The zenith is 7th place. Thus, the layout of the th6 base becomes a fairly easy prey for the army th7. Therefore, it is necessary to focus on the correct construction of the defense base to protect resources. We have tried to choose the most popular th6 for you and will constantly expand the gallery of arrangements. At the same time, you can easily change the location's purpose yourself by rearranging buildings and traps and swapping them. TIPS AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SELECTION OF TH6In the 6th level of the town hall there is no point you can place a clan castle in the middle of the base, because reinforcement kk is easy to seduce. It is better to take its place as a repository of resources. If you are an active farm and trophies are not so important to you, then the town hall can also be moved to the edge of the village. Resource stores should be evenly distributed throughout the base area (closer to the center), dividing them, if possible, Not protected by a fence should be located close to the fence, within a defensive radius, this will greatly complicate the destruction of your village. When planning a layout of th6, don't let the holes, otherwise enemy troops may be planted inside your village. Don't forget to set the traps correctly. The spring, located directly between the defensive structures, works more likely and, accordingly, brings more benefits. When combining the springs of traps with bombs, you first need to place the springs of the trap, and after them the bombs. This way you can increase the effectiveness of defending baseWounded wars to do the same damage as completely healthy, so that bombs must be grouped to instantly destroy weak troops. Follow the above recommendations, it will help avoid obvious mistakes, and will contribute to the effective development of your account at the 6th level of clan collision.P.S. Town Hall should be protected by a fence and be in such a place that the enemy can destroy it and collect about 50% destruction, then you will get a pretty decent time shield and your resources will be more in safety.
