They minimize language redundancy. For example, instead of saying, John went to John's house because John's mom wanted John home, you could say, John went to his house because his mom wanted him home. Pronouns save a lot of syllables. However, mastering pronouns can be difficult. We need to learn how to identify subjective, objective and possessive cases. You need to learn to avoid the use of vague pronouns or pronouns with obscure predecessors. And often, it all has to be done on the fly, while one says. Over the years I have created many sheets of pronouns, resources and activities. These resources have been made available to you. I hope it helps.
