 hour pedis and they use really great products. There was a confusion with our appointment when we checked in and they only had one of us down. But while we went and enjoyed all the other spa facilities, they called in another provider so we could have our services together. You would never have known that one of them was called at the last minute! They were so professional that we never knew and they both gave us 5-star treatments!!! We also enjoyed the other amenities and the view from the 'relaxation area' is awesome! Will definitely go back here when I'm city.... Date of experience: 2019Linseyduo wrote a review Jun 2019Central PA48 posts15 helpful voicesI visited the spa on a weekday when there were very few people there, and it was amazing. I have visited many spas and this one is first class! The details of the facility were well thought out and beautifully maintained. Both services I had were fabulous and inexpensive. If in area, I DEFINITELY would go back!... Date of experience: June 2019Kat C wrote a report Jun 20192 postsThe only place my mom and I go because she deserves it. The staff is nice and we have a great service every time. Experience date: June 2019 2019
