

While Shepherds watched

Words and Tune from Gilbert's Christmas Carol, 1822.

1 Fear not, said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind;
Giant tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.

2 'Tis you in David's town this day
A hero of David's line,
A Saviour, which is Christ the Lord,
And this shall be the sign.

3 All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will towards all men,
Begin and never cease!

4. The Heavenly Babe you there shall find,
To human view displayed;
All ready wrapped in swaddling bands,
And in a manger laid.

5. Thus spake the strength and fortitude
Appointed a shining thing,
Of Angels praising God, and thus
Addressed their joyful song.

* Though he includes this fine songlet 'Christmas Carol', Gilbert frankly labels it 'A Pious Yarn'. I have transcribed the text exactly as it stands, and have explained the title and three parts, there being none in the original. [10]
